An Invitation

A good way to help determine whether or not a college would meet your needs is to visit the campus, stay overnight in one of the dormitories, meet some of the students and faculty, get a feeling of the spirit of the school.

Prospective students and parents are welcome. To make arrangements for a visit, write:

The Director of Admissions.

BREVARD COLLEGE

Emmett Kennedy McLarty, Jr.
PRESIDENT

PURPOSE

With first emphasis on intellectual discipline, Brevard College exists for the purpose of providing a two-year academic program, primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors in four-year colleges.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

PROGRAM

The Brevard College academic program is principally for students who plan to complete four years of college or university study. With eighty-five per cent of our graduates in the university parallel courses transferring to four-year colleges or universities each year, our basic curriculum is composed of courses which are required for transfer credit. This is in keeping with our concept that the best pre-professional training consists in a thorough grounding in the basic knowledge on which the professions depend for their development.

The only curriculum our program provides for two-year terminal students is in Secretarial Science and Business Administration.

Testing and Guidance

Brevard College believes the basic concern of education must be with the individual and emphasizes the personal relationship by giving attention to the needs and progress of individual students. Each student is assigned to a faculty member who serves as an advisor in academic and personal areas. With a professionally trained and experienced Guidance Counselor, a faculty counseling committee continually evaluates the college program of testing and guidance, and offers in-service training for faculty members in this work.

Advantages

With a Christian orientation, Brevard College emphasizes certain advantages which are possible in a two-year college of liberal arts.

1. A solid core of college subjects concentrated at the two-year level.
2. Additional personal work with students—beyond that available in a small senior college — made possible by the efficient functioning of instructors in a two-year limit of courses.
3. Terminal vocational training in certain areas for those who desire it.
4. Two years of college study and cultural opportunity for young people who may wish education beyond high school but short of a full college course.
5. Early experience through participation in a variety of worthwhile activities often reserved for juniors and seniors in a four-year college.
 - a. Leadership offices in student government and other organizations.
 - b. Journalistic experience on the college paper or the staff of the college annual.
 - c. Tours with glee club, choir, or instrumental ensembles.
 - d. Varsity letters on athletic teams.
 - e. Dramatic activity—in production or acting or both.
 - f. Attainment of deserved recognition in honor societies and special awards.

The Physical Plant

Education of quality cannot be achieved without superior facilities. Brevard College is currently in the midst of an expansion program which, when completed, will mean double the academic accommodations.

The classroom building, library, new science building and new gymnasium-natatorium are at the center of college life. The classroom building houses humanities and art, the business department, a Rheem-Califone language laboratory, and faculty offices.

The library well exceeds accrediting standards in excellence of staff and the variety of books and periodicals it makes available to faculty and students.

The new science building, excellent in its equipment, contains faculty offices and growth space.

A new, spacious, well-equipped gymnasium, and an Olympic-size swimming pool provide an exceptional variety of physical education and sports activities. A new baseball diamond, and all-weather tennis courts and track present a field unsurpassed in the southeast in quality.

The campus center building contains the administrative offices, auditorium, cafeteria, college store, post office, faculty and student lounges.

An infirmary, an apartment and eleven residences for members of the faculty and administration, and the "Barn" — used for instrumental ensemble practices and maintenance — are also units of the college plant.

The science hall is the first building of a quadrangle that will consist of a new administration building, now under construction, and a new classroom building. The administration building is part of the second phase of the current expansion program. In addition, the second phase will include a new library, the present one renovated to become the student center, and the Sims Campus Center building renovated to house the music department. The third and last phase of the program will include the classroom building and two new dormitories.

History

Brevard College, beautiful in campus grounds and contemporary in buildings and educational philosophy, honors its Methodist sponsorship and its early origin. The college dates from 1853 when Rutherford College was founded by Robert Laban Abernethy, a Methodist minister. Initially the college was an academy—Owl Hollow School—and through progressive stages came to be a seminary and a four-year college until the union with Weaver College into Brevard College at the site of Brevard Institute.

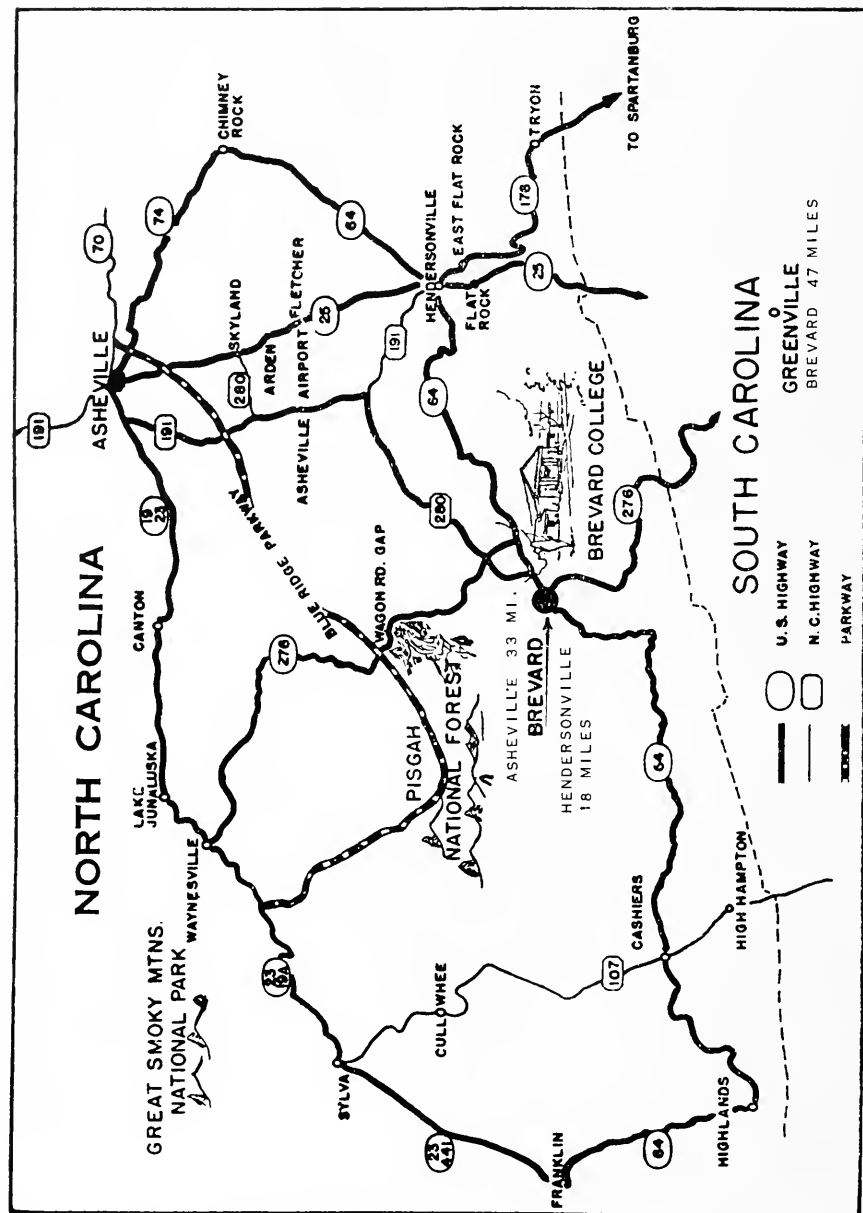

Weaver College, so named in 1912, was incorporated in 1872 under the presidency of James A. Regan, and became a Methodist college officially in 1883. Brevard Institute was founded in 1895 by Reverend and Mrs. Fitch Taylor as a pioneering venture among mountain young people.

Brevard College thus numbers among its alumni many honored persons who attended the three institutions which are now a part of her. These paragraphs note only major official steps in an exciting educational saga.

Location

Brevard College is located in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, 33 miles southwest of Asheville, 18 miles from the Asheville airport, and 47 miles from Greenville, S. C. In the Brevard community are two prominent industries: duPont (x-ray film), and Olin (fine paper and film). Brevard is the home of Radio Station WPNF and the nationally famous Brevard Music Center. The Pisgah National Forest is within sight of the college.

The College Community

GOVERNMENT

By enrolling in the college each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association, entitled to the privileges and bound by the responsibilities of the constitution, by-laws, and stated standards. The Student Handbook, the official publication of the Association, is sent each student prior to arrival.

The Student Council, which consists of ten students and three faculty members, represents the Student Government Association and has full judicial power to enforce the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. All student organizations are responsible to the Student Council.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Brevard College expects all students to assume personal responsibility in all areas of college life, and in the maintenance of standards of behavior. Students must display, in attitude and conduct, willingness to accept and cooperate with the college in observing established policies. Drinking, gambling, cheating and immoral conduct are forbidden. Honesty, both in academic matters and personal life, must prevail and any deviation is subject to action by the Student Council and officers of the college.

COMMUNITY REGULATIONS

The Use of Automobiles

The owning or operating of a car is restricted. No freshman boarding student will be given a permit to keep a car during his first semester. Details regarding regulations are to be found in the Student Handbook.

Chapel, Assembly, Lyceum Programs

Attendance is required of all students because these programs contribute so much to the educational experience.

Student Responsibility

Students are responsible for the care of their rooms. Loss due to damage done to rooms, furniture, or college property will be assessed against the student or students responsible. Any student who changes room, moves, or exchanges furniture without the permission of dormitory supervisors will be subject to a fee of $5.00 and disciplinary action.

Student Health

Brevard College requires that entering students present a physician's report certifying freedom from communicable diseases and noting any necessary restrictions to be placed upon physical activity. (Students receive the form for making this report during the summer at the time room assignments are made.) The college expects entering students to have, in addition to the usual vaccinations given during public school years, immunization against poliomyelitis and influenza. Brevard College observes precautions regarding health and physical welfare in all areas of college life, and provides infirmary services for casual illness or for convalescence.

Health and accident insurance is made available by the college at a reasonable cost and is required of all students. A booklet describing cost and details of coverage is furnished each student accepted for admission.

In emergency cases requiring special medical attention or surgery the Dean serves in loco parentis.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

Places of Worship

Students are encouraged to attend churches of their own choice. The churches of Brevard extend a cordial invitation to attend their Church schools, youth groups and worship services.

Convocations

Speakers for convocations include able leaders from all denominations.

Fellowship Groups

Fellowship groups seek not to proselytize, but to develop comradeship among students of a given denomination, and to deepen loyalty to denomination. These groups offer assistance in the development of lay and professional leadership for their respective denominations. The major active denominational groups on the campus are: The Methodist Student Fellowship, The Baptist Student Union, The Canterbury Club, and Westminster Fellowship.

CULTURAL LIFE

Throughout the school year a number of programs and events offer special opportunities for all members of the community to broaden their interest and appreciation in art, dramatics, music and other fine arts.

Art Exhibits

Each month an exhibit of the work of an outstanding artist is mounted in the Faculty Lounge by the Art Department.

Lyceum Series

Four lyceum programs are scheduled each year. They include lectures, dramatic productions and musical programs.

Dramatics

The campus organization, The Masquers, and members of the Play Production class assume responsibility for dramatic presentations. Major productions include one full length play and a program of one act plays.

Music

Music plays an important role in the cultural life of the college.

The Choir and the Glee Club present programs of sacred and secular music on campus, in local churches and on annual tours.

Instrumental Ensembles provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

SPORTS AND RECREATION

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Brevard College offers theoretical and practical courses in health and physical education and arranges a comprehensive program of varsity and intramural sports.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

The intercollegiate program stresses basketball, baseball, track, golf and tennis in accordance with the Western Carolina Junior College Athletic Conference and the National Junior College Athletic Association, of which the college is a member.

INTRAMURAL

Intramural sports and physical education classes include basketball, touch football, softball, archery, bowling, swimming, field hockey, skating, and a variety of other activities.

The Mountaineers Club sponsors hikes, picnics and tours through the mountains of the area.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The college encourages students to form groups for the development of special interests, subject to the following stipulations:

1. Administrative approval of a written constitution and statement of nature and purpose.
2. Supervision of business affairs by the business manager of the college, whose office serves as repository for funds.
3. Advisory guidance by a member of the faculty designated by the administration.

Existing organizations reflect student interest in religion, scholarship, language, commerce, government, dramatics, music, athletics, science, nature and social activities.

Honor Societies and Qualifications

Phi Theta Kappa

Academic rank in upper 10% of student body and maintenance of "B" average with 15 credit hours in the semester prior to election, 12 of these in the arts and sciences.

Sigma Pi Alpha

Grade "A" in a course in language, with academic average of "B."

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Secretarial major with academic average of "B-plus."

Alpha Beta Gamma

Chemistry student with high scholastic standing and qualities of leadership.

Religious Organizations

The Christian Council is comprised of the officers of the religious organizations on campus. The Council coordinates the efforts the organizations make to answer problems that arise pertaining to the religious life of a student and to develop a pervasive Christian spirit at Brevard College.

Kappa Chi is a group composed of men and women who plan to enter Christian service on a professional basis.

Admissions Procedure

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Acceptance of candidates for admission follows a selective process. In selecting the entering class, the Admissions Committee considers the school record, the results of the Scholastic Aptitude Test, and the recommendation from the school. The academic record of an applicant, the degree to which he has demonstrated intellectual curiosity, and evidence of his motivation to maintain a satisfactory level of college performance are of primary importance; considered in conjunction with these are his character and personality.

SPECIFIC ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

I. Regular Students

Formal Application—It is advisable that the application be completed by the candidate as early as possible in his senior year and mailed to the Director of Admissions, Brevard College, Brevard, N. C. Applications after August 1 will be accepted only if there are vacancies in the entering class.

Application Fee—A $15.00 application fee is required with each application. Since this fee covers only part of the cost of processing and application, it is not refundable, whether or not the candidate is admitted.

Character References—Three forms will be sent to the applicant from the admissions office. Two of the character references should be completed by former teachers of college preparatory subjects, and the third form may be completed by whomever the applicant desires to name.

The Official High School Transcript—Candidates are required to have a transcript forwarded directly from each high school they have attended. The transcript must show graduation from an accredited high school with at least an average grade of C in college preparatory subjects where the passing grade is D, or an average grade of B, where the passing grade is C. (Graduates of non-accredited high schools are considered after an examination administered by the college.)

The Scholastic Aptitude Test—All candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. Arrangements for this test may be made with the principal or guidance counselor or by writing directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. (For veterans and in other special cases, the college considers results of the General Educational Development Test.)

Admission Deposit—A room reservation fee of $60.00 is due immediately upon notification of acceptance for enrollment. This fee is non-refundable.

II. Special Students

1. Students who are twenty-one years of age or older and who are residents of the immediate area may be admitted by examination to certain courses for credit, without taking a full load of work.
2. Students with special needs who are residents of the immediate area may be permitted to enroll in classes with credits earned being recorded but not transferred.
3. Students may be admitted without college credit to courses in applied music and art and vocational subjects upon recommendation of the dean of the college.

III. Admission To Advanced Standing

Credits earned at accredited colleges will be evaluated and recorded on transfer students' records. Credit toward graduation from Brevard College will be allowed for work done in courses similar to those offered at Brevard College provided the grade received is at least a C where the passing grade is D. (See also Requirements for Graduation, Section IV on Transfer Students.)

WHAT TO BRING

Dormitory rooms are furnished with single beds, dresser, chairs, tables, and Venetian blinds. Each student should provide towels, sheets, pillow, pillow cases, blankets, bedspreads*, study lamp, drinking glass and similar items for personal use. No provision is made for the display of pictures or art on walls. Suitable folders and frames not requiring hanging should be provided.

COLLEGE STORE

Books, stationery, school supplies, personal toiletries, refreshments, gifts, and other sundry items may be purchased from the college-operated store, located in the Campus Center Building. No provision is made for charge accounts for this unit of the college auxiliary enterprises.

EXPLANATION OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEE

The General Fee

The "general fee" secures for each student, without additional cost, (1) a subscription to the student paper, (2) lyceum tickets, (3) admission to athletic games, (4) participation in various group functions—literary, social, religious, and intramural, and (5) the college annual.

Terms

No deduction is made in any department for late entrance to classes except private music lessons. Every student, by act of registration, creates a liability for that payment period. A parent or guardian, by entering a student, accepts the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog as final and binding upon him.

No student will be allowed to register or attend classes or to begin private music lessons until all financial affairs have been arranged with the business office.

WHEN A STUDENT HAS BEEN GRANTED FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE, THAT SUM IS NOT APPLICABLE TO THE PAYMENT AT REGISTRATION, BUT IS CREDITED AT THE TIME OF THE SECOND PAYMENT. Students receiving aid through work will receive credit as earned at the rate of 75c per hour and therefore the amount of aid granted is not applicable to their first payment at registration.

Brevard's operation is based upon payment of fees at the time stated. When a patron finds it necessary to request deferred payment, special arrangements must be made in advance of the due date.

Should a student find it necessary to leave college before the end of a semester, he must notify the dean, the business manager and the librarian before honorable dismissal is granted, or transcripts of his records will not be furnished.

Refunds

If a student withdraws he is responsible for payment of fees up to but not beyond the given payment period.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Brevard College will do all within its resources to encourage able students to obtain an education. "None shall be turned away for want of means," reads a legend at the entrance of the campus. All financial assistance is under the control of the Student Aid Committee.

PRINCIPLES OF AWARDS

The Student Aid Committee observes the following principles:

1. Financial aid is made available on the basis of ability, character and need.
2. Applicants must present acceptable scores on the College Entrance Examination Scholastic Aptitude Test, and a satisfactory high school scholastic record.
3. Assistance may be withdrawn at any time should the student fail to maintain a good scholastic record or to show satisfactory cooperation with the best interest of the college community or should he be placed under college discipline. Since scholarship holders are students of outstanding citizenship, they may be asked to perform certain courtesy services as representatives of the College, acting upon occasion as ushers, guides, college hosts or hostesses.
4. Renewal of all scholarships is subject to review by the committee and is dependent on continued need, good conduct, satisfactory grades and availability of funds.

Academic Requirements

GRADES

Key to Grading System:

| Grade | Rating | Quality Points per. Sm. Hr. Cr. |
|--------------|------------|------------------------------------|
| A (94-100) | Excellent | 3 |
| B (87-93) | Superior | 2 |
| C (78-86) | Average | 1 |
| D (70-77) | Passing | 0 |
| F (below 70) | Failing | 0 |
| I | Incomplete | 0 |
| W | Withdrawn | 0 |

STUDENT LOAD

The normal student load is 18 or 19 semester hours of work. Only special students may take less than 12 semester hours of work. Veterans must take a minimum of 14 semester hours (or a minimum of 12 semester hours plus 3 hours of work on a non-credit basis) to qualify for subsistence allotments.

There will be a charge of ten dollars for each semester hour in excess of 19 hours.

First semester freshmen are limited to the normal load unless a combination of high school record and placement test scores warrant permission to take additional work.

A student's load may be reduced if he or she is employed more than twelve hours a week either in the campus work program or in gainful employment elsewhere. A student's load may also be reduced if the student's academic record indicates such a reduction, maintenance of an average grade of C being the usual standard for a normal load.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students who fail to pass nine semester hours with nine quality points are placed on academic probation at the end of the grading period in which this status is indicated. Unless the minimum standard is attained by the end of the succeeding grading period the student may be dropped from the college. This regulation may be waived only by a vote of the Committee on Academic Standards and Readmission in the light of extenuating circumstances.

II. Quality Points

One quality point is required for each hour of academic credit attempted.

III. Transfer Students

In order to receive a diploma from Brevard College, a transfer student must be in attendance for one year and must complete a minimum of twenty-five semester hours with an average grade of C on all college courses attempted, and must meet all other requirements for graduation.

IV. Summer School Work

Students may enroll elsewhere for summer study and transfer credits to Brevard College provided the scope of a course in question is similar to the scope of a course at Brevard College, the total credits so earned do not exceed ten hours of credit, and provided arrangements for such study are approved by the dean of the college prior to registration for the summer study. Normally permission will not be granted for enrollment in courses available to the student in a regular program at Brevard College.

V. Graduation Attendance

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation.

Curricula

Group I

For Students Planning to Complete Four Years of College or University Study

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages have been designed to give the best possible preparation for pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities which offer advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses (exception: Music) leads to the Associate in Arts Degree.

Records of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheets, and preparation of financial statements.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Accounting 12—Principles of Accounting.

Continuation of Accounting 11.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

*See laboratory fees.

All art courses bear provisional credit. That is, they are accepted for graduation at Brevard College but vary in their value for transfer credit.

Accounting 21—Intermediate Accounting.

Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternative methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue.

3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

Accounting 22—Cost Accounting.

Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data.

3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

Business Administration 10—Introduction to Business.

Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, and production and distribution.

3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

Business Administration 21— Salesmanship.

Planning of sales work, selection of prospects, presentation of product, overcoming objections, and closing techniques, with practice in simulated situations.
3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

Business Administration 22— Organization and Management of Small Business.

Planning and organization of a business, management, finance, risk bearing, and competition, with case studies.
3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

Business Administration 23— Business Law.

Law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships, and corporations.
3 periods.

Credit, 3 semester hours

Business Administration 24— Business Law.

Continuation of Business Administration 23.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Shorthand 11—Beginning Shorthand.

Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription.

5 periods Credit, 3 semester hours

Shorthand 12—Beginning Shorthand.

Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required.

5 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Shorthand 21—Advanced Shorthand.

Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required.

5 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Shorthand 22—Advanced Shorthand.

Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required.

5 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Typewriting 11—Beginning Typewriting.

Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulations. Laboratory fee.

5 periods. Credit, 2½ semester hours

Typewriting 12—Intermediate Typewriting.

Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee.

5 periods. Credit, 2½ semester hours

Typewriting 21—Advanced Typewriting.

Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Fifty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee.

3 periods. Credit, 1½ semester hours

Secretarial Science 27— Secretarial Practice.

Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, deportment, character and personality traits.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Secretarial Science 28— Office Machines

Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee.

3 periods. Credit, 2 semester hours

Secretarial Science 29— Business Correspondence.

Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence.

3 periods.

Provisional credit, 3 semester hours

ENGLISH

English 11—English Fundamentals.

Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

English 12—English Composition.

Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

English 13, a, b, c—Journalistic Composition.

English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, the Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor.

1 period and additional meetings as required. Credit, 1 semester hour to maximum of 3 semester hours

English 14—Introduction to The Theatre.

A practical course covering the basic techniques of play production in the following areas: acting, directing, stage scenery, lighting, management, also, history of the theatre, forms of drama.

2 periods and 2 hours workshop.

English 15—Public Speaking.

Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials.

English 24—Drama Workshop.

Prerequisite: English 14. Assignments on work crews for major productions: carpentry, paint, props, lighting, costume, makeup, stage.

2 Productions.

Credit, 1 semester hour

LANGUAGE*

French 11-12—Elementary French.

Fundamentals of French grammar. 3 periods with additional meetings as required. Credit, 6 semester hours

French 21-22—Intermediate French.

Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French.

3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

French 31-32—French Literature.

Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite:

site: French 21-22.

3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

German 11-12—Elementary German.

Fundamentals of German grammar. 3 periods with additional meetings as required. Credit, 6 semester hours

German 21-22—Intermediate German.

Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German.

3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

*Laboratory period of two hours each week required of all students of modern language.

Spanish 11-12—Elementary Spanish.

Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. 3 periods with additional meetings as required. Credit, 6 semester hours

Spanish 21-22—Intermediate Spanish.

Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish. 3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22. 3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

MATHEMATICS

All students enrolling for courses in mathematics are classified by means of standardized placement tests, and only those making satisfactory scores are admitted to courses for college credit.

Non-credit courses in high school algebra and geometry are offered for students who lack sufficient preparation to enter the college credit courses.

Mathematics 01—Preparatory Algebra.

Fundamental algebraic operations. Laboratory fee. 3 periods. No credit

Mathematics 02—Preparatory Plane Geometry.

Postulates and theorems of geometry to qualify students to enter Mathematics 12E. Laboratory fee. 3 periods. No credit

Mathematics 03—Solid Geometry.

Plane figures, lines, planes, angles, solids for which $V=Bh$, $V=1/3 Bh$, $V=(\text{mean } B)h$, the sphere, volumes and surface of revolution, polyhedrons, the general prismatoid. Laboratory fee. 3 periods. No credit

Mathematics 10—Intermediate Algebra.

Factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in high school algebra. Required of students who fail to qualify on placement test for Mathematics 11. 3 periods.

Mathematics 11—College Algebra.

Review of operations listed in Mathematics 10, ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, infinite series, theory of equations, binomial theorem, mathematical induction, determinants, permutations, combinations, probability, inequalities, complex numbers, logarithms, partial fractions, exponential and logarithmic curves. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 11E—Engineering Algebra.

Topics listed in Mathematics 11 with emphasis upon engineering problems. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 12—Trigonometry.

The trigonometric functions, solution of right and oblique triangles, radian measures, reduction theories and formulas, identities and trigonometric equations, multiple angles, complex numbers, DeMoivre's Theorem, and trigonometric curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 01 and 02, corequisite Mathematics 11. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 12E—Engineering Trigonometry.

Topics listed in Mathematics 12 with emphasis upon engineering problems. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 15—Engineering

Drawing.

The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching, orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee.

2 3-hour laboratory periods.

Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 16—Descriptive

Geometry.

Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolution, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee.

2 3 hour laboratory periods.

Credit, 3 semester hours

Mathematics 20—Modern

Algebra.

Sets relations; functions and numbers; sets and subsets; operations with sets; relations; functions; domain and range of a function; one-to-one correspondence; the inverse of a function; equivalence relations; cardinal numbers; countably infinite sets; non-denumerable sets; unions, intersection, and differences; venn diagrams;

solution sets of inequalities. Vector; vector addition; applications of vector addition; components of vectors. Provisional credit, 3 semester hours.

Mathematics 21—Analytic

Geometry.

Loci of equations, the straight line, circle, parabola, ellipse, hyperbola, the general equation of second degree, coordinates in space, planes, lines, and surfaces.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

*See laboratory fees.

Mathematics 22—Calculus I.

Survey of mathematical formulas; variables, functions, and limits; simple differentiation and applications, maximum, minimum, rate of change, velocity; successive differentiation and applications; transcendental functions; polars; curvature; mean value.

6 periods. Credit, 5 semester hours.

Mathematics 23—Calculus II.

Integration; definite integral; applications, length of curve, area, volume, centroid, work; reduction formulas; series; expansion of functions; ordinary differential equations; hyperbolic functions; partial differentiation; multiple integrals.

6 periods. Credit, 5 semester hours.

MUSIC

Classroom Courses

A comprehensive music theory examination may be given prior to registration of persons wishing to take any theory course in music.

Music 01—

Comprehensive music theory, prerequisite or co-requisite of all music classroom courses. May be waived by departmental action.

3 periods.

Non-credit

Music 11-12—Sight-Singing,

Music Dictation.

Harmonic and melodic fundamentals. Required of majors, open to others by permission.

2 periods. Credit, 2 semester hours

Music 21-22—Sight-Singing,

Music Dictation.

Continuation of Music 11-12.

2 periods. Credit, 2 semester hours

Music 13-14—Harmony.

Scale and chord structure, common and seventh chords, modulations, nonharmonic tones, cadences and other forms. Keyboard work parallels written and aural experience. Required of majors, open to others by permission.

3 periods. Credit, 6 semester hours

Music 23-24—Harmony.

Continuation of Music 13-14 with survey of contemporary harmonic techniques.

Music 15, 16—Music

Appreciation.

Significance and aesthetic purpose of music and the relation of music to other art forms, with basic history and evolution of music.

2 periods.

Credit, 2 semester hours each semester

Music 17-18—Keyboard

Harmony I.

1 period or 1½ hour private.

Credit, 2 semester hours

Music 19-20—Keyboard II.

1 period or ½ hour private.

Credit, 2 semester hours

Music 25, 26—Music History.

History of music from earliest civilization to the present. Prerequisite: Music 15-16 or permission.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours each semester

Music 27, 28—Hymnology.

History, analysis and recognition of hymns of the church. Recommended for religion majors.

2 periods. Credit, 2 semester hours each semester

Ensemble Courses

Ensemble 11V—Glee Club.

SATB sacred and secular music. One or more tours each year. Open to all students.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 12V—Choir.

SATB sacred music. Includes singing for college chapel services and two church services each month. Open to all students.

1½-hour rehearsal a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 13V—Madrigal.

SATB sacred and secular music primarily from polyphonic period. Performances on campus and tours. Membership through competitive try-outs.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 11I—Orchestra.

Standard arrangements for orchestra. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 12I—Concert Band.

Standard arrangements for band. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 13I—Brass Ensemble.

Membership through competitive try-outs.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 14I—String

Ensemble.

Membership through competitive try-outs.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

Ensemble 15I—Woodwind

Ensemble.

Membership through competitive try-outs.

2 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Credit, ½ semester hour

APPLIED MUSIC COURSES

Applied music courses are offered in one-half hour lessons of private instruction with credit granted at the rate of one semester hour per lesson for fifteen weeks of instruction, with five hours of practice required for each lesson.

Music majors are expected to take two hours credit per semester in a major applied music subject and one hour credit in a minor applied music subject.

Music Board Examinations are given at the beginning of the fall semester and at the end of each semester to ascertain the progress of individual students taking applied music courses. This board, composed of members of the music faculty, may grant or withhold credit but has no authority over the grade awarded for a course.

Non-credit courses bear the number 01.

Terminal credit courses bear the numbers 11a, 12a, 21a, 22a.

Courses carrying transfer credit bear the numbers 11, 12, 21, 22.

Classical Guitar 01—Private Instruction.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Classical Guitar 11a—Private Instruction.

Open to any college student.

Classical Guitar 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of 11a.

Classical Guitar 11—Private Instruction.

Prerequisite: Some prior experience in playing the guitar will ordinarily be required with a good basic music reading ability expected.

Piano 01—Private Instruction in Piano.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Piano 11a—Private Instruction in Piano.

Open to any college student.

Piano 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of Piano 11a.

Piano 11—Private Instruction in Piano.

Prerequisite: knowledge of major and minor scales, ability to play them four notes to the beat at moderate tempi, ability to play two works such as Bach, Little Preludes, a Two-part Invention, slow movement of an easier sonata by Mozart, Haydn or Beethoven, or comparable work from a later period.

Piano 12, 21, 22—
Continuation of Piano 11.

Organ 01—Private Instruction in Organ.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Organ 11a—Private Instruction in Organ.

Open to any college student.

Organ 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of Organ 11a.

Organ 11—Private Instruction in Organ.

Prerequisite: same as for Piano 11. Prior study of organ recommended.

Organ 12, 21, 22—
Continuation of Organ 11.

Voice 01—Private Instruction in Voice.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Voice 11a—Private Instruction in Voice.

Open to any college student.

Voice 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of Voice 11a.

Voice 11—Private Instruction in Voice.

Prerequisite: ability to sing standard song on pitch with correct phrasing, good enunciation and musical intelligence. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Voice 12, 21, 22—
Continuation of Voice 11.

Brass 01—Private Instruction in Brass.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Brass 11a—Private Instruction in Brass.

Open to any college student.

Brass 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of Brass 11a.

Brass 11—Private Instruction in Brass.

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Brass 12, 21, 22—
Continuation of Brass 11.

Percussion 01—Private Instruction in Percussion.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Percussion 11a—Private Instruction in Percussion.
Open to any college student.

Percussion 12a, 21a, 22a—
Continuation of Percussion 11a.

Percussion 11—Private Instruction in Percussion.

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Percussion 12, 21, 22—

Continuation of Percussion 11.

Strings 01—Private Instruction in Strings.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Strings 11a—Private Instruction in Strings.

Open to any college student.

Strings 12a, 21a, 22a—

Continuation of Strings 11a.

Strings 11—Private Instruction in Strings.

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Strings 12, 21, 22—

Continuation of Strings 11.

Woodwind 01—PrivateInstruction in Woodwind.

Open to pre-college and special students.

Woodwind 11a—PrivateInstruction in Woodwind.

Open to any college student.

Woodwind 12a, 21a, 22a—

Continuation of Woodwind 11a.

Woodwind 11—PrivateInstruction in Woodwind.

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Woodwind 12, 21, 22—

Continuation of Woodwind 11.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Activities in the physical education program are divided into team sports and individual sports. Freshmen participate in three different team sports and sophomores participate in three individual sports.

A restricted physical education program is provided for students with physical handicaps.

An athletic ability test is given during the first week of school and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental sports class until improvement indicates that they are ready for team sports.

Beginning Swimming is required of all Freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate Swimming, Senior Life Saving and a Water Safety Instructor's Course are offered to students who qualify for these courses.

Health 11-12—

Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health.

1 period. Credit, 2 semester hours

Physical Education 11-12—

Team Sports—For Freshmen.

2 hours a week.

Credit, 2 semester hours

A. Fundamental Sports—Fall Semester (Men and Women). A sequence course designed for the low skilled student as determined by the testing program.

B. Basketball—Fall Semester (Men and Women). The fundamentals of shooting, dribbling, passing, offensive and defensive strategy, history and rules.

E. Speedball—Fall Semester (Women). The fundamentals of running, passing, kicking, team play, history and rules.

F. Football (Touch) — Fall Semester (Men). The fundamentals of passing, receiving, kicking, offensive and defensive play.

H. Hockey—Fall Semester (Women). The fundamental skills with out - of-doors activity.

O. Scooter Hockey—Fall or Spring Semester (Women). The fundamentals skills with indoor activity.

P. Softball — Spring Semester (Men and Women). The fundamentals of pitching, catching, hitting, and rules of the game.

R. Restricted Physical Education—Fall and Spring Semester (Men and Women). For students with physical limitation as noted by personal or college health authority.

Physical Education 21-22—

Individual Sports—For Sophomores. 2 hours a week.

Credit, 2 semester hours

AR. Archery—Fall and Spring (Women). Fundamentals of the stance, and grip, with a history of the sport.

BA. Badminton—Fall and Spring Semester (Men and Women). The basic strokes and a general knowledge of the history, rules and strategy of the game.

BO. Bowling—Fall and Spring Semester (Men and Women). Fundamentals of ball selection, grip, stance, and delivery with rules, history, scoring, and general theory of spare coverage. (Fee $3.00).

T. Track and Field—Spring Semester (Men). The rules, regulations, and proper techniques with emphasis on field events.

V. Volleyball—Fall and Spring Semester (Men and Women). The fundamentals, history, rules and regulations.

PSYCHOLOGY AND EDUCATION

Psychology and Education 11— Introduction to Education.

The aims, problems and methods of organized education.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Psychology and Education 12— History of Education.

Sources of modern educational aims, practices, principles and trends.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Psychology and Education 13— Effective Study.

Improvement of study habits and techniques through diagnostic tests, and mastery of study skills, note taking, and review methods.

1 period.

Provisional credit, 1 semester hour

Psychology and Education 14— Reading Improvement.

Techniques in reading for speed and comprehension.

1 period.

Provisional credit, 1 semester hour

Psychology and Education 15— Vocabulary Building.

Pronunciation, spelling, and word derivation, with scaled tests to measure achievement.

1 period.

Provisional credit, 1 semester hour

Psychology and Education 21—
General Psychology.

Vocabulary, methods, and principles of general psychology. Laboratory fee. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Psychology and Education 23—
Child Psychology.

Development of the child from birth to adolescence. 3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

RELIGION

Religion 01—Orientation.

The implications of full-time Christian service in the church, practice in the preparation and presentation of discourses, and the organization and work of The Methodist Church. Required of freshmen who are considering full-time Christian service in the church.

1 period.

No credit

Religion 02—Studies for License to Preach.

Testament.

The development of the literature of the New Testament, with emphasis upon the life and teachings of Jesus, the life and letters of Paul, and the characteristics of the early Christian church.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

SCIENCE

Biology 11—General Biology.

Continuation of Biology 11. Representative forms of the major groups of plants, followed by principles of genetics, evolution, ecology, and conservation.

3 periods, 1 2-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Biology 12—General Biology.

Biological principles, and a study of representatives of the larger phyla of animals.

3 periods and 1 2-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Biology 14—Human Physiology.

Functions of cells, tissues, and organs, and the structure of each system of the body. Recommended in curriculum for nursing and related fields.

3 periods, 1 2-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Chemistry 11-12—General

Inorganic Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis.

Fundamental theories and laws, structure of matter, elements, and compounds, with emphasis upon principles and applications. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 includes the analysis of four groups of cations, the common anions, and a salt. Prerequisite: Eligibility for Mathematics 11 or permission of instructor.

3 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours.

Chemistry 21—Organic

Chemistry.

Naming, preparation, reactions and use of aliphatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12.

3 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Chemistry 22—Organic

Chemistry.

Continuation of Chemistry 21, with naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aromatic compounds.

3 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Chemistry 25—Qualitative Analysis.

A theoretical and laboratory study of anions and cations involving laws, equations, problems and reference work as well as the investigation of known and unknown samples. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or permission of the instructor.

2 periods, 2 2-hour labs.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Physics 11—General Physics.

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: plane geometry and Mathematics 10 or equivalent.

3 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Physics 12—General Physics.

Continuation of Physics 11 and magnetism, electricity, light, and modern conceptions of physics.

Credit, 4 semester hours

Physics 21—Engineering Physics.

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required of engineering students and open to mathematics and science majors. Prerequisite: Mathematics 12 or 12E, or by special permission while taking Mathematics 12 or 12E.

4 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 5 semester hours

Physics 22—Engineering Physics.

Continuation of Physics 21 and electricity, light and modern physics.

4 periods, 1 3-hour lab.

Credit, 5 semester hours

SOCIAL SCIENCES

History 11—History of Civilization.

Political, social and cultural developments in western civilization to 1600 A.D.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

History 12—History of Civilization.

Continuation to History 11 to the present.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

History 21—American History.

Social, economic and political development of America to 1865.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

History 22—American History.

Continuation of History 21 to the present.

3 periods. Credit, 3 semester hours

Economics 11—EconomicGeography.

Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power.

ADMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully:

1. The attached application for admission, a picture, and a $15 application fee (payable by check or money order) should be mailed to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. The $15 fee will not be refunded. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.
2. When we receive your application and fee, we shall mail you one of our transcript forms and three recommendation forms.
3. Your secondary school authorities should complete the transcript form and return it to Brevard as promptly as possible.
4. Write your name on each recommendation form and give to the following persons:
green—one to your junior or senior English teacher.
yellow—another subject-matter teacher.
white—someone with whom you have worked in extra-curricular activities.
Please follow the instructions above without substitutions. After January 1 you should use senior teachers instead of junior teachers.
5. Although it is not at all necessary that we receive additional recommendations, we are glad to receive one or two letters of recommendation if the person writing the letter knows you well and can provide us with additional information, including facts or examples which we have not received from other sources.
6. The CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January. To avoid payment of a late registration fee, the completed registration form and fee must be received by the authorities at Princeton approximately four weeks prior to the date on which the test is to be taken. The Board cannot guarantee to accept applications received later than two weeks prior to the testing date. It is your responsibility to see that the College Board mails an official score report to Brevard.
7. You will be notified about your admission shortly after all necessary forms are received by the Admissions Office.

DETACH AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

1. Print legibly in ink or use typewriter.
2. Enclose check or money order for the fifteen-dollar non-refundable pre-registration fee. Do not send cash.
3. This application implies full acceptance of standards and regulations of the College.
4. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.

An Invitation

A good way to help determine whether or not a college would meet your needs is to visit the campus, stay overnight in one of the dormitories, meet some of the students and faculty, get a feeling of the spirit of the school.

Prospective students and parents are welcome. To make arrangements for a visit, write:

The Director of Admissions.

BREVARD COLLEGE

Emmett Kennedy McLarty, Jr.
PRESIDENT

PURPOSE

With first emphasis on intellectual discipline, Brevard College exists for the purpose of providing a two-year academic program, primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors in four-year colleges.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

PROGRAM

With practical areas pre-empted by state colleges, the tax supported community college, and the trend to on-the-job training in industry and business, Brevard offers predominately two years of liberal arts and pre-professional study for students who expect to complete four years of college or university study. With eighty-five per cent of our graduates in the university parallel course transferring to four-year institutions each year, our basic curriculum is composed of courses which are required for transfer credit. The only two-year terminal course offered is in Secretarial Science.

Brevard College has chosen to administer a two-year university parallel program well rather than attempting to offer preparation for future work experience, technical education, adult education, and remedial courses to repair the inadequacies of high school education.

Counseling Services

Brevard College believes the basic concern of education must be with the individual and emphasizes the personal relationship by giving attention to the needs and progress of individual students.

The first concern at Brevard is the intellectual development of its students. Beyond this obligation, the college recognizes a responsibility in the general maturing process. Accordingly, a comprehensive program of counseling is offered.

Each student has a faculty advisor on whom he may call at any time for advice and information. The advisors and instructors can help with most academic problems. The Recorder and the Dean of the College invite conferences when additional help is needed. Financial and other personal problems are usually referred to the Dean of Women and the Dean of Students. On spiritual questions, the college Chaplain is glad to counsel.

Both students and faculty advisers have found that some personal, academic and vocational problems are more satisfactorily solved if the pattern of the student's interests, aptitudes and emotional strengths has been determined by appropriate testing and skilled interviews. This service is offered by a professionally trained and experienced Guidance Counselor.

Advantages

With a Christian orientation, Brevard College emphasizes certain advantages which are possible in a two-year college of liberal arts.

1. A solid core of college subjects concentrated at the two-year level.
2. Additional personal work with students—beyond that available in a small senior college — made possible by the efficient functioning of instructors in a two-year limit of courses.
3. Opportunity for maturation before continuing studies in a four-year college or university.

4. Two years of college study and cultural opportunity for young people who may wish education beyond high school but short of a full college course.
5. Early experience through participation in a variety of worthwhile activities often reserved for juniors and seniors in a four-year college.
 - a. Leadership offices in student government and other organizations.
 - b. Journalistic experience on the college paper or the staff of the college annual.
 - c. Tours with glee club, choir, or instrumental ensembles.
 - d. Varsity letters on athletic teams.
 - e. Dramatic activity—in production or acting or both.
 - f. Attainment of deserved recognition in honor societies and special awards.

The Physical Plant

The shape and appearance of the Brevard College campus has been notably changing during the past three years. The Bryan Moore Science Building was the first in the master plan of the development program to modernize and expand the teaching and housing facilities. The Boshamer Gymnasium-Natatorium and the Sherrill Athletic Fields were completed two years ago. The administrative officers and staff moved to their offices in the new Beam Administration Building last June.

Four new buildings, renovation of the Campus Center building, for the Music department, and of the present library for a Student Union, all scheduled for use in the fall of 1966, will bring the Brevard College physical plant to a high state of completion.

The Campus Center Building was renovated last summer and is now occupied by the Music department. The four new buildings (dormitory, cafeteria, library, classroom building) are under construction simultaneously.

The new dormitory will house 160 students. Accommodations will permit an increase in enrollment of boarding students from 420 to almost 600.

The new cafeteria is designed to accommodate the increased enrollment. In addition to a dining hall for students and one for the faculty, there will be several smaller dining rooms for special occasions.

Expressly designed to be an adjunct to the teaching process, the new library will be large enough for an 800-student college. There will be seating for 300 students for studying under favorable conditions. All of the conventional library facilities will be present, and other desirable features, such as: seminar rooms, group study rooms, faculty research cubicles, music listening rooms, a small audio-visual auditorium, and exhibition walls.

The new Student Union is needed for wholesome, informal, on-campus recreation. It will be a popular gathering place, a recreational facility, and headquarters for nearly all extra-curricular activities.

The new classroom building, a necessity with increased enrollment, will provide recitation and lecture rooms with the latest teaching aid equipment, seminar rooms and faculty offices.

History

Brevard College, beautiful in campus grounds and contemporary in buildings and educational philosophy, honors its Methodist sponsorship and its early origin. The college dates from 1853 when Rutherford College was founded by Robert Laban Abernethy, a Methodist minister. Initially the college was an academy—Owl Hollow School—and through progressive stages came to be a seminary and a four-year college until the union with Weaver College into Brevard College at the site of Brevard Institute.

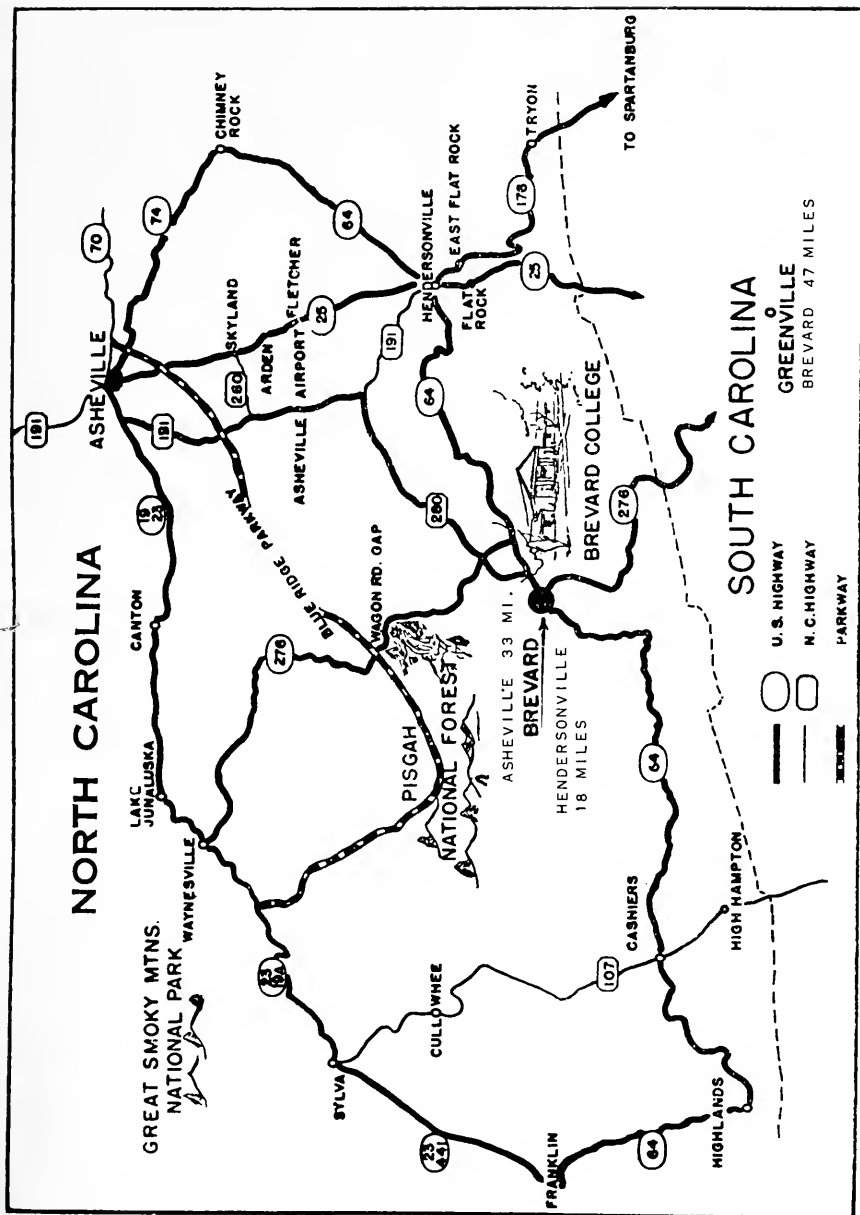

Weaver College, so named in 1912, was incorporated in 1872 under the presidency of James A. Regan, and became a Methodist college officially in 1883. Brevard Institute was founded in 1895 by Reverend and Mrs. Fitch Taylor as a pioneering venture among mountain young people.

Brevard College thus numbers among its alumni many honored persons who attended the three institutions which are now a part of her.

Location

Brevard College is located in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, 33 miles southwest of Asheville, 18 miles from the Asheville airport, and 47 miles from Greenville, S. C. In the Brevard community are two prominent industries: duPont (x-ray film), and Olin (fine paper and film). Brevard is the home of Radio Station WPNF and the nationally famous Brevard Music Center. The Pisgah National Forest is within sight of the college.

The College Community

GOVERNMENT

By enrolling in the college each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association, entitled to the privileges and bound by the responsibilities of the constitution, by-laws, and stated standards. The Student Handbook, the official publication of the Association, is sent each student prior to arrival.

The Student Council, which consists of ten students and three faculty members, represents the Student Government Association and has full judicial power to enforce the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. All student organizations are responsible to the Student Council.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Brevard College expects all students to assume personal responsibility in all areas of college life, and in the maintenance of standards of behavior. Students must display, in attitude and conduct, willingness to accept and cooperate with the college in observing established policies. Drinking, gambling, cheating and immoral conduct are forbidden. Honesty, both in academic matters and personal life, must prevail and any deviation is subject to action by the Student Council and officers of the college.

COMMUNITY REGULATIONS

The Use of Automobiles

The owning or operating of a car is restricted. No freshman boarding student will be given a permit to keep a car during his first semester. Details regarding regulations are to be found in the Student Handbook.

Chapel, Assembly, Lyceum Programs

Attendance is required of all students because these programs contribute so much to the educational experience.

Student Responsibility

Students are responsible for the care of their rooms. Loss due to damage done to rooms, furniture, or college property will be assessed against the student or students responsible. Any student who changes room, moves, or exchanges furniture without the permission of dormitory supervisors will be subject to a fee of $5.00 and disciplinary action.

Student Health

Brevard College requires that entering students present a physician's report certifying freedom from communicable diseases and noting any necessary restrictions to be placed upon physical activity. (Students receive the form for making this report during the summer at the time room assignments are made.) The college expects entering students to have, in addition to the usual vaccinations given during public school years, immunization against poliomyelitis and influenza. Brevard College observes precautions regarding health and physical welfare in all areas of college life, and provides infirmary services for casual illness or for convalescence.

Health and accident insurance is made available by the college at a reasonable cost and is required of all students. A booklet describing cost and details of coverage is furnished each student accepted for admission.

In emergency cases requiring special medical attention or surgery the Dean serves in loco parentis.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

Places of Worship

Students are encouraged to attend churches of their own choice. The churches of Brevard extend a cordial invitation to attend their Church schools, youth groups and worship services.

Convocations

Speakers for convocations include able leaders from all denominations.

Fellowship Groups

Fellowship groups seek not to proselytize, but to develop comradeship among students of a given denomination, and to deepen loyalty to denomination. These groups offer assistance in the development of lay and professional leadership for their respective denominations. The major active denominational groups on the campus are: The Methodist Student Fellowship, The Baptist Student Union, The Canterbury Club, and Westminster Fellowship.

CULTURAL LIFE

Throughout the school year a number of programs and events offer special opportunities for all members of the community to broaden their interest and appreciation in art, dramatics, music and other fine arts.

Friday At Four

One of the most stimulating intellectual and cultural experiences of the campus is offered to all members of the college community in the program known as "Friday at Four," sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa society. The series presents guest lecturers or faculty members who speak or lead discussions on subjects in the humanities or related fields. Attendance is voluntary.

Lyceum Series

Four lyceum programs are scheduled each year. They include lectures, dramatic productions and musical programs.

Dramatics

The campus organization, The Masquers, and members of the Play Production class assume responsibility for dramatic presentations. Major productions include one full length play and a program of one act plays.

Music

Music plays an important role in the cultural life of the college.

The Choir and the Glee Club present programs of sacred and secular music on campus, in local churches and on annual tours.

Instrumental Ensembles provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

SPORTS AND RECREATION

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Brevard College offers theoretical and practical courses in health and physical education and arranges a comprehensive program of varsity and intramural sports.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

The intercollegiate program stresses basketball, baseball, track, golf and tennis in accordance with the Western Carolina Junior College Athletic Conference and the National Junior College Athletic Association, of which the college is a member.

INTRAMURAL

Intramural sports and physical education classes include basketball, touch football, softball, archery, bowling, swimming, field hockey, skating, and a variety of other activities.

The Mountaineers Club sponsors hikes, picnics and tours through the mountains of the area.

TUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The college encourages students to form groups for the development of special interests, subject to the following stipulations:

1. Administrative approval of a written constitution and statement of nature and purpose.
2. Supervision of business affairs by the business manager of the college, whose office serves as repository for funds.
3. Advisory guidance by a member of the faculty designated by the administration.

Existing organizations reflect student interest in religion, scholarship, language, commerce, government, dramatics, music, athletics, science, nature and social activities.

Honor Societies and Qualifications

Phi Theta Kappa

Academic rank in upper 10% of student body and maintenance of "B" average with 15 credit hours in the semester prior to election, 12 of these in the arts and sciences.

Sigma Pi Alpha

Grade "A" in a course in language, with academic average of "B."

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Secretarial major with academic average of "B-plus."

Alpha Beta Gamma

Chemistry student with high scholastic standing and qualities of leadership.

Religious Organizations

The Christian Council is comprised of the officers of the religious organizations on campus. The Council coordinates the efforts the organizations make to answer problems that arise pertaining to the religious life of a student and to develop a pervasive Christian spirit at Brevard College.

Kappa Chi is a group composed of men and women who plan to enter Christian service on a professional basis.

Admissions Procedure

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Acceptance of candidates for admission follows a selective process. In selecting the entering class, the Admissions Committee considers the school record, the results of the Scholastic Aptitude Test, and the recommendation from the school. The academic record of an applicant, the degree to which he has demonstrated intellectual curiosity, and evidence of his motivation to maintain a satisfactory level of college performance are of primary importance; considered in conjunction with these are his character and personality.

SPECIFIC ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

I. Regular Students

Formal Application—It is advisable that the application be completed by the candidate as early as possible in his senior year and mailed to the Director of Admissions, Brevard College, Brevard, N. C. Applications after May 1 will be accepted only if there are vacancies in the entering class.

Application Fee—A $15.00 application fee is required with each application. Since this fee covers only part of the cost of processing an application, it is not refundable, whether or not the candidate is admitted.

Character References—Three forms will be sent to the applicant from the admissions office. Two of the character references should be completed by former teachers of college preparatory subjects, and the third form may be completed by whomever the applicant desires to name.

The Official High School Transcript—Candidates are required to have a transcript forwarded directly from each high school they have attended.

The Scholastic Aptitude Test—All candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. Arrangements for this test may be made with the principal or guidance counselor or by writing directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Students planning to apply for admission to Brevard College should indicate when taking the test that scores should be sent directly to the college from Princeton, N. J.

Admission Deposit—A room reservation fee of $60.00 is due immediately upon notification of acceptance for enrollment. This fee is non-refundable.

II. Special Students

1. Students who are twenty-one years of age or older and who are residents of the immediate area may be admitted by examination to certain courses for credit, without taking a full load of work.
2. Students with special needs who are residents of the immediate area may be permitted to enroll in classes with credits earned being recorded but not transferred.
3. Students may be admitted without college credit to courses in applied music and art and vocational subjects upon recommendation of the dean of the college.

III. Admission To Advanced Standing

Credits earned at accredited colleges will be evaluated and recorded on transfer students' records. Credit toward graduation from Brevard College will be allowed for work done in courses similar to those offered at Brevard College provided the grade received is at least a C where the passing grade is D. (See also Requirements for Graduation, Section IV on Transfer Students.)

WHAT TO BRING

Dormitory rooms are furnished with single beds, dresser, chairs, tables, and Venetian blinds. Each student should provide towels, sheets, pillow, pillow cases, blankets, bedspreads*, study lamp, drinking glass and similar items for personal use. No provision is made for the display of pictures or art on walls. Suitable folders and frames not requiring hanging should be provided.

COLLEGE STORE

Books, stationery, school supplies, personal toiletries, refreshments, gifts, and other sundry items may be purchased from the college-operated store, located in the Campus Center Building. No provision is made for charge accounts for this unit of the college auxiliary enterprises.

EXPLANATION OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEE

The General Fee

The "general fee" secures for each student, without additional cost, (1) a subscription to the student paper, (2) lyceum tickets, (3) admission to athletic games, (4) participation in various group functions—literary, social, religious, and intramural, and (5) the college annual.

Terms

No deduction is made in any department for late entrance to classes except private music lessons. Every student, by act of registration, creates a liability for that payment period. A parent or guardian, by entering a student, accepts the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog as final and binding upon him.

No student will be allowed to register or attend classes or to begin private music lessons until all financial affairs have been arranged with the business office.

WHEN A STUDENT HAS BEEN GRANTED FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE, THAT SUM IS NOT APPLICABLE TO THE PAYMENT AT REGISTRATION, BUT IS CREDITED AT THE TIME OF THE SECOND PAYMENT. Students receiving aid through work will receive credit as earned at the rate of 75c per hour and therefore the amount of aid granted is not applicable to their first payment at registration.

Brevard's operation is based upon payment of fees at the time stated. When a patron finds it necessary to request deferred payment, special arrangements must be made in advance of the due date.

Should a student find it necessary to leave college before the end of a semester, he must notify the dean, the business manager and the librarian before honorable dismissal is granted, or transcripts of his records will not be furnished.

Refunds

If a student withdraws he is responsible for payment of fees up to but not beyond the given payment period.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Brevard College will do all within its resources to encourage able students to obtain an education. "None shall be turned away for want of means," reads a legend at the entrance of the campus. All financial assistance is under the control of the Student Aid Committee. Students desiring financial assistance are required to submit a Parents' Confidential Statement. The form may be secured from Guidance Directors or Principals, or directly from the College Scholarship Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. 08540.

PRINCIPLES OF AWARDS

The Student Aid Committee observes the following principles:

1. Financial aid is made available on the basis of ability, character and need.
2. Applicants must present acceptable scores on the College Entrance Examination Scholastic Aptitude Test, and a satisfactory high school scholastic record.
3. Assistance may be withdrawn at any time should the student fail to maintain a good scholastic record or to show satisfactory cooperation with the best interest of the college community or should he be placed under college discipline. Since scholarship holders are students of outstanding citizenship, they may be asked to perform certain courtesy services as representatives of the College, acting upon occasion as ushers, guides, college hosts or hostesses.
4. Renewal of all scholarships is subject to review by the committee and is dependent on continued need, good conduct, satisfactory grades and availability of funds.

*Children of ordained ministers of any denomination will receive grant in the full amount of tuition for a maximum of four semesters, only upon written application and if the college admission requirements are met.

Academic Requirements

Brevard College students are expected to maintain a high level of scholarly performance and intellectual honesty, and to show a willingness to do more than the minimum required in the academic areas. The college reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory or who, for any other reason, fails to uphold the standards and ideals of the college.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

The purpose of academic probation is to warn the student that his academic work is unsatisfactory and to assist him in improving the quality of his work.

Any regular student is placed on academic probation at the end of any grading period (eight weeks) during which he fails to pass at least nine semester hours with a minimum of nine quality points. Unless the minimum standard is reached after one grading period on academic probation the student is subject to academic suspension.

ACADEMIC SUSPENSION

A student suspended for academic reasons is required to be absent from the college for at least one semester. At the discretion of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee the absence may be for a longer period of time.

Any regular student is subject to academic suspension when his cumulative quality point average falls below the minimum acceptable standards, which are as follows:

| Semesters in Residence | Minimum Acceptable Cumulative Average |
|------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| One | 0.30 |
| two | 0.50 |
| three | 0.70 |
| four or more | Reasonable chance to graduate |

The quality point system is explained in the section below titled "Quality Points."

AUDITING COURSES

With the approval of the instructor involved and the dean of the college a student may register to audit a course. Class attendance requirements apply but examinations are not required.

Courses audited count as a part of the student's load, but no credit is received.

Regular college fees are charged for auditing.

CHANGE OF COURSE

With the consent of the instructors involved and the permission of the dean of the college or recorder, course changes may be made as described below.

Courses may be added during the first six calendar days of the college session.

Courses may be dropped within ten days following registration day with no penalty or up to three weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations with a grade of WP or WF as determined by the instructor. A grade of F or I will be assigned in courses dropped officially in the three-week period before final examinations.

Courses dropped without permission are recorded as F.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

All students are required to be present for all of their classes and laboratories. Any absences must be cleared with the dean of students under the conditions outlined in the Student Handbook.

No credit is allowed in any class in which the student is absent more than twenty percent of the time.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

A regular student who has passed at least thirty semester hours of work and has a cumulative quality point average of at least 1.0 is classified as a sophomore. All other regular students are classified as freshmen.

Special students are defined in the section on Admission Procedure.

COMPREHENSIVE COLLEGE TESTS

All fourth-semester regular students are required to take the five General Examinations of the Comprehensive College Tests on a date announced each semester. A fee of $5.00 is charged to each student taking the tests.

CORRESPONDENCE CREDIT

The college will accept up to six semester hours of correspondence credit provided prior arrangements are made with the dean of the college and the appropriate division chairman.

COURSES REPEATED

If a course is repeated all hours attempted are counted in computing the cumulative quality point average.

COURSE LOAD

The normal course load is 17 or 18 semester hours. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The maximum load without special permission is 19 semester hours. A fee is charged for hours in excess of 19 (see Special Charges).

Non-credit and audited courses count as part of the course load.

DEGREES OFFERED

The college awards the degree of Associate in Arts or the Junior College Diploma to those who meet the requirements (see Graduation Requirements).

EXAMINATIONS

The student must obtain from the bursar a statement that all of his accounts are clear before he is admitted to final examinations each semester. Absences from final examinations are excused only for the most urgent reasons. Make-up examinations (see Special Charges) must be arranged by the student.

FINAL WORK FOR GRADUATION

Up to ten semester hours of the final work for graduation may be transferred from another college or university.

GRADING SYSTEM

A grading period consists of half a semester, approximately eight weeks. Instructors report grades to the recorder at the end of each grading period. A report is sent to parents or guardians at the end of each grading period.

|--------------|-------------------|
| A (94-100) | Excellent |
| B (87-93) | Superior |
| C (78-86) | Average |
| D (70-77) | Passing |
| F (Below 70) | Failing |
| I | Incomplete |
| W | Withdrawn |
| WP | Withdrawn Passing |
| WF | Withdrawn Failing |

Grades of I are recorded as F unless they are completed by the end of the semester following the receipt of the I.

GRADUATION IN ABSENTIA

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation. This requirement may be waived by the dean of the college in cases of extreme hardship, provided application has been made in writing at least three weeks prior to commencement.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for graduation from Brevard College, a student must enroll as a regular student (see section on Admissions Procedure) and must meet all of the requirements listed below.

Final responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

1. Residence

A student must be in residence for a least two semesters, and must complete at Brevard College at least twenty-five semester hours with a quality point average of at least 1.0.

2. Quality Point Average

Candidates for graduation must have earned quality points at least equal to the number of semester hours of college work they have attempted.

3. Graduation Attendance

Attendance at commencement exercises is required unless the candidate has been excused as described above.

4. Hours of Credit

Candidates for graduation must have earned credit for at least 66 semester hours of work distributed as follows:

| For A. A. Degree | | |
|--------------------------|-------|-----|
| English 11-12, 21-22 | ----- | 12* |
| Health | ----- | 2 |
| History 11-12 | ----- | 6* |

| Health | ----- | 2 |
| Physical Education | ----- | 4 |
| Religion | ----- | 6 |
| Electives | ----- | 42 |
| | ----- | 66 |

*For exceptions see prescribed curricula for Agriculture, Engineering and Secretarial Science.

HONORS

Recognition on the Dean's List or Honor Roll is accorded to those students who meet the criteria during a given grading period. To be eligible a student must be enrolled as a full-time regular student and receive no grade below C on any course for the grading period. Quality point averages of at least 2.50 and 2.00 are required, respectively, for the Dean's List and Honor Roll for each grading period. Repeat courses are not included in the computation.

Graduation honors of cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude, are specified on the degree or diploma of any graduate who earns a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, respectively, with no grades below C on his college record.

PRESCRIBED COURSES

All regular students are required to take courses moving toward graduation. Prescribed courses take precedence over electives in arranging an individual schedule.

QUALITY POINT SYSTEM

Quality points are awarded for credit courses on which the student receives a grade of C or higher. For each semester hour of credit involved the student receives three, two, or one quality point, respectively, for a grade of A, B, or C.

The quality point average is computed by dividing the total number of hours attempted (including repeat courses) into the total number of quality points earned.

READMISSION PROCEDURE

Students who have been suspended from the college for academic reasons must be out of the college for at least one semester. Students dropped for emotional reasons should not apply for reinstatement for at least one year.

Application for readmission must be made in writing to the dean of the college, by May 1, preceding a fall semester readmission and by December 1 preceding a spring semester readmission. Readmission is by vote of the Academic Standards and Readmission Committee after a careful consideration of all of the factors involved.

REGISTRATION

To avoid a late fee and a delay in starting the work of the semester students must be present on the days announced for registration. No student will be registered later than six days following registration day.

Each student should consult his faculty advisor in arranging a course of study each semester, and must have his approval before registering.

STUDENT HANDBOOK

Each year the college publishes the official Student Handbook under the direction of the dean of students. Every student must acquaint himself with the material in this handbook.

SUMMER COURSE ELSEWHERE

Students may attend summer school elsewhere and transfer credits to Brevard College with prior approval of the dean of the college. In general, permission will not be granted for required courses which are available to the student at Brevard.

Grades earned elsewhere in summer school will be recorded at face value but will count no higher than C for quality point purposes.

TRANSCRIPTS

Requests for transcripts must come from the student and should be addressed to the recorder. A fee of one dollar should accompany all requests after the first one.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COLLEGE

A minor student must have the written permission of his parents or guardian before he will be allowed to withdraw from the college.

Unofficial withdrawal from the college will result in disciplinary action.

Curricula

Group I

For Students Planning to Complete Four Years of College or University Study

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages have been designed to give the best possible preparation for pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities which offer advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses (exception: Music) leads to the Associate in Arts Degree.

Academic Division and Courses of Instruction

DIVISIONS

The courses of instruction in Brevard College are grouped into five divisions which encompass the areas listed below.

Division of Fine Arts—art, drama, music

Division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation—health, physical education

Division of Languages—English, foreign languages (French, German, Spanish)

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences—mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics

Division of Social Studies and Religion—business, economics, government, history, psychology and education, religion, sociology.

CREDIT DEFINED

All credit hours are stated in terms of semester hours. Unless otherwise indicated the number of class periods per week is equal to the number of credit hours.

Some of the courses which follow are designated for provisional credit. Such courses are acceptable as credit toward graduation at Brevard College but vary in transferability to senior colleges.

COURSE NUMBERS

Course numbers which are separated by a hyphen are year courses and must be completed in full before credit is allowable on either semester.

Course numbers beginning with a zero carry no college credit. Special information concerning transfer credit in music is contained in the section on applied music.

DIVISION OF FINE ARTS

Standard arrangements for band. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

13I—Brass Ensemble

Fall, Spring, 1/2 Semester Hour

Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

14I—String Ensemble

Fall, Spring 1/2 Semester Hour

Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

15I—Woodwind Ensemble

Fall, Spring, 1/2 Semester Hour

Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Applied Music

Private instruction is offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard band and orchestral instruments, and classical guitar. Regular college credit is offered the music major or any student who elects to take one of the major theory courses in conjunction with his private lessons. This credit is transferable to senior colleges and conservatories. Any college student may elect to take private instruction in any area of music and will receive terminal credit for his work. It will count toward graduation from Brevard College, but will not usually transfer to any senior institution. In addition, the music department offers non-credit instruction as time allows to residents of the immediate area.

The amount of credit received is based upon the number of lessons taken per week. For each 1/2 hour lesson given, the student receives one semester hour of credit. In addition, the student must practice a minimum of five hours per week for each 1/2 hour lesson.

01—Private instruction

No college credit

11a, 12a, 21a, 22a,—Private Instruction.

College terminal credit. Open to any college student.

11, 12, 21, 22—Private Instruction.

College transfer credit. Prerequisites to private instruction 11 are as follows:

Piano

Prerequisite: knowledge of major and minor scales, ability to play them four notes to the beat at moderate tempi, ability to play two works such as Bach, Little Preludes, a Two-part Invention, slow movement of an easier sonata by Mozart, Haydn or Beethoven, or comparable work from a later period.

Organ

Prerequisite: same as for Piano 11. Prior study of organ recommended.

Voice

Prerequisite: ability to sing standard song on pitch with correct phrasing, good enunciation and musical intelligence. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Brass

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Percussion

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Strings

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Woodwind

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Classical Guitar

Prerequisite: Some prior experience in playing the guitar will ordinarily be required with a good basic music reading ability expected.

DIVISION OF HEALTH PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION

L. W. Martin, Chairman
Mrs. Daye, Mr. Talley

HEALTH

11—Health

Fall, 1 Semester Hour

Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health.

12—Health

Spring, 1 Semester Hour

Continuation of Health 11.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The college requires four semesters of physical education. Each semester of physical education is divided into two eight-week courses, with the exception of dancing which lasts the entire semester. The two basic areas of activities are team sports for freshmen that also include fundamental activities, and swimming and individual sports open to sophomores only.

The medical examination, required for all incoming freshmen, should give the college health service an awareness of unusual physical handicaps which students may have. With the recommendation of the family doctor and college health service a physical education program will be provided to meet the individual needs of each student.

An athletic ability test is given during the regular testing program of orientation and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental activities class until improvement indicates that they are ready for transfer to regular physical education class.

Beginning swimming is required of all freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate swimming, senior lifesaving and a water safety instructor's course are offered to students who qualify for these courses.

Students are required to buy a physical education uniform at the college store. Towels are furnished by the physical education department.

11-12—Freshmen

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules and regulations, history and special emphasis on physical fitness.

Fundamental Activities (men and women)—Fall Semester

Restricted Activities (men and women)—Fall and Spring Semesters

Beginning Swimming (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Intermediate Swimming (men or women)—Spring Semester—first eight weeks

Basketball (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Field Hockey (women)—Fall Semester—first eight weeks

Soccer (men)—Fall Semester—first eight weeks

Softball (women)—Spring Semester—second eight weeks

Speed ball (women)—Fall Semester—first eight weeks

Spring Semester—second eight weeks

Touch Football (men)—Fall Semester—first eight weeks

Track and Field (men)—Spring Semester—second eight weeks

Volleyball (men or women)—Spring Semester—first eight weeks

21-22—Sophomores

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules, regulations, and history.

Archery (men and women)—Fall Semester—first eight weeks

Spring Semester—second eight weeks

Badminton (men and women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Spring Semester—first eight weeks

Bowling (men and women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

ENGLISH

- 11—English Fundamentals Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition.
- 12—English Composition Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression.
- 13—English—Journalistic Composition Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour
English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, the Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor. One period and additional meetings as required.
- 14—Introduction to the Theatre Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A practical course covering the basic techniques of play production in the following areas: acting, directing, stage scenery, lighting, management. Also, history of the theatre, forms of drama. Two periods and one two-hour workshop.
- 15—Public Speaking Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials.
- 16—Creative Writing Spring, 1 Semester Hour
The personal essay, the short story and contemporary poetry. Prerequisite: English 11.
- 21—English Literature Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Survey of the literature of England from Anglo-Saxon beginnings through the eighteenth century.
- 22—English Literature Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A survey of the literature of England of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.
- 24—Drama Workshop Spring, 1 Semester Hour
Prerequisite: English 14. Assignments on work crews for major productions: carpentry, paint, props, lighting, costume, makeup, stage. Two productions.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

A laboratory period of two hours per week is required of all students of foreign languages.

French

- 11-12—Elementary French Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of French grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.
- 21-22—Intermediate French Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French.
- 31-32—Literature Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite: French 21-22.

German

- 11-12—Elementary German Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of German grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.
- 21-22—Intermediate German Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German.

Spanish

- 11-12—Elementary Spanish Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.
- 21-22—Intermediate Spanish Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish.
- 31-32—Spanish Literature Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22.

DIVISION OF MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL SCIENCES

Mrs. Alexander, Miss Bengé, Mrs. Daniels, Mr. Jeffers, Miss Nicholson

MATHEMATICS

All students enrolling for courses in mathematics are classified by means of standardized placement tests, and only those making satisfactory scores are admitted to courses for college credit.

- 01—Preparatory Algebra Fall, Non-Credit
Fundamental algebraic operations. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 02—Preparatory Plane Geometry Non-Credit
Postulates and theorems of geometry to qualify students to enter Mathematics 12E. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 03—Solid Geometry Non-Credit
Plan figures, lines, planes, angles, solids for which $V=Bh$, $V=1/3 Bh$, $V=(\text{mean } B)h$, the sphere, volumes and surfaces of revolution, polyhedrons, the general prismatoid. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 10—Intermediate Algebra Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in high school algebra. Required of students who fail to qualify on placement test for Mathematics 11.
- 11—College Algebra Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Review of operations listed in Mathematics 10, ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, infinite series, theory of equations, binomial theorem, mathematical induction, determinants, permutations, combinations, probability, inequalities, complex numbers, logarithms, partial fractions, exponential and logarithmic curves.

11E—Engineering Algebra

Fall, 3 Semester Hours

Topics listed in Mathematics 11 with emphasis upon engineering problems.

12—Trigonometry

Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours

The trigonometric functions, solution of right and oblique triangles, radian measures, reduction theories and formulas, identities and trigonometric equations, multiple, angles, complex numbers, DeMoivre's Theorem, and trigonometric curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 01 and 02. Corequisite: Mathematics 11.

12E—Engineering Trigonometry

Fall, 3 Semester Hours

Topics listed in Mathematics 12 with emphasis upon engineering problems. Three periods.

15—Engineering Drawing

Fall, 3 Semester Hours

The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

16—Descriptive Geometry

Spring, 3 Semester Hours

Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolution, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

20—Modern Algebra

Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours

Sets relations; functions and numbers; sets and subsets; operations with sets; relations; functions, domain and range of a function; one-to-one correspondence; the inverse of a function; equivalence relations; cardinal numbers; countably infinite sets; non-denumerable sets; unions, intersection, and differences; venn diagrams; solution sets of inequalities. Vector; vector addition; applications of vectors.

24—Analytic Geometry and Calculus I

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Review of basic terminology, equations, graphing, function, conics, translations, transformations, limit, continuity, average and instantaneous rates of change, derivatives and applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 11 and Mathematics 12. Five periods.

25—Analytic Geometry and Calculus II

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Differentials, parameters, vectors, mean value theorem, integrals and applications, centroid, differential equations, transcendental functions, mechanics of integration, polar graphing, advanced applications of integration, vectors, and direction cosines. Prerequisite: Mathematics 24. Five periods.

26—Analytic Geometry and Calculus III

Fall (after 1965) Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, double integration, moments, infinite series, expansion of functions, envelopes, applications of partial differentiation, hyperbolic functions, and differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 25. Five periods.

NATURAL SCIENCESBiology*11—General Biology

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Representative forms of the major groups of plants, followed by principles of genetics, evolution, ecology, and conservation. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

12—General Biology

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Biology 11. Biological principles, and a study of representatives of the larger phyla of animals. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

14—Human Physiology

(Not offered, 1965-66) 4 Semester Hours

Functions of cells, tissues, and organs, and the structure of each system of the body. Recommended in curriculum for nursing and related fields. Three periods. One 2-hour laboratory.

Chemistry

11-12—General Inorganic Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Fundamental theories and laws, structures of matter, elements, and compounds, with emphasis upon principles and applications. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 includes the analysis of four groups of cations, the common anions, and a salt. Prerequisite: Eligibility for Mathematics 11 or permission of the instructor. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21—Organic Chemistry

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Naming, preparation, reactions and use of aliphatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

22—Organic Chemistry

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Chemistry 21, with naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aromatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

25—Qualitative Analysis

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A theoretical and laboratory study of anions and cations involving laws, equations, problem and reference work as well as the investigation of known and unknown samples. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or permission of the instructor. Two periods. Two 2-hour laboratories.

Physics

11—General Physics

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: plane geometry and Mathematics 10 or equivalent. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

12—General Physics

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 11 and magnetism, electricity, light and modern conceptions of physics. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21—Engineering Physics

Fall, 5 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required of engineering students and open to mathematics and science majors. Prerequisite: Mathematics 12 or 12E or by special permission while taking Mathematics 12 or 12E. Four periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

22—Engineering Physics

Spring, 5 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 21 and electricity, light and modern physics. Four periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

BUSINESS

Accounting

- 10—Accounting for Secretaries Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The handling of cash and related records with simulated working conditions.
- 11—Principles of Accounting Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Record of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheet, and preparation of financial statements.
- 12—Principles of Accounting Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 11.
- 21—Intermediate Accounting Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternative methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue.
- 22—Cost Accounting Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data.

Business Administration

- 10—Introduction to Business Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, and production and distribution.
- 21—Salesmanship Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning of sales work, selection of prospects, presentation of product, overcoming objections, and closing techniques, with practice in simulated situations.
- 22—Organization and Management of Small Business Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hour
Planning and organization of a business, management, finance, risk bearing, and competition, with case studies.

- 23—Business Law Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Business law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships and corporations.
- 24—Business Law Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Business Administration 23.

Secretarial Science

- 27—Secretarial Practice Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, department, character and personality traits.
- 28—Office Machines Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours
Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 29—Business Correspondence Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence.

*On leave of absence, 1965-1966.

Shorthand

- 11—Beginning Shorthand Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription. Five periods.
- 12—Beginning Shorthand Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.
- 21—Advanced Shorthand Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.
- 22—Advanced Shorthand Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

Typewriting

- 11—Beginning Typewriting Fall, 2 1/2 Semester Hours
Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulation. Laboratory fees. Five periods.
- 12—Intermediate Typewriting Spring, 2 1/2 Semester Hours
Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Five periods.
- 21—Advanced Typewriting Fall, 1 1/2 Semester Hours
Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

ECONOMICS

- 11—Economic Geography Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power.
- 21—Principles of Economics Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Production, consumption, exchange and distribution.
- 22—Principles of Economics Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Economics 21.

GOVERNMENT

- 21—Federal Government Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The origin, organization, development and functional aspects of the government of the United States.

HISTORY

- 11—History of Civilization Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Political, social and cultural developments in western civilization to 1600 A.D.
- 12—History of Civilization Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 11 to the present.
- 21—American History Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Social, economic and political development of America to 1865.
- 22—American History Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 21 to the present.

PSYCHOLOGY AND EDUCATION

- 11—Introduction to Education Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The aims, problems and methods of organized education.
- 12—History of Education Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sources of modern educational aims, practices, principles and trends.
- 13—Effective Study Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Improvement of study habits and techniques through diagnostic tests, and mastery of study skills, note taking, review methods.
- 14—Reading Improvement Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Techniques in reading for speed and comprehension.
- 15—Vocabulary Building Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Pronunciation, spelling, and word derivation, with scaled tests to measure achievement.
- 21—General Psychology Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Vocabulary, methods and principles of general psychology. Laboratory fees.
- 23—Child Psychology Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Development of the child from birth to adolescence.

RELIGION

- 01—Orientation Fall, No Credit
The implications of full-time Christian service in the church, practice in the preparation and presentation of discourses, and the organization and work of The Methodist Church. Required of freshmen who are considering full-time Christian service in the church. One period.
- 02—Studies for License to Preach Spring, No Credit
A study of books required for license to preach in The Methodist Church. One period.
- 11—The Old Testament Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The development of Hebrew history, literature, and social and religious thought.
- 12—The New Testament Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The development of the literature of the New Testament, with emphasis upon the life and teachings of Jesus, the life and letters of Paul, and the characteristics of the early Christian church.

ADMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully:

1. The attached application for admission, a picture, and a $15 application fee (payable by check or money order) should be mailed to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. The $15 fee will not be refunded. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.
2. When we receive your application and fee, we shall mail you one of our transcript forms and three recommendation forms.
3. Your secondary school authorities should complete the transcript form and return it to Brevard as promptly as possible.
4. Write your name on each recommendation form and give to the following persons:
green—one to your junior or senior English teacher.
yellow—another subject-matter teacher.
white—someone with whom you have worked in extra-curricular activities.
Please follow the instructions above without substitutions. After January 1 you should use senior teachers instead of junior teachers.
5. Although it is not at all necessary that we receive additional recommendations, we are glad to receive one or two letters of recommendation if the person writing the letter knows you well and can provide us with additional information, including facts or examples which we have not received from other sources.
6. The CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January. To avoid payment of a late registration fee, the completed registration form and fee must be received by the authorities at Princeton approximately four weeks prior to the date on which the test is to be taken. The Board cannot guarantee to accept applications received later than two weeks prior to the testing date. It is your responsibility to see that the College Board mails an official score report to Brevard.
7. You will be notified about your admission shortly after all necessary forms are received by the Admissions Office.

DETACH AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

1. Print legibly in ink or use typewriter.
2. Enclose check or money order for the fifteen-dollar non-refundable pre-registration fee. Do not send cash.
3. This application implies full acceptance of standards and regulations of the College.
4. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.

An Invitation

A good way to help determine whether or not a college would meet your needs is to visit the campus, stay overnight in one of the dormitories, meet some of the students and faculty, get a feeling of the spirit of the school.

Prospective students and parents are welcome. To make arrangements for a visit, write:

The Director of Admissions.

What Is A College?

After reading a college catalog one is reminded of the story of the little old lady who said, after attending the performance of a Shakespeare play, "It was good but there were so many quotations in the play."

Pick up any college catalog and after glancing through one page, one could say, "I've read this before." For example:

"There have been dramatic changes in the face of the campus during the past ten years."

"Personal attention by our professors is the key to our academic program."

"We are interested that each student develop totally . . . spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially."

"Committed to a quality education in the context of Christian faith and principle."

"The faculty determines the worth of our education."

"Faculty members combine demonstrated competence in their respective disciplines with dedicatory commitment to teaching."

"The student finds himself on a campus where scholarship is encouraged, intellectual curiosity is nourished, and academic excellence is a quality sought and revered."

"Social life is stimulating but not consuming."

"Education extends beyond the classroom."

These quotations are descriptive, not definitive. They do not explain, they characterize. They do create mental images. But the images make one college indistinguishable from another.

What Kind of College Is

Brevard

Brevard College

Brevard is a coeducational two-year college — a Junior College. How does it differ from many two-year colleges?

A good college is more easily recognized than defined. Colleges are like people, they are individuals and they are very complex. You can describe physical appearance, outline courses of study, enumerate extra-curricular and cultural opportunities, and show blue prints of a building program.

But the intangibles that really distinguish one college from another — spirit, student-teacher relationship, values and standards that make character — these qualities are recognized, not defined.

Program and Purpose

Program

"It is not the duty of a college to teach everything, but it is the duty of a college to teach well all that it does teach," said Elton Trueblood in his book THE IDEA OF A COLLEGE.

With practical areas pre-empted by state colleges, the tax-supported community two-year college, and the trend to on-the-job training in industry and business, Brevard offers predominantly two years of liberal arts and pre-professional study for students who expect to complete four years of college or university study. With eighty-five to ninety per cent of our graduates in the university parallel course transferring to four-year institutions each year, our basic curriculum is composed of courses which are required for transfer credit. The only two-year terminal course offered is in Secretarial Science.

Brevard College has chosen to administer a two-year university parallel program well rather than one that includes technical, vocational, and adult education.

Purpose

A college cannot be or do everything. It must decide what educational services it can best provide and strive for excellence in offering them. Our reason for being is clear.

With first emphasis on intellectual discipline, Brevard College exists for the purpose of providing a two-year academic program primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors and seniors in four-year colleges.

Any college — church related or tax-supported — whatever its kind does not have a right to exist unless it seeks to provide advanced education of superior quality. But beyond this obligation, Brevard, as a church-related college, is concerned with moral and spiritual values. We believe this is important as higher education seems to become more and more secularized.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

Counseling Services

Brevard College believes the basic concern of education must be with the individual and emphasizes the personal relationship by giving attention to the needs and progress of individual students.

The first concern at Brevard is the intellectual development of its students. Beyond this obligation, the college recognizes a responsibility in the general maturing process. Accordingly, a comprehensive program of counseling is offered.

Each student has a faculty advisor on whom he may call at any time for advice and information. The advisors and instructors can help with most academic problems. The Recorder and the Dean of the College invite conferences when additional help is needed. Financial and other personal problems are usually referred to the Dean of Women and the Dean of Students. On spiritual questions, the college Chaplain is glad to counsel.

Both students and faculty advisers have found that some personal, academic and vocational problems are more satisfactorily solved if the pattern of the student's interests, aptitudes and emotional strengths has been determined by appropriate testing and skilled interviews. This service is offered by a professionally trained and experienced Guidance Counselor.

Advantages

With a Christian orientation, Brevard College emphasizes certain advantages which are possible in a two-year college of liberal arts.

1. A solid core of college subjects concentrated at the two-year level.
2. Additional personal work with students—beyond that available in a small senior college — made possible by the efficient functioning of instructors in a two-year limit of courses.
3. Opportunity for maturation before continuing studies in a four-year college or university.
4. Two years of college study and cultural opportunity for young people who may wish education beyond high school but short of a full college course.
5. Early experience through participation in a variety of worthwhile activities often reserved for juniors and seniors in a four-year college.
 - a. Leadership offices in student government and other organizations.
 - b. Journalistic experience on the college paper or the staff of the college annual.
 - c. Tours with glee club, choir, or instrumental ensembles.
 - d. Varsity letters on athletic teams.
 - e. Dramatic activity—in production or acting or both.
 - f. Attainment of deserved recognition in honor societies and special awards.

General Information

Accreditation

Brevard College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the University Senate of The Methodist Church, the North Carolina State Department of Education, the University of North Carolina and the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities. The College is a member of the North Carolina Council of Church Related Colleges.

Sponsorship

Under the auspices of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church.

Location

Brevard College is located in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, 33 miles southwest of Asheville, 18 miles from the Asheville airport, and 47 miles from Greenville, S. C. In the Brevard community are two prominent industries: duPont (x-ray film), and Olin (fine paper and film). Brevard is the home of Radio Station WPNF and the nationally famous Brevard Music Center. The Pisgah National Forest is within sight of the college.

History

Brevard College, beautiful in campus grounds and contemporary in buildings and educational philosophy, honors its Methodist sponsorship and its early origin. The college dates from 1853 when Rutherford College was founded by Robert Laban Abernethy, a Methodist minister. Initially the college was an academy—Owl Hollow School—and through progressive stages came to be a seminary and a four-year college until the union with Weaver College into Brevard College at the site of Brevard Institute.

Weaver College, so named in 1912, was incorporated in 1872 under the presidency of James A. Regan, and became a Methodist college officially in 1883. Brevard Institute was founded in 1895 by Reverend and Mrs. Fitch Taylor as a pioneering venture among mountain young people.

Brevard College thus numbers among its alumni many honored persons who attended the three institutions which are now a part of her.

Campus

Classroom Building, built in 1895, this is the oldest building on the campus. Originally it housed classrooms, administrative offices, the college library, book store and recreation lounge. It was called Spenser Hall until 1951 when it became known as Dunham Hall. This building will be razed with the construction of the new education building scheduled to complete the new south campus quadrangle within two years.

Sims Educational Building, to replace the present classroom building, will house classrooms, faculty offices, a small auditorium, and lounges. The name is in memory of the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Sims, Albert Harold and Rufus Davis. Mr. Sims has served as chairman of the college board of trustees since 1961. It has been under his leadership that the college has undertaken its development program during the past decade.

Annabel Jones Hall, a dormitory for women, is named in honor of the wife of Mr. Edwin L. Jones who served as chairman of the board of trustees for 14 years.

James Addison Jones Library, named in honor of Mr. Edwin L. Jones' father in 1948, this building will be renovated to become the Student Union after the new library is built next year.

Beam Administration Building, named in honor of C. Grier Beam, a member of the board of trustees and one of the benefactors of the college, the building was completed in May, 1965. It houses the administration offices and the faculty lounge. It is the center building of the south campus quadrangle.

Bryan Moore Science Building, built in 1961 the building was the first in the college's eight building expansion program that began in 1960. Named in honor of Col. W. Bryan Moore, it is part of the south campus quadrangle. It houses the biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics departments. Well-equipped classrooms, laboratories, and stock rooms offer up-to-date and specialized facilities.

Boshamer Gymnasium, named in honor of Cary C. Boshamer, the gymnasium-natatorium provides the best in physical education facilities. The gymnasium section contains offices, classrooms, gymnastic and training rooms, and a regulation basketball court that will accommodate 1200 spectators. The natatorium features a regulation AAU swimming pool.

Dunham Music Center, this building was formerly called The Campus Center. The first floor housed the administration offices. Completely renovated, it is now occupied by the music department and contains a listening room, a reference library, studios, small recital hall, and lounge. The lower floor of the building houses the cafeteria, college store and student lounge. It will be renovated for the music department as soon as the new food service and Student Union buildings are built.

Taylor Hall, the older of the college's two dormitories for men, is named for Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Taylor who established Brevard Institute in 1895. It continues to be one of the most photogenic buildings on the campus.

Green Hall, dormitory for men, was named in honor of Ottis Green who served as trustee for several years.

Lena Sue Beam Dormitory, this two-unit building will open in the fall of 1966 to house 160 students. The new accommodations will permit an enrollment of 600 resident students. It is named in honor of Mrs. C. Grier Beam.

Myers Dining Hall, named in honor of Albert G. Myers, Sr., is designed to accommodate the increased enrollment. In addition to a dining hall for students and one for the faculty there will be several smaller dining rooms for special occasions. It is scheduled to be ready by the fall of 1967.

Sherrill Athletic Fields, surrounding the gymnasium, the fields were named in honor of Flake Sherrill. Completed in 1962, they include a baseball field, an all-weather track, three grasstex tennis courts, and a large field for a variety of intramural sports.

New Library, for which the ground was broken in June 1966. It will be completed for the fall semester of 1967. Expressly designed to be an adjunct to the teaching process, it will have a seating capacity for 300 students studying under favorable conditions. All of the conventional library facilities will be present, and other desirable features, such as: seminar rooms, group study rooms, faculty research cubicles, music listening rooms, a small audio-visual auditorium, and exhibition walls.

The College Community

Government

By enrolling in the college each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association, entitled to the privileges and bound by the responsibilities of the constitution, by-laws, and stated standards. The Student Handbook, the official publication of the Association, is sent each student prior to arrival.

The Student Council, which consists of ten students and three faculty members, represents the Student Government Association and has full judicial power to enforce the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. All student organizations are responsible to the Student Council.

Standards Of Conduct

Brevard College expects all students to assume personal responsibility in all areas of college life, and in the maintenance of standards of behavior. Students must display, in attitude and conduct, willingness to accept and cooperate with the college in observing established policies. Drinking, gambling, cheating and immoral conduct are forbidden. Honesty, both in academic matters and personal life, must prevail and any deviation is subject to action by the Student Council and officers of the college.

Regulations

The Use of Automobiles

The owning or operating of a car is restricted. No freshman boarding student will be given a permit to keep a car during his first semester. Details regarding regulations are to be found in the Student Handbook.

Chapel, Assembly, Lyceum Programs

Attendance is required of all students because these programs contribute so much to the educational experience.

Student Responsibility

Students are responsible for the care of their rooms. Loss due to damage done to rooms, furniture, or college property will be assessed against the student or students responsible. Any student who changes room, moves, or exchanges furniture without the permission of dormitory supervisors will be subject to a fee of $5.00 and disciplinary action.

Student Health

Brevard College requires that entering students present a physician's report certifying freedom from communicable diseases and noting any necessary restrictions to be placed upon physical activity. (Students receive the form for making this report during the summer at the time room assignments are made.) The college expects entering students to have, in addition to the usual vaccinations given during public school years, immunization against poliomyelitis and influenza. Brevard College observes precautions regarding health and physical welfare in all areas of college life, and provides infirmary services for casual illness or for convalescence.

Health and accident insurance is made available by the college at a reasonable cost and is required of all students. A booklet describing cost and details of coverage is furnished each student accepted for admission.

In emergency cases requiring special medical attention or surgery the Dean serves in loco parentis.

Religious Life

Each student at Brevard College is required to complete six hours of Religion during his two years' program. It is the purpose of the Department of Religion to acquaint students with the content of the Bible and then offer them the fundamentals of the Christian faith.

Education in Religion should not be confused with indoctrination. While it is true that mature Christians are eager that younger people accept their ideals and standards of value, Brevard College holds that the individual should have the right to think for himself and to arrive at his own conclusions.

Students are encouraged to attend churches of their own choice. The churches of Brevard extend a cordial invitation to attend their church schools, youth groups and worship services.

Speakers for convocations include able leaders from all denominations.

Religious Emphasis Week, observed annually, gives members of the Student body a special time to consider moral and spiritual values.

Cultural Life

Throughout the school year a number of programs and events offer

special opportunities for all members of the community to broaden their interest and appreciation in art, dramatics, music and other fine arts.

Friday At Four

One of the most stimulating intellectual and cultural experiences of the campus is offered to all members of the college community in the program known as "Friday at Four," sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa society. The series presents guest lecturers or faculty members who speak or lead discussions on subjects in the humanities or related fields. Attendance is voluntary.

Lyceum Series

Four lyceum programs are scheduled each year. They include lectures, dramatic productions and musical programs.

Dramatics

The campus organization, The Masquers, and members of the Play Production class assume responsibility for dramatic presentations. Major productions include one full length play and a program of one act plays.

Music

Music plays an important role in the cultural life of the college.

The Choir and the Glee Club present programs of sacred and secular music on campus, in local churches and on annual tours.

Instrumental Ensembles provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

Sports And Recreation

Health And Physical Education

Brevard College offers theoretical and practical courses in health and physical education and arranges a comprehensive program of varsity and intramural sports.

Intercollegiate

The intercollegiate program stresses basketball, baseball, track, soccer, golf and tennis in accordance with the Western Carolinas Junior College Conference and the National Junior College Athletic Association, of which the college is a member.

Intramural

Intramural sports and physical education classes include basketball, touch football, softball, archery, bowling, swimming, field hockey, skating, and a variety of other activities.

The Mountaineers Club sponsors hikes, picnics and tours through the mountains of the area.

Student Organizations

Religious Organizations

The Christian Council comprises the officers of the religious organizations on campus, and coordinates the efforts these groups make to answer problems that arise pertaining to the religious life of a student and to develop a pervasive and genuinely Christian spirit at Brevard College.

Denominational Groups seek not to proselytize, but to develop comradeship among students of a given denomination through an emphasis upon its character and meaning, and to interpret their denomination for the understanding and appreciation of others. These groups offer assistance in the development of lay and professional leadership for their respective denominations. The major active denominational groups on campus are: The Methodist Student Fellowship, The Baptist Student Union, The Canterbury Club, The Westminster Fellowship and The Newman Club.

Kappa Chi is a religious group composed of young men and women who plan to enter Christian service on a professional basis. Kappa Chi encourages students to enter Christian service by informing them about the challenge and opportunities for such service and guiding them in training and preparation for their task.

Honor Societies

Phi Theta Kappa is a national honor fraternity whose purpose is "to promote scholarship, develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among students of both sexes in junior colleges."

In order to become a member, a student must maintain at least a "B" average; carry at least 15 hours, 12 of which must be in arts and sciences; be of high moral character, and be in the top 10 per cent of the student body scholastically.

Alpha Beta Gamma is the national honorary chemistry fraternity for junior colleges. Admission is based on character, citizenship, interest in chemistry, and a "B" average.

Special Interest, Service, and Social Organizations

The International Relations Club develops an interest in world affairs with an emphasis on discussions and debates.

The Day Students' Club arranges for day student sharing in the privileges and responsibilities of college life. Through social programs like the informal Christmas Dance, bonds are formed between day and resident students.

The Mountaineers explore the scenic beauty surrounding Brevard College by arranging hikes and trips during the fall and spring seasons.

The Euterpean and Cliosophic and The Mnemosynean and Delphian Societies are in their respective pairings brother and sister social organizations. Taking their names from Euterpe, the Greek muse of music and lyric poetry, Clio, the muse of history, Mnemosyne, the goddess of memory and mother of the muses, and the Delphic Oracle, these social clubs were originally literary, dramatic and forensic clubs. As earlier functions were taken over by other organizations the societies evolved into social clubs which sponsor dances, hay rides, and "fun nights" in the gym.

Big Sisters is an organization of sophomore women students selected by the faculty each spring to welcome the incoming freshmen women. In addition, they help new students adjust to the campus routine and are available for consultation in an advisory capacity.

The Business Club is composed of students planning a career in business. The club discusses subjects of mutual interest, engages speakers, and explores challenges in the various areas of commerce.

The Spanish-American Club helps to promote understanding of the cultures of the Spanish speaking nations.

The Folklore Club is organized to promote interest in collecting, preserving, and performing traditional folklore. Meetings include performances and discussions of these many areas of folklore as well as visits to folk festivals and singing conventions in the vicinity of the college. Periodically, guest speakers are invited.

Musical Organizations

The Choir, Glee Club, and Madrigals are the principal touring groups of the music department. They present programs of both a sacred and secular nature in local churches, for civic groups, and on tour.

Instrumental Ensembles include the Wind Ensemble of brass, percussion, and woodwind orchestra composed of community and college musicians. These groups provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

Sheer fun and high quality of performance characterize the work of all these musical organizations. Students may share in these organizations on a voluntary basis or for college credit.

Student Publications

The Pertelote is the college yearbook. The editorial staff, headed by appointed students, comprises students who imaginatively raise funds, take and edit pictures, and check details to produce a fascinating artistic record of the college year.

The Clarion is the student newspaper. It is published each week and in addition to current college news it publishes student and faculty opinion on various issues.

Confetti is a literary publication of the creative writing class.

Athletics

The Monogram Club. The Monogram Club is an organization on campus which honors those men who have earned the distinction of wearing the Brevard sweater with a letter. These men have participated in intercollegiate competition and have displayed skill and sportsmanship to the credit of Brevard College.

Athletic Associations.

Every man and woman enrolled in Brevard College is a member of the Men's Athletic Association and the Women's Athletic Association respectively. Both organizations provide the students with ample opportunity to participate in intramural activities occurring throughout the school year. A wide and varied range of sports is included in this program.

The Tornadoes

Basketball, baseball, tennis, track, soccer, cross country and golf teams represent the college in intercollegiate competition and proudly bear the nickname "Tornadoes". Teams compete under the auspices of the National Junior College Athletic Association and the Western Carolinas Junior College Conference with members and non-members of this conference. An impressive array of trophies won by these teams is on display in the lobby of Boshamer Gymnasium.

Brevard has fostered a growing enthusiasm for both intercollegiate and intramural athletics; the beautiful facilities include a spacious gymnasium, indoor swimming pool, all-weather tennis courts, an outstanding grasstex track, and athletic field.

Admission Procedures

General Admission Requirements

Acceptance of candidates for admission follows a selective process. In selecting the entering class, the Admissions Committee considers the school record, the results of the Scholastic Aptitude Test, and the recommendation from the school. The academic record of an applicant, the degree to which he has demonstrated intellectual curiosity, and evidence of his motivation to maintain a satisfactory level of college performance are of primary importance; considered in conjunction with these are his character and personality.

Specific Admission Requirements

I. Regular Students

Formal Application—It is advisable that the application be completed by the candidate as early as possible in his senior year and mailed to the Director of Admissions, Brevard College, Brevard, N. C. Applications after May 1 will be accepted only if there are vacancies in the entering class.

Application Fee—A $15.00 application fee is required with each application. Since this fee covers only part of the cost of processing an application, it is not refundable, whether or not the candidate is admitted.

Character References—Three forms will be sent to the applicant from the admissions office. Two of the character references should be completed by former teachers of college preparatory subjects, and the third form may be completed by whomever the applicant desires to name.

The Official High School Transcript—Candidates are required to have a transcript forwarded directly from each high school they have attended.

The Scholastic Aptitude Test—All candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Arrangements for this test may be made with the principal or guidance counselor or by writing directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Students planning to apply for admission to Brevard College should indicate when taking the test that scores should be sent directly to the college from Princeton, N. J.

Admission Deposit—A room reservation fee of $60.00 is due immediately upon notification of acceptance for enrollment. This fee is non-refundable.

II. Special Students

1. Students who are twenty-one years of age or older and who are residents of the immediate area may be admitted by examination to certain courses for credit, without taking a full load of work.
2. Students with special needs who are residents of the immediate area may be permitted to enroll in classes with credits earned being recorded but not transferred.
3. Students may be admitted without college credit to courses in applied music and art and vocational subjects upon recommendation of the dean of the college.

III. Admission To Advanced Standing

Credits earned at accredited colleges will be evaluated and recorded on transfer students' records. Credit toward graduation from Brevard College will be allowed for work done in courses similar to those offered at Brevard College provided the grade received is at least a C where the passing grade is D.

What To Bring

Dormitory rooms are furnished with single beds, dresser, chairs, tables, and Venetian blinds. Each student should provide towels, sheets, pillow, pillow cases, blankets, bedspreads, study lamp, drinking glass and similar items for personal use. No provision is made for the display of pictures or art on walls. Suitable folders and frames not requiring hanging should be provided.

College Store

Books, stationery, school supplies, personal toiletries, refreshments, gifts, and other sundry items may be purchased from the college-operated store, located in the Campus Center Building. No provision is made for charge accounts for this unit of the college auxiliary enterprises.

Financial Information

Student Expenses

No Brevard College student pays the entire cost of his education—presently about one-half of the total cost. While it is not planned to increase or decrease the fees listed in this catalog, the Board of Trustees reserves the right to make necessary adjustments in fees at any time.

Terms

No deduction is made in any department for late entrance to classes except private music lessons. Every student, by act of registration, creates a liability for that payment period. A parent or guardian, by entering a student, accepts the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog as final and binding upon him.

No student will be allowed to register or attend classes or to begin private music lessons until all financial affairs have been arranged with the business office.

When a student has been granted financial assistance, that sum is not applicable to the payment at registration, but is credited at the time of the second payment. Students receiving aid through work will receive credit as earned at the rate of $1.00 per hour and therefore the amount of aid granted is not applicable to their first payment at registration.

Brevard's operation is based upon payment of fees at the time stated. When a patron finds it necessary to request deferred payment, special arrangements must be made in advance of the due date.

Should a student find it necessary to leave college before the end of a semester, he must notify the dean, the business manager and the librarian before honorable dismissal is granted, or transcripts of his records will not be furnished.

Refunds

If a student withdraws he is responsible for payment of fees up to but not beyond the given payment period.

Financial Assistance

Brevard College will do all within its resources to encourage able students to obtain an education. Since the student is the one who gains the many benefits of higher education, he should assume at least part of the responsibility for paying his college expenses.

All financial assistance is under the control of the Student Aid Committee. Students desiring financial assistance are required to submit a Parents' Confidential Statement. The form may be secured from high school guidance directors or principals, or directly from the College Scholarship Service, Box 176, Princeton, N. J. 08540.

The Student Aid Committee follows clearly defined rules in its awards, the rules having been established by the College or by donors to the College.

1. Financial aid is made available on the basis of ability, character and need.

2. Applicants must present acceptable scores on the College Entrance Examination Scholastic Aptitude Test, and a satisfactory high school scholastic record.

3. Assistance may be withdrawn at any time should the student fail to maintain a good scholastic record or to show satisfactory cooperation with the best interest of the college community or should he be placed under college discipline. Since scholarship holders are students of outstanding citizenship, they may be asked to perform certain courtesy services as representatives of the College, acting upon occasion as ushers, guides, college hosts or hostesses.

4. Renewal of all scholarships is subject to review by the committee, and is dependent on continued need, good conduct, satisfactory grades and availability of funds.

Academic Requirements

Brevard College students are expected to maintain a high level of scholarly performance and intellectual honesty, and to show a willingness to do more than the minimum required in the academic areas. The college reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory or who, for any other reason, fails to uphold the standards and ideals of the college.

Academic Probation

The purpose of academic probation is to warn the student that his academic work is unsatisfactory and to assist him in improving the quality of his work.

Any regular student is placed on academic probation at the end of any grading period (eight weeks) during which he fails to pass at least nine semester hours with a minimum of nine quality points. Unless the minimum standard is reached after one grading period on academic probation the student is subject to academic suspension.

Academic Suspension

A student suspended for academic reasons is required to be absent from the college for at least one semester. At the discretion of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee the absence may be for a longer period of time.

Any regular student is subject to academic suspension when his cumulative quality point average falls below the minimum acceptable standards, which are as follows:

| Semesters in Residence | Minimum Acceptable Cumulative Average |
|-------------------------------|--|
| One | 0.30 |
| two | 0.50 |
| three | 0.70 |
| four or more | Reasonable chance to graduate |

The quality point system is explained in the section below titled "Quality Points."

Auditing Courses

With the approval of the instructor involved and the dean of the college a student may register to audit a course. Class attendance requirements apply but examinations are not required.

Courses audited count as a part of the student's load, but no credit is received.

Regular college fees are charged for auditing.

Change Of Course

With the consent of the instructors involved and the permission of the dean of the college or recorder, course changes may be made as described below.

Courses may be added during the first seven calendar days of the college session.

Courses may be dropped within ten days following registration day with no penalty or up to three weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations with a grade of WP or WF as determined by the instructor. A grade of F or I will be assigned in courses dropped officially in the three-week period before final examinations.

Courses dropped without permission are recorded as F.

Class Attendance

All students are required to be present for all of their classes and laboratories. Any absences must be cleared with the dean of students under the conditions outlined in the Student Handbook.

No credit is allowed in any class in which the student is absent more than twenty percent of the time.

Classification Of Students

A regular student who has passed at least thirty semester hours of work and has a cumulative quality point average of at least 1.0 is classified as a sophomore. All other regular students are classified as freshmen.

Special students are defined in the section on Admission Procedure.

Comprehensive College Tests

All fourth-semester regular students are required to take the five General Examinations of the Comprehensive College Tests on a date announced each semester. A fee of $6.00 is charged to each student taking the tests.

Correspondence Credit

The college will accept up to six semester hours of correspondence credit provided prior arrangements are made with the dean of the college and the appropriate division chairman.

Courses Repeated

If a course is repeated all hours attempted are counted in computing the cumulative quality point average.

Course Load

The normal course load is 17 or 18 semester hours. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The maximum load without special permission is 19 semester hours. A fee is charged for hours in excess of 19 (see Special Charges).

Non-credit and audited courses count as part of the course load.

Degrees Offered

The college awards the degree of Associate in Arts or the Junior College Diploma to those who meet the requirements (see Graduation Requirements).

Examinations

The student must obtain from the bursar a statement that all of his accounts are clear before he is admitted to final examinations each semester. Absences from final examinations are excused only for the most urgent reasons. Make-up examinations (see Special Charges) must be arranged by the student.

Final Work For Graduation

Up to ten semester hours of the final work for graduation may be transferred from another college or university.

Grading System

A grading period consists of half a semester, approximately eight weeks. Instructors report grades to the recorder at the end of each grading period. A report is sent to parents or guardians at the end of each grading period.

|--------------|-------------------|
| A (94-100) | Excellent |
| B (87-93) | Superior |
| C (78-86) | Average |
| D (70-77) | Passing |
| F (Below 70) | Failing |
| I | Incomplete |
| W | Withdrawn |
| WP | Withdrawn Passing |
| WF | Withdrawn Failing |

Grades of I are recorded as F unless they are completed by the end of the semester following the receipt of the I.

Graduation in absentia

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation. This requirement may be waived by the dean of the college in cases of extreme hardship, provided application has been made in writing at least three weeks prior to commencement.

Graduation Requirements

To be eligible for graduation from Brevard College, a student must enroll as a regular student (see section on Admissions Procedure) and must meet all of the requirements listed below.

Final responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

1. Residence

A student must be in residence for a least two semesters, and must complete at Brevard College at least twenty-five semester hours with a quality point average of at least 1.0.

2. Quality Point Average

Candidates for graduation must have earned quality points at least equal to the number of semester hours of college work they have attempted.

3. Graduation Attendance

Attendance at commencement exercises is required unless the candidate has been excused as described above.

4. Hours of Credit

Candidates for graduation must have earned credit for at least 66 semester hours of work distributed as follows:

*For exceptions see curricula for Agriculture, Engineering, Mathematics and Secretarial Science.

Honors

Recognition on the Dean's List or Honor Roll is accorded to those students who meet the criteria during a given grading period. To be eligible a student must be enrolled as a full-time regular student and receive no grade below C on any course for the grading period. Quality point averages of at least 2.50 and 2.00 are required, respectively, for the Dean's List and Honor Roll for each grading period. Repeat courses are not included in the computation.

Graduation honors of cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude, are specified on the degree or diploma of any graduate who earns a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, respectively, with no grades below C on his college record.

Prescribed Courses

All regular students are required to take courses moving toward graduation. Prescribed courses take precedence over electives in arranging an individual schedule.

Quality Point System

Quality points are awarded for credit courses on which the student receives a grade of C or higher. For each semester hour of credit involved the student receives three, two, or one quality point, respectively, for a grade of A, B, or C.

The quality point average is computed by dividing the total number of hours attempted (including repeat courses) into the total number of quality points earned.

Readmission Procedure

Students who have been suspended from the college for academic reasons must be out of the college for at least one semester. Students dropped for emotional reasons should not apply for reinstatement for at least one year.

Application for readmission must be made in writing to the dean of the college by May 1 preceding a fall semester readmission and by December 1 preceding a spring semester readmission. Readmission is by vote of the Academic Standards and Readmission Committee after a careful consideration of all of the factors involved.

Registration

To avoid a late fee and a delay in starting the work of the semester students must be present on the days announced for registration. No student will be registered later than six days following registration day.

Each student should consult his faculty advisor in arranging a course of study each semester, and must have his approval before registering.

Student Handbook

Each year the college publishes the official Student Handbook under the direction of the dean of students. Every student must acquaint himself with the material in this handbook.

Summer Course Elsewhere

Students may attend summer school elsewhere and transfer credits to Brevard College with prior approval of the dean of the college. In general, permission will not be granted for required courses which are available to the student at Brevard.

Grades earned elsewhere in summer school will be recorded at face value but will count no higher than C for quality point purposes.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts must come from the student and should be addressed to the recorder. A fee of one dollar should accompany all requests after the first one.

Withdrawal From College

A minor student must have the written permission of his parents or guardian before he will be allowed to withdraw from the college.

Unofficial withdrawal from the college will result in disciplinary action.

Curricula

Group I — For Students Planning to Complete Four Years of College or University Study

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages have been designed to give the best possible preparation for pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities which offer advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses (exception: Music) leads to the Associate in Arts Degree.

Forestry

The academic-forestry curriculum outlined below is offered in co-operation with the School of Forestry and Trinity College of Duke University at Durham, North Carolina. Admission to this program is selective and admission to Brevard College does not guarantee admission to the academic-forestry curriculum.

Students admitted to this program spend two years at Brevard College followed by one year in Trinity College. Trinity College certifies the student to the School of Forestry and awards the Bachelor of Science degree after one summer and one year in the School of Forestry, if requirements are met. Requirements for the Master of Forestry degree may be met after one additional year in the School of Forestry.

During the two-year part of the program at Brevard College the student is offered appropriate forestry experiences through the co-operation of the United States Forestry Service in the Pisgah National Forest, which is located near the campus.

Academic Divisions and Courses of Instruction

Divisions

The courses of instruction in Brevard College are grouped into five divisions which encompass the areas listed below.

Division of Fine Arts—art, drama, music

Division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation—health, physical education

Division of Languages—English, foreign languages (French, German, Spanish)

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences—biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics

Division of Social Studies and Religion—business, economics, government, history, psychology and education, religion, sociology.

Credit Defined

All credit hours are stated in terms of semester hours. Unless otherwise indicated the number of class periods per week is equal to the number of credit hours.

Some of the courses which follow are designated for provisional credit. Such courses are acceptable as credit toward graduation at Brevard College but vary in transferability to senior colleges.

Course Numbers

Course numbers which are separated by a hyphen are year courses and must be completed in full before credit is allowable on either semester.

Course numbers beginning with a zero carry no college credit. Special information concerning transfer credit in music is contained in the section on applied music.

Art

11 ART HISTORY

Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Historical survey of representative artists, architecture, sculpture, painting and decorative art from Stone Age through Byzantine art. Required of all art majors.

12 ART HISTORY

Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Renaissance art to present.

- 13 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Designing, modeling and glazing ceramic plaques, heads, figures, groups. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 14 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 13. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 15 DESIGN Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Basic elements and principles of design. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 16 DESIGN Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 15. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 17 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Sketching and painting in casein techniques, studies in landscape, still life and portrait. Required of all freshmen art majors. Three 2-hour periods.
- 18 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Tempera, landscape, anatomy, figure studies. Three 2-hour periods.
- 19 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Prerequisite: Art 18 or equivalent. Oil technique, picture composition, modern problems and approaches. Required of all sophomore art majors. Two 3-hour periods.
- 20 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 18 with work in water color. Two 3-hour periods.

Drama

Music

CLASSROOM COURSES

- 01 MUSIC THEORY Fall, Spring, No Credit
Comprehensive music theory, prerequisite or co-requisite of all music classroom courses. May be waived by departmental action. Three periods.
- 11-12 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Harmonic and melodic fundamentals. Required of majors, open to others by permission. Two periods.
- 21-22 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Continuation of Music 11-12. Two periods.
- 13-14 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Scale and chord structure, common and seventh chords, modulations, non-harmonic tones, cadences and other forms. Keyboard work parallels written and aural experience. Required of majors, open to others by permission.
- 23-24 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Continuation of Music 13-14 with survey of contemporary harmonic techniques.
- 15, 16 MUSIC APPRECIATION Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours Each
Significance and aesthetic purpose of music and the relation of music to other art forms, with basic history and evolution of music.
- 17-18 KEYBOARD HARMONY I Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.
- 19-20 KEYBOARD HARMONY II Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.
- 25, 26 MUSIC HISTORY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
History of music from earliest civilization to the present. Prerequisite: Music 15, 16 or permission.

Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

15I WOODWIND ENSEMBLE

Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Applied Music

Private instruction is offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard band and orchestral instruments, and classical guitar. Regular college credit is offered the music major or any student who elects to take one of the major theory courses in conjunction with his private lessons. This credit is transferable to senior colleges and conservatories. Any college student may elect to take private instruction in any area of music and will receive terminal credit for his work. It will count toward graduation from Brevard College, but will not usually transfer to any senior institution. In addition, the music department offers non-credit instruction as time allows to residents of the immediate area.

The amount of credit received is based upon the number of lessons taken per week. For each ½ hour lesson given, the student receives one semester hour of credit. In addition, the student must practice a minimum of five hours per week for each ½ hour lesson.

01 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

No college credit.

11a 12a, 21a, 22a PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

College terminal credit. Open to any college student.

11, 12, 21, 22 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

College transfer credit. Prerequisites to Private Instruction 11 are as follows:

Piano

Prerequisite: knowledge of major and minor scales, ability to play them four notes to the beat at moderate tempi, ability to play two works such as Bach, Little Preludes, a Two-part Invention, slow movement of an easier sonata by Mozart, Haydn or Beethoven, or comparable work from a later period.

Organ

Prerequisite: same as for Piano 11. Prior study of organ recommended.

Voice

Prerequisite: ability to sing standard song on pitch with correct phrasing, good enunciation and musical intelligence. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Brass

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Percussion

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Strings

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Woodwind

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Classical Guitar

Prerequisite: Some prior experience in playing the guitar will ordinarily be required with a good basic music reading ability expected.

Mrs. Daye, Mr. Talley

Health

11 HEALTH

Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health.

Fall, 1 Semester Hour

Physical Education

The college requires four semesters of physical education. Each semester of physical education is divided into two eight-week courses, with the exception of dancing which lasts the entire semester. The two basic areas of activities are team sports for freshmen that also include fundamental activities, and swimming and individual sports open to sophomores only.

The medical examination, required for all incoming freshmen, should give the college health service an awareness of unusual physical handicaps which students may have. With the recommendation of the family doctor and college health service a physical education program will be provided to meet the individual needs of each student.

An athletic ability test is given during the regular testing program of orientation and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental activities class until improvement indicates that they are ready for transfer to regular physical education class.

Beginning swimming is required of all freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate swimming, senior lifesaving and a water safety instructor's course are offered to students who qualify for these courses.

Students are required to buy a physical education uniform at the college store. Towels are furnished by the physical education department.

11, 12 FRESHMEN

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules and regulations, history and special emphasis on physical fitness.

Fundamental Activities (men and women)—Fall Semester

Restricted Activities (men and women)—Fall and Spring Semesters

Beginning Swimming (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Intermediate Swimming (men or women)—Spring Semester—first eight weeks

English

11 ENGLISH FUNDAMENTALS Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition.

12 ENGLISH COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression.

13 ENGLISH—JOURNALISTIC COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour
English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, the Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor. One period and additional meetings as required.

14 INTRODUCTION TO THE THEATRE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A practical course covering the basic techniques of play production in the following areas: acting, directing, stage scenery, lighting, management. Also, history of the theatre, forms of drama. Two periods and one two-hour workshop.

15 PUBLIC SPEAKING Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials.

16 CREATIVE WRITING Spring, 1 Semester Hour
The personal essay, the short story and contemporary poetry. Prerequisite: English 11.

21 ENGLISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Survey of the literature of England from Anglo-Saxon beginnings through the eighteenth century.

22 ENGLISH LITERATURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A survey of the literature of England of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

24 DRAMA WORKSHOP Spring, 1 Semester Hour
Prerequisite: English 14. Assignments on work crews for major productions: carpentry, paint, props, lighting, costume, makeup, stage. Two productions.

Foreign Languages

A laboratory period is required of all students of foreign languages.

French

11-12 ELEMENTARY FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of French grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French.

31-32 FRENCH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite: French 21-22.

German

11-12 ELEMENTARY GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of German grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German.

31-32 GERMAN LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of German Literature, including some of the great court epics, plays, readings from Faust, novelettes, poetry, and works of the great philosophers. Prerequisite: German 21-22.

Spanish

11-12 ELEMENTARY SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish.

31-32 SPANISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22.

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences

Ora L. Railsback, Acting Chairman
Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Bohan, Mrs. Craig, Mr. Jeffers,
Miss Nicholson, Mr. Shearouse, Mrs. Talley

Mathematics

All students enrolling for courses in mathematics are classified by means of standardized placement tests, and only those making satisfactory scores are admitted to courses for college credit.

01 PREPARATORY ALGEBRA Fall, Non-Credit
Fundamental algebraic operations. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

10 INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in high school algebra. Required of students who fail to qualify on placement test for Mathematics 11.

11 COLLEGE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Review of operations listed in Mathematics 10, ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, infinite series, theory of equations, binomial theorem, mathematical induction, determinants, permutations, combinations, probability, inequalities, complex numbers, logarithms, partial fractions, exponential and logarithmic curves.

11E ENGINEERING ALGEBRA Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Topics listed in Mathematics 11 with emphasis upon engineering problems.

12 TRIGONOMETRY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The trigonometric functions, solution of right and oblique triangles, radian measures, reduction theories and formulas, identities and trigonometric equations, multiple, angles, complex numbers, DeMoivre's Theorem, and trigonometric curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 01 and 02. Corequisite: Mathematics 11.

12E ENGINEERING TRIGONOMETRY Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Topics listed in Mathematics 12 with emphasis upon engineering problems. Three periods.

15 ENGINEERING DRAWING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

16 DESCRIPTIVE GEOMETRY

Spring, 3 Semester Hours

Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolution, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

20 MODERN ALGEBRA

Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours

Sets relations; functions and numbers; sets and subsets; operations with sets; relations; functions, domain and range of a function; one-to-one correspondence; the inverse of a function; equivalence relations; cardinal numbers; countably infinite sets; non-denumerable sets; unions, intersection, and differences; venn diagrams; solution sets of inequalities. Vector; vector addition; applications of vectors.

24 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS I

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Review of basic terminology, equations, graphing, function, conics, translations, transformations, limit, continuity, average and instantaneous rates of change, derivatives and applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 11 and Mathematics 12 or satisfactory placement scores. Five periods.

25 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS II

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Differentials, parameters, vectors, mean value theorem, integrals and applications, centroid, differential equations, transcendental functions, mechanics of integration, polar graphing, advanced applications of integration, vectors, and direction cosines. Prerequisite: Mathematics 24. Five periods.

26 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS III

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, double integration, moments, infinite series, expansion of functions, envelopes, applications of partial differentiation, hyperbolic functions, and differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 25. Five periods.

Natural Sciences

Biology

15 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Incorporates the basic concepts of cell structure and functions, metabolism (autotrophic and heterotrophic), growth, reproduction, genetics, behavior, adaptation and taxonomy, using the simple forms of plants and animals as examples. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

16 ZOOLOGY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of examples of the major phyla of the animal kingdom with emphasis on chordates, specifically mammals. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

17 BOTANY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of the major groups of plants with emphasis on spermatophytes. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

Chemistry

11-12 GENERAL INORGANIC CHEMISTRY AND QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Fundamental theories and laws, structures of matter, elements, and compounds, with emphasis upon principles and applications. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 includes the analysis of four groups of cations, the common anions, and a salt. Prerequisite: Eligibility for Mathematics 11 or permission of the instructor. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Naming, preparation, reactions and use of aliphatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

22 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Chemistry 21, with naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aromatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

25 QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A theoretical and laboratory study of anions and cations involving laws, equations, problem and reference work as well as the investigation of known and unknown samples. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or permission of the instructor. Two periods. Two 2-hour laboratories.

Physics

11 GENERAL PHYSICS

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: trigonometry. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

12 GENERAL PHYSICS

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 11. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Fall, 5 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required in the engineering curriculum and open to mathematics and science majors. Pre- or co-requisite: differential and integral calculus. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

22 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Spring, 5 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 21. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

Business

Accounting

- 10 ACCOUNTING FOR SECRETARIES Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The handling of cash and related records with simulated working conditions.
- 11 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Record of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheet, and preparation of financial statements.
- 12 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 11.
- 21 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternative methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue.
- 22 COST ACCOUNTING Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data.

Business Administration

- 10 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, and production and distribution.
- 11 MATHEMATICS OF FINANCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
A study of basic mathematics as applied to business, including interest, discounts, depreciation, annuities, amortization, etc.
- 21 SALESMANSHIP Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning of sales work, selection of prospects, presentation of product, overcoming objections, and closing techniques, with practice in simulated situations.
- 22 ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESS Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning and organization of a business, management, finance, risk bearing, and competition, with case studies.
- 23 BUSINESS LAW Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Business law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships and corporations.
- 24 BUSINESS LAW Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Business Administration 23.

Secretarial Science

- 27 SECRETARIAL PRACTICE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, department, character and personality traits.
- 28 OFFICE MACHINES Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours
Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 29 BUSINESS CORRESPONDENCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence.

Shorthand

11 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription. Five periods.

12 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

22 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

Typewriting

11 BEGINNING TYPEWRITING Fall, 2½ Semester Hours
Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulation. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

12 INTERMEDIATE TYPEWRITING Spring, 2½ Semester Hours
Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED TYPEWRITING Fall, 1½ Semester Hours
Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

Economics

11 ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power.

21 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Production, consumption, exchange and distribution.

22 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Economics 21.

Government

21 FEDERAL GOVERNMENT Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The origin, organization, development and functional aspects of the government of the United States.

22 STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The origin, organization and role of state and local political processes with emphasis on governmental problems in metropolitan areas.

23 INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The objectives and application of American foreign policy to the Middle East, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

History

11 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Political, social and cultural developments in western civilization to 1600 A.D.

12 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 11 to the present.

- 21 AMERICAN HISTORY Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Social, economic and political development of America to 1865.
- 22 AMERICAN HISTORY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 21 to the present.

Psychology and Education

- 11 INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The aims, problems and methods of organized education.
- 12 HISTORY OF EDUCATION Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sources of modern educational aims, practices, principles and trends.
- 13 EFFECTIVE STUDY Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Improvement of study habits and techniques through diagnostic tests, and mastery of study skills, note taking, review methods.
- 14 READING IMPROVEMENT Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Techniques in reading for speed and comprehension.
- 15 VOCABULARY BUILDING Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Pronunciation, spelling, and word derivation, with scaled tests to measure achievement.
- 21 GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Vocabulary, methods and principles of general psychology. Laboratory fees.
- 23 CHILD PSYCHOLOGY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Development of the child from birth to adolescence. Prerequisite: Psychology and Education 21.

Religion

- 01 ORIENTATION Fall, No Credit
The implications of full-time Christian service in the church, practice in the preparation and presentation of discourses, and the organization and work of The Methodist Church. Required of freshmen who are considering full-time Christian service in the church. One period.
- 02 STUDIES FOR LICENSE TO PREACH Spring, No Credit
A study of books required for license to preach in The Methodist Church. One period.
- 11 THE OLD TESTAMENT Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The development of Hebrew history, literature, and social and religious thought.
- 12 THE NEW TESTAMENT Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The development of the literature of the New Testament, with emphasis upon the life and teachings of Jesus, the life and letters of Paul, and the characteristics of the early Christian church.

Sociology

ADMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully:

1. The attached application for admission, a picture, and a $15 application fee (payable by check or money order) should be mailed to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. The $15 fee will not be refunded. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.
2. When we receive your application and fee, we shall mail you one of our transcript forms and three recommendation forms.
3. Your secondary school authorities should complete the transcript form and return it to Brevard as promptly as possible.
4. Write your name on each recommendation form and give to the following persons:
green—one to your junior or senior English teacher.
yellow—another subject-matter teacher.
white—someone with whom you have worked in extra-curricular activities.
Please follow the instructions above without substitutions. After January 1 you should use senior teachers instead of junior teachers.
5. Although it is not at all necessary that we receive additional recommendations, we are glad to receive one or two letters of recommendation if the person writing the letter knows you well and can provide us with additional information, including facts or examples which we have not received from other sources.
6. The CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January. To avoid payment of a late registration fee, the completed registration form and fee must be received by the authorities at Princeton approximately four weeks prior to the date on which the test is to be taken. The Board cannot guarantee to accept applications received later than two weeks prior to the testing date. It is your responsibility to see that the College Board mails an official score report to Brevard.
7. You will be notified about your admission shortly after all necessary forms are received by the Admissions Office.

DETACH AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

1. Print legibly in ink or use typewriter.
2. Enclose check or money order for the fifteen-dollar non-refundable pre-registration fee. Do not send cash.
3. This application implies full acceptance of standards and regulations of the College.
4. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.

BREVARD COLLEGE BULLETIN Volume 33, No. 2

Entered as second class matter at the Post Office at Brevard, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912

THE COLLEGE

Brevard College is a co-educational two-year liberal arts college which is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The college exists for the purpose of providing an academic program, primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors in four-year colleges.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SUMMER SESSION

Within the framework of the purpose of the college as stated in the regular catalog, the summer session seeks to meet four objectives as follows:

1. To provide the opportunity for regularly-enrolled students at the college to broaden their studies or to accelerate their programs;
2. To enable fully-qualified new students to begin their work in June rather than September;
3. To make it possible for regularly-enrolled Brevard College students to make up deficiencies at full credit;
4. To offer to transient students in good standing the opportunity to take work creditable toward a degree elsewhere.

ACCREDITATION

Brevard College is fully-accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and by the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities.

ADMISSION

Admission to the summer session is on the same basis as admissions to any other session of the college. The requirements for admission are stated in the regular catalog.

All persons in attendance at the summer session must complete the appropriate sections of the application form inside the back cover of this bulletin. In addition, all new freshmen who expect to continue their work at Brevard College must apply for admission through the office of the director of admissions.

Transient students are not required to apply for admission to the college. They should complete the bottom portion of the Summer School Application and have the statement of good standing signed by their dean or registrar.

Former students at Brevard College who wish to be reinstated in the summer session must apply in the way outlined in the regular college catalog.

TUITION AND FEES

Tuition and fees for the summer session, payable on registration day for each term, are as follows:

| | Per Term | Both Terms |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| Tuition | $120.00 | $240.00 |
| Registration | 5.00 | 10.00 |
| Health Services | 5.00 | 10.00 |
| Library | 3.00 | 6.00 |
| Activities | 2.00 | 4.00 |
| Total for Day Students | $135.00 | $270.00 |
| Room | 30.00 | 60.00 |
| Board | 70.00 | 140.00 |
| Total for Resident Students | $235.00 | $470.00 |

A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is due with the summer school application and is deducted from the fees due at registration.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Regular members of the college faculty and staff make up the faculty and staff of the summer session. Faculty advisors are available and the offices of the college maintain regular hours. Health and recreational services are provided.

CULTURAL RESOURCES

Brevard College is located near a number of cultural resources which operate during the summer. The famed Brevard Music Camp is located less than two miles from the campus. Several summer theaters are within easy driving distance of the college, including the State Theater of North Carolina at Flat Rock. The college will sponsor trips to several events during the summer.

REGULATIONS

Unless otherwise noted in this bulletin or by announcement, the regulations contained in the regular catalog and student handbook apply to the summer session.

An Invitation

A good way to help determine whether or not a college would meet your needs is to visit the campus, stay overnight in one of the dormitories, meet some of the students and faculty, get a feeling of the spirit of the school.

Prospective students and parents are welcome. To make arrangements for a visit, write:

The Director of Admissions.

From The President

This may be the first college catalog or it may be one of many you have examined. Do you know what you are looking for? Have you made a list of requirements for the college you'd like to attend? If this catalog helps you in making one of the most important decisions of your life, it will have served its purpose.

Take a good look at us.

Brevard, as is the case with any college, is not the college for all students. It may be just the right place for you. Check it against your list of requirements. If you decide it is where you'd like to live and study for the next two years, let us hear from you. An application for admissions form is attached to the catalog.

We have a cosmopolitan citizenry of 600 students from many sections of the country, ninety per cent resident. About ninety per cent of the graduates in our university parallel course transfer each year to four-year colleges and universities. This proves the quality of the work done here and the reputation established with four-year institutions.

Brevard is a church-related college. Its concern for moral and spiritual values makes it a good place to begin at the college level an enriching experience in answering the questions: "Who am I?" and "What can I do?"

What Kind of College Is

*Brevard

Brevard College

Brevard is a coeducational two-year college — a Junior College. How does it differ from many two-year colleges?

A good college is more easily recognized than defined. Colleges are like people, they are individuals and they are very complex. You can describe physical appearance, outline courses of study, enumerate extra-curricular and cultural opportunities, and show blue prints of a building program.

But the intangibles that really distinguish one college from another — spirit, student-teacher relationship, values and standards that make character — these qualities are recognized, not defined.

Program and Purpose

Program

"It is not the duty of a college to teach everything, but it is the duty of a college to teach well all that it does teach," said Elton Trueblood in his book THE IDEA OF A COLLEGE.

With practical areas pre-empted by state colleges, the tax-supported community two-year college, and the trend to on-the-job training in industry and business, Brevard offers predominantly two years of liberal arts and pre-professional study for students who expect to complete four years of college or university study. With eighty-five to ninety per cent of our graduates in the university parallel course transferring to four-year institutions each year, our basic curriculum is composed of courses which are required for transfer credit. The only two-year terminal course offered is in Secretarial Science.

Brevard College has chosen to administer a two-year university parallel program well rather than one that includes technical, vocational, and adult education.

Purpose

A college cannot be or do everything. It must decide what educational services it can best provide and strive for excellence in offering them. Our reason for being is clear.

With first emphasis on intellectual discipline, Brevard College exists for the purpose of providing a two-year academic program primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors and seniors in four-year colleges.

Any college — church related or tax-supported — whatever its kind does not have a right to exist unless it seeks to provide advanced education of superior quality. But beyond this obligation, Brevard, as a church-related college, is concerned with moral and spiritual values. We believe this is important as higher education seems to become more and more secularized.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

Counseling Services

Brevard College believes the basic concern of education must be with the individual and emphasizes the personal relationship by giving attention to the needs and progress of individual students.

The first concern at Brevard is the intellectual development of its students. Beyond this obligation, the college recognizes a responsibility in the general maturing process. Accordingly, a comprehensive program of counseling is offered.

Each student has a faculty advisor on whom he may call at any time for advice and information. The advisors and instructors can help with most academic problems. The Recorder and the Dean of the College invite conferences when additional help is needed. Financial and other personal problems are usually referred to the Dean of Women and the Dean of Students. On spiritual questions, the college Chaplain is glad to counsel.

Both students and faculty advisers have found that some personal, academic and vocational problems are more satisfactorily solved if the pattern of the student's interests, aptitudes and emotional strengths has been determined by appropriate testing and skilled interviews. This service is offered by a professionally trained and experienced Guidance Counselor.

Advantages

With a Christian orientation, Brevard College emphasizes certain advantages which are possible in a two-year college of liberal arts.

1. A solid core of college subjects concentrated at the two-year level.
2. Additional personal work with students—beyond that available in a small senior college — made possible by the efficient functioning of instructors in a two-year limit of courses.
3. Opportunity for maturation before continuing studies in a four-year college or university.
4. Two years of college study and cultural opportunity for young people who may wish education beyond high school but short of a full college course.
5. Early experience through participation in a variety of worthwhile activities often reserved for juniors and seniors in a four-year college.
 - a. Leadership offices in student government and other organizations.
 - b. Journalistic experience on the college paper or the staff of the college annual.
 - c. Tours with glee club, choir, or instrumental ensembles.
 - d. Varsity letters on athletic teams.
 - e. Dramatic activity—in production or acting or both.
 - f. Attainment of deserved recognition in honor societies and special awards.

General Information

Accreditation

Brevard College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the University Senate of The Methodist Church, the North Carolina State Department of Education, the University of North Carolina and the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities. The College is a member of the North Carolina Council of Church Related Colleges.

Sponsorship

Under the auspices of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church.

Location

Brevard College is located in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, 33 miles southwest of Asheville, 18 miles from the Asheville airport, and 47 miles from Greenville, S. C. In the Brevard community are two prominent industries: duPont (x-ray film), and Olin (fine paper and film). Brevard is the home of Radio Station WPNF and the nationally famous Brevard Music Center. The Pisgah National Forest is within sight of the college.

History

Brevard College, beautiful in campus grounds and contemporary in buildings and educational philosophy, honors its Methodist sponsorship and its early origin. The college dates from 1853 when Rutherford College was founded by Robert Laban Abernethy, a Methodist minister. Initially the college was an academy—Owl Hollow School—and through progressive stages came to be a seminary and a four-year college until the union with Weaver College into Brevard College at the site of Brevard Institute.

Weaver College, so named in 1912, was incorporated in 1872 under the presidency of James A. Regan, and became a Methodist college officially in 1883. Brevard Institute was founded in 1895 by Reverend and Mrs. Fitch Taylor as a pioneering venture among mountain young people.

Brevard College thus numbers among its alumni many honored persons who attended the three institutions which are now a part of her.

Campus

Classroom Building, built in 1895, this is the oldest building on the campus. Originally it housed classrooms, administrative offices, the college library, book store and recreation lounge. It was called Spenser Hall until 1951 when it became known as Dunham Hall. This building will be razed with the construction of the new education building scheduled to complete the new south campus quadrangle within two years.

Sims Educational Building, to replace the present classroom building, will house classrooms, faculty offices, a small auditorium, and lounges. The name is in memory of the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Sims, Albert Harold and Rufus Davis. Mr. Sims has served as chairman of the college board of trustees since 1961. It has been under his leadership that the college has undertaken its development program during the past decade.

Annabel Jones Hall, a dormitory for women, is named in honor of the wife of Mr. Edwin L. Jones who served as chairman of the board of trustees for 14 years.

Beam Administration Building, named in honor of C. Grier Beam, a member of the board of trustees and one of the benefactors of the college, the building was completed in May, 1965. It houses the administration offices and the faculty lounge. It is the center building of the south campus quadrangle.

Bryan Moore Science Building, built in 1961 the building was the first in the college's eight building expansion program that began in 1960. Named in honor of Col. W. Bryan Moore, it is part of the south campus quadrangle. It houses the biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics departments. Well-equipped classrooms, laboratories, and stock rooms offer up-to-date and specialized facilities.

Boshamer Gymnasium, named in honor of Cary C. Boshamer, the gymnasium-natatorium provides the best in physical education facilities. The gymnasium section contains offices, classrooms, gymnastic and training rooms, and a regulation basketball court that will accommodate 1200 spectators. The natatorium features a regulation AAU swimming pool.

Dunham Music Center, this building was formerly called The Campus Center. The first floor housed the administration offices. Completely renovated, it is now occupied by the music department and contains a listening room, a reference library, studios, small recital hall, and lounge. The lower floor of the building houses the cafeteria, college store and student lounge. It will be renovated for the music department as soon as the new food service and Student Union buildings are built.

Taylor Hall, the older of the college's two dormitories for men, is named for Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Taylor who established Brevard Institute in 1895. It continues to be one of the most photogenic buildings on the campus.

Green Hall, dormitory for men, was named in honor of Ottis Green who served as trustee for several years.

Lena Sue Beam Dormitory. This two-unit building was opened in the fall of 1966 to house 160 students. The new accommodations permit an enrollment of 600 students. It is named in honor of Mrs. C. Grier Beam.

Myers Dining Hall, named in honor of Albert G. Myers, Sr., is designed to accommodate the increased enrollment. In addition to a dining hall for students and one for the faculty there will be several smaller dining rooms for special occasions. It is scheduled to be ready by the fall of 1967.

Sherrill Athletic Fields, surrounding the gymnasium, the fields were named in honor of Flake Sherrill. Completed in 1962, they include a baseball field, an all-weather track, three grasstex tennis courts, and a large field for a variety of intramural sports.

The James Addison Jones Library was formally opened May 11, 1967. Expressly designed to be an adjunct to the teaching process, it will have a seating capacity for 300 students studying under favorable conditions. All of the conventional library facilities will be present, and other desirable features, such as: seminar rooms, group study rooms, faculty research cubicles, music listening rooms, a small audio-visual auditorium, and exhibition walls.

The College Community

Government

By enrolling in the college each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association, entitled to the privileges and bound by the responsibilities of the constitution, by-laws, and stated standards. The Student Handbook, the official publication of the Association, is sent each student prior to arrival.

The Student Council, which consists of ten students and three faculty members, represents the Student Government Association and has full judicial power to enforce the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. All student organizations are responsible to the Student Council.

Standards Of Conduct

Brevard College expects all students to assume personal responsibility in all areas of college life, and in the maintenance of standards of behavior. Students must display, in attitude and conduct, willingness to accept and cooperate with the college in observing established policies. Drinking, gambling, cheating and immoral conduct are forbidden. Honesty, both in academic matters and personal life, must prevail and any deviation is subject to action by the Student Council and officers of the college.

Regulations

The Use of Automobiles

The owning or operating of a car is restricted. No freshman boarding student will be given a permit to keep a car during his first semester. Details regarding regulations are to be found in the Student Handbook.

Chapel, Assembly, Lyceum Programs

Attendance is required of all students because these programs contribute so much to the educational experience.

Student Responsibility

Students are responsible for the care of their rooms. Loss due to damage done to rooms, furniture, or college property will be assessed against the student or students responsible. Any student who changes room, moves, or exchanges furniture without the permission of dormitory supervisors will be subject to a fee of $5.00 and disciplinary action.

Student Health

Brevard College requires that entering students present a physician's report certifying freedom from communicable diseases and noting any necessary restrictions to be placed upon physical activity. (Students receive the form for making this report during the summer at the time room assignments are made.) The college expects entering students to have, in addition to the usual vaccinations given during public school years, immunization against poliomyelitis and influenza. Brevard College observes precautions regarding health and physical welfare in all areas of college life, and provides infirmary services for casual illness or for convalescence.

Health and accident insurance is made available by the college at a reasonable cost and is required of all students. A booklet describing cost and details of coverage is furnished each student accepted for admission.

In emergency cases requiring special medical attention or surgery the Dean serves in loco parentis.

Religious Life

Each student at Brevard College is required to complete six hours of Religion during his two years' program. It is the purpose of the Department of Religion to acquaint students with the content of the Bible and then offer them the fundamentals of the Christian faith.

Education in Religion should not be confused with indoctrination. While it is true that mature Christians are eager that younger people accept their ideals and standards of value, Brevard College holds that the individual should have the right to think for himself and to arrive at his own conclusions.

Students are encouraged to attend churches of their own choice. The churches of Brevard extend a cordial invitation to attend their church schools, youth groups and worship services.

Speakers for convocations include able leaders from all denominations.

Religious Emphasis Week, observed annually, gives members of the Student body a special time to consider moral and spiritual values.

Cultural Life

Throughout the school year a number of programs and events offer

special opportunities for all members of the community to broaden their interest and appreciation in art, dramatics, music and other fine arts.

Friday At Four

One of the most stimulating intellectual and cultural experiences of the campus is offered to all members of the college community in the program known as "Friday at Four," sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa society. The series presents guest lecturers or faculty members who speak or lead discussions on subjects in the humanities or related fields. Attendance is voluntary.

Lyceum Series

Four lyceum programs are scheduled each year. They include lectures, dramatic productions and musical programs.

Dramatics

The campus organization, The Masquers, and members of the Play Production class assume responsibility for dramatic presentations. Major productions include one full length play and a program of one act plays.

Music

Music plays an important role in the cultural life of the college.

The Choir and the Glee Club present programs of sacred and secular music on campus, in local churches and on annual tours.

Instrumental Ensembles provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

Student Organizations

Religious Organizations

The Christian Council comprises the officers of the religious organizations on campus, and coordinates the efforts these groups make to answer problems that arise pertaining to the religious life of a student and to develop a pervasive and genuinely Christian spirit at Brevard College.

Denominational Groups seek not to proselytize, but to develop comradeship among students of a given denomination through an emphasis upon its character and meaning, and to interpret their denomination for the understanding and appreciation of others. These groups offer assistance in the development of lay and professional leadership for their respective denominations. The major active denominational groups on campus are: The Methodist Student Fellowship, The Baptist Student Union, The Canterbury Club, The Westminster Fellowship and The Newman Club.

Kappa Chi is a religious group composed of young men and women who plan to enter Christian service on a professional basis. Kappa Chi encourages students to enter Christian service by informing them about the challenge and opportunities for such service and guiding them in training and preparation for their task.

Honor Societies

Phi Theta Kappa is a national honor fraternity whose purpose is "to promote scholarship, develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among students of both sexes in junior colleges."

In order to become a member, a student must maintain at least a "B" average; carry at least 15 hours, 12 of which must be in arts and sciences; be of high moral character, and be in the top 10 per cent of the student body scholastically.

Alpha Beta Gamma is the national honorary chemistry fraternity for junior colleges. Admission is based on character, citizenship, interest in chemistry, and a "B" average.

Special Interest, Service, and Social Organizations

The International Relations Club develops an interest in world affairs with an emphasis on discussions and debates.

The Day Students' Club arranges for day student sharing in the privileges and responsibilities of college life. Through social programs like the informal Christmas Dance, bonds are formed between day and resident students.

The Mountaineers explore the scenic beauty surrounding Brevard College by arranging hikes and trips during the fall and spring seasons.

The Euterpean and Cliosophic and The Mnemosynean and Delphian Societies are in their respective pairings brother and sister social organizations. Taking their names from Euterpe, the Greek muse of music and lyric poetry, Clio, the muse of history, Mnemosyne, the goddess of memory and mother of the muses, and the Delphic Oracle, these social clubs were originally literary, dramatic and forensic clubs. As earlier functions were taken over by other organizations the societies evolved into social clubs which sponsor dances, hay rides, and "fun nights" in the gym.

Big Sisters is an organization of sophomore women students selected by the faculty each spring to welcome the incoming freshmen women. In addition, they help new students adjust to the campus routine and are available for consultation in an advisory capacity.

The Business Club is composed of students planning a career in business. The club discusses subjects of mutual interest, engages speakers, and explores challenges in the various areas of commerce.

The Spanish-American Club helps to promote understanding of the cultures of the Spanish speaking nations.

The Folklore Club is organized to promote interest in collecting, preserving, and performing traditional folklore. Meetings include performances and discussions of these many areas of folklore as well as visits to folk festivals and singing conventions in the vicinity of the college. Periodically, guest speakers are invited.

Musical Organizations

The Choir, Glee Club, and Madrigals are the principal touring groups of the music department. They present programs of both a sacred and secular nature in local churches, for civic groups, and on tour.

Instrumental Ensembles include the Wind Ensemble of brass, percussion, and woodwind orchestra composed of community and college musicians. These groups provide a variety of music ranging from the popular to the classical.

Sheer fun and high quality of performance characterize the work of all these musical organizations. Students may share in these organizations on a voluntary basis or for college credit.

Student Publications

The Pertelote is the college yearbook. The editorial staff, headed by appointed students, comprises students who imaginatively raise funds, take and edit pictures, and check details to produce a fascinating artistic record of the college year.

The Clarion is the student newspaper. It is published each week and in addition to current college news it publishes student and faculty opinion on various issues.

Confetti is a literary publication of the creative writing class.

Athletics

The Monogram Club. The Monogram Club is an organization on campus which honors those men who have earned the distinction of wearing the Brevard sweater with a letter. These men have participated in intercollegiate competition and have displayed skill and sportsmanship to the credit of Brevard College.

Athletic Associations.

Every man and woman enrolled in Brevard College is a member of the Men's Athletic Association and the Women's Athletic Association respectively. Both organizations provide the students with ample opportunity to participate in intramural activities occurring throughout the school year. A wide and varied range of sports is included in this program.

The Tornadoes

Basketball, baseball, tennis, track, soccer, cross country and golf teams represent the college in intercollegiate competition and proudly bear the nickname "Tornadoes". Teams compete under the auspices of the National Junior College Athletic Association and the Western Carolinas Junior College Conference with members and non-members of this conference. An impressive array of trophies won by these teams is on display in the lobby of Boshamer Gymnasium.

Brevard has fostered a growing enthusiasm for both intercollegiate and intramural athletics; the beautiful facilities include a spacious gymnasium, indoor swimming pool, all-weather tennis courts, an outstanding grassstex track, and athletic field.

Admission Procedures

General Admission Requirements

Acceptance of candidates for admission follows a selective process. In selecting the entering class, the Admissions Committee considers the school record, the results of the Scholastic Aptitude Test, and the recommendation from the school. The academic record of an applicant, the degree to which he has demonstrated intellectual curiosity, and evidence of his motivation to maintain a satisfactory level of college performance are of primary importance; considered in conjunction with these are his character and personality.

Specific Admission Requirements

I. Regular Students

Formal Application—It is advisable that the application be completed by the candidate as early as possible in his senior year and mailed to the Director of Admissions, Brevard College, Brevard, N. C. Applications after May 1 will be accepted only if there are vacancies in the entering class.

Application Fee—A $15.00 application fee is required with each application. Since this fee covers only part of the cost of processing an application, it is not refundable, whether or not the candidate is admitted.

Character References—Three forms will be sent to the applicant from the admissions office. Two of the character references should be completed by former teachers of college preparatory subjects, and the third form may be completed by whomever the applicant desires to name.

The Official High School Transcript—Candidates are required to have a transcript forwarded directly from each high school they have attended.

The Scholastic Aptitude Test—All candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board.

Arrangements for this test may be made with the principal or guidance counselor or by writing directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Students planning to apply for admission to Brevard College should indicate when taking the test that scores should be sent directly to the college from Princeton, N. J.

Admission Deposit—A room reservation fee of $60.00 is due immediately upon notification of acceptance for enrollment. This fee is non-refundable.

II. Special Students

1. Students who are twenty-one years of age or older and who are residents of the immediate area may be admitted by examination to certain courses for credit, without taking a full load of work.
2. Students with special needs who are residents of the immediate area may be permitted to enroll in classes with credits earned being recorded but not transferred.
3. Students may be admitted without college credit to courses in applied music and art and vocational subjects upon recommendation of the dean of the college.

III. Admission Of Transfer Students To Advanced Standing

Credits earned at accredited colleges will be evaluated and recorded on transfer students' records. Credit toward graduation from Brevard College will be allowed for work done in courses similar to those offered at Brevard College provided the grade received is at least a C where the passing grade is D.

What To Bring

Dormitory rooms are furnished with single beds, dresser, chairs, tables, and Venetian blinds. Each student should provide towels, sheets, pillow, pillow cases, blankets, bedspreads*, study lamp, drinking glass and similar items for personal use. No provision is made for the display of pictures or art on walls. Suitable folders and frames not requiring hanging should be provided.

College Store

Books, stationery, school supplies, personal toiletries, refreshments, gifts, and other sundry items may be purchased from the college-operated store, located in the Campus Center Building. No provision is made for charge accounts for this unit of the college auxiliary enterprises.

Financial Information

Student Expenses

No Brevard College student pays the entire cost of his education—presently about one-half of the total cost. While it is not planned to increase or decrease the fees listed in this catalog, the Board of Trustees reserves the right to make necessary adjustments in fees at any time.

Terms

No deduction is made in any department for late entrance to classes except private music lessons. Every student, by act of registration, creates a liability for that payment period. A parent or guardian, by entering a student, accepts the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog as final and binding upon him.

No student will be allowed to register or attend classes or to begin private music lessons until all financial affairs have been arranged with the business office.

When a student has been granted financial assistance, that sum is not applicable to the payment at registration, but is credited at the time of the second payment. Students receiving aid through work will receive credit as earned at the rate of $1.00 per hour and therefore the amount of aid granted is not applicable to their first payment at registration.

Brevard's operation is based upon payment of fees at the time stated. When a patron finds it necessary to request deferred payment, special arrangements must be made in advance of the due date.

Should a student find it necessary to leave college before the end of a semester, he must notify the dean, the business manager and the librarian before honorable dismissal is granted, or transcripts of his records will not be furnished.

Refunds

If a student withdraws he is responsible for payment of fees up to but not beyond the given payment period.

Financial Assistance

Brevard College will do all within its resources to encourage able students to obtain an education. Since the student is the one who gains the many benefits of higher education, he should assume at least part of the responsibility for paying his college expenses.

All financial assistance is under the control of the Student Aid Committee. Students desiring financial assistance are required to submit a Parents' Confidential Statement. The form may be secured from high school guidance directors or principals, or directly from the College Scholarship Service, Box 176, Princeton, N. J. 08540.

The Student Aid Committee follows clearly defined rules in its awards, the rules having been established by the College or by donors to the College.

1. Financial aid is made available on the basis of ability, character and need.

2. Applicants must present acceptable scores on the College Entrance Examination Scholastic Aptitude Test, and a satisfactory high school scholastic record.

3. Assistance may be withdrawn at any time should the student fail to maintain a good scholastic record or to show satisfactory cooperation with the best interest of the college community or should he be placed under college discipline. Since scholarship holders are students of outstanding citizenship, they may be asked to perform certain courtesy services as representatives of the College, acting upon occasion as ushers, guides, college hosts or hostesses.

4. Renewal of all scholarships is subject to review by the committee, and is dependent on continued need, good conduct, satisfactory grades and availability of funds.

The amount on individual loan shall normally be $300 per year.

Academic Requirements

Brevard College students are expected to maintain a high level of scholarly performance and intellectual honesty, and to show a willingness to do more than the minimum required in the academic areas. The college reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory or who, for any other reason, fails to uphold the standards and ideals of the college.

Academic Probation

The purpose of academic probation is to warn the student that his academic work is unsatisfactory and to assist him in improving the quality of his work.

Any regular student is placed on academic probation at the end of any grading period (eight weeks) during which he fails to pass at least nine semester hours with a minimum of nine quality points. Unless the minimum standard is reached after one grading period on academic probation the student is subject to academic suspension.

Academic Suspension

A student suspended for academic reasons is required to be absent from the college for at least one semester. At the discretion of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee the absence may be for a longer period of time.

Any regular student is subject to academic suspension when his cumulative quality point average falls below the minimum acceptable standards, which are as follows:

| Semesters in Residence | Minimum Acceptable Cumulative Average |
|-------------------------------|--|
| One | 0.30 |
| two | 0.50 |
| three | 0.70 |
| four or more | Reasonable chance to graduate |

The quality point system is explained in the section below titled "Quality Points."

Auditing Courses

With the approval of the instructor involved and the dean of the college a student may register to audit a course. Class attendance requirements apply but examinations are not required.

Courses audited count as a part of the student's load, but no credit is received.

Regular college fees are charged for auditing.

Change Of Course

With the consent of the instructors involved and the permission of the dean of the college or recorder, course changes may be made as described below.

Courses may be added during the first seven calendar days of the college session.

Courses may be dropped within ten days following registration day with no penalty or up to three weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations with a grade of WP or WF as determined by the instructor. A grade of F or I will be assigned in courses dropped officially in the three-week period before final examinations.

Courses dropped without permission are recorded as F.

Class Attendance

All students are required to be present for all of their classes and laboratories. Any absences must be cleared with the dean of students under the conditions outlined in the Student Handbook.

No credit is allowed in any class in which the student is absent more than twenty percent of the time.

Classification Of Students

A regular student who has passed at least thirty semester hours of work and has a cumulative quality point average of at least 1.0 is classified as a sophomore. All other regular students are classified as freshmen.

Special students are defined in the section on Admission Procedure.

College Level Examinations

All fourth-semester regular students are required to take the five General Examinations of the College Level Examinations on a date announced each semester. A fee of $6.00 is charged to each student taking the tests.

Correspondence Credit

The college will accept up to six semester hours of correspondence credit provided prior arrangements are made with the dean of the college and the appropriate division chairman.

Courses Repeated

If a course is repeated all hours attempted are counted in computing the cumulative quality point average.

Course Load

The normal course load is 17 or 18 semester hours. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The maximum load without special permission is 19 semester hours. A fee is charged for hours in excess of 19 (see Special Charges).

Non-credit and audited courses count as part of the course load.

Degrees Offered

The college awards the degree of Associate in Arts or the Junior College Diploma to those who meet the requirements (see Graduation Requirements).

Examinations

The student must obtain from the bursar a statement that all of his accounts are clear before he is admitted to final examinations each semester. Absences from final examinations are excused only for the most urgent reasons. Make-up examinations (see Special Charges) must be arranged by the student.

Final Work For Graduation

Up to ten semester hours of the final work for graduation may be transferred from another college or university.

Grading System

A grading period consists of half a semester, approximately eight weeks. Instructors report grades to the recorder at the end of each grading period. A report is sent to parents or guardians at the end of each grading period.

|----|-------------------|
| A | Excellent |
| B | Superior |
| C | Average |
| D | Passing |
| F | Failing |
| I | Incomplete |
| W | Withdrawn |
| WP | Withdrawn Passing |
| WF | Withdrawn Failing |

Grades of I are recorded as F unless they are completed by the end of the semester following the receipt of the I.

Graduation in absentia

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation. This requirement may be waived by the dean of the college in cases of extreme hardship, provided application has been made in writing at least three weeks prior to commencement.

Graduation Requirements

To be eligible for graduation from Brevard College, a student must enroll as a regular student (see section on Admissions Procedure) and must meet all of the requirements listed below.

Final responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

1. Residence

A student must be in residence for a least two semesters, and must complete at Brevard College at least twenty-five semester hours with a quality point average of at least 1.0.

2. Quality Point Average

Candidates for graduation must have earned quality points at least equal to the number of semester hours of college work they have attempted.

3. Graduation Attendance

Attendance at commencement exercises is required unless the candidate has been excused as described above.

4. Hours of Credit

Candidates for graduation must have earned credit for at least 66 semester hours of work distributed as follows:

*For exceptions see curricula for Agriculture, Engineering, Mathematics and Secretarial Science.

Honors

Recognition on the Dean's List or Honor Roll is accorded to those students who meet the criteria during a given grading period. To be eligible a student must be enrolled as a full-time regular student and receive no grade below C on any course for the grading period. Quality point averages of at least 2.50 and 2.00 are required, respectively, for the Dean's List and Honor Roll for each grading period. Repeat courses are not included in the computation.

Graduation honors of cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude, are specified on the degree or diploma of any graduate who earns

a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, respectively, with no grades below C on his college record.

Prescribed Courses

All regular students are required to take courses moving toward graduation. Prescribed courses take precedence over electives in arranging an individual schedule.

Quality Point System

Quality points are awarded for credit courses on which the student receives a grade of C or higher. For each semester hour of credit involved the student receives three, two, or one quality point, respectively, for a grade of A, B, or C.

The quality point average is computed by dividing the total number of hours attempted (including repeat courses) into the total number of quality points earned.

Readmission Procedure

Students who have been suspended from the college for academic reasons must be out of the college for at least one semester. Students dropped for emotional reasons should not apply for reinstatement for at least one year.

Application for readmission must be made in writing to the dean of the college by May 1 preceding a fall semester readmission and by December 1 preceding a spring semester readmission. Readmission is by vote of the Academic Standards and Readmission Committee after a careful consideration of all of the factors involved.

Registration

To avoid a late fee and a delay in starting the work of the semester students must be present on the days announced for registration. No student will be registered later than six days following registration day.

Each student should consult his faculty advisor in arranging a course of study each semester, and must have his approval before registering.

Student Handbook

Each year the college publishes the official Student Handbook under the direction of the dean of students. Every student must acquaint himself with the material in this handbook.

Summer Course Elsewhere

Students may attend summer school elsewhere and transfer credits to Brevard College with prior approval of the dean of the college. In general, permission will not be granted for required courses which are available to the student at Brevard.

Grades earned elsewhere in summer school will be recorded at face value but will count no higher than C for quality point purposes.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts must come from the student and should be addressed to the recorder. A fee of one dollar should accompany all requests after the first one.

Withdrawal From College

A minor student must have the written permission of his parents or guardian before he will be allowed to withdraw from the college.

Unofficial withdrawal from the college will result in disciplinary action.

Curricula

Group I — For Students Planning to Complete Four Years of College or University Study

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages have been designed to give the best possible preparation for pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities which offer advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses (exception: Music) leads to the Associate in Arts Degree.

Forestry

The academic-forestry curriculum outlined below is offered in co-operation with the School of Forestry and Trinity College of Duke University at Durham, North Carolina. Admission to this program is selective and admission to Brevard College does not guarantee admission to the academic-forestry curriculum at Duke University.

Students admitted to this program spend two years at Brevard College followed by one year in Trinity College. Trinity College certifies the student to the School of Forestry and awards the Bachelor of Science degree after one summer and one year in the School of Forestry, if requirements are met. Requirements for the Master of Forestry degree may be met after one additional year in the School of Forestry.

During the two-year part of the program at Brevard College the student is offered appropriate forestry experiences through the co-operation of the United States Forestry Service in the Pisgah National Forest, which is located near the campus.

Academic Divisions and Courses of Instruction

Divisions

The courses of instruction in Brevard College are grouped into five divisions which encompass the areas listed below.

Division of Fine Arts—art, drama, music

Division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation—health, physical education

Division of Languages—English, foreign languages (French, German, Spanish)

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences—biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics

Division of Social Studies and Religion—business, economics, government, history, psychology and education, religion, sociology.

Credit Defined

All credit hours are stated in terms of semester hours. Unless otherwise indicated the number of class periods per week is equal to the number of credit hours.

Some of the courses which follow are designated for provisional credit. Such courses are acceptable as credit toward graduation at Brevard College but vary in transferability to senior colleges.

Course Numbers

Course numbers which are separated by a hyphen are year courses and must be completed in full before credit is allowable on either semester.

Course numbers beginning with a zero carry no college credit. Special information concerning transfer credit in music is contained in the section on applied music.

Division of Fine Arts

Nelson Adams, Chairman

Miss Herring, Mr. Miller, Miss Moser, Mr. Murray,
Miss Taylor, Miss Tillotson, Mr. Whatley, Mrs. Whatley

Art

11 ART HISTORY Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Historical survey of representative artists, architecture, sculpture, painting and decorative art from Stone Age through Byzantine art. Required of all art majors.

12 ART HISTORY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Renaissance art to present.

13 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Designing, modeling and glazing ceramic plaques, heads, figures, groups. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.

- 14 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 13. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 15 DESIGN Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Basic elements and principles of design. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 16 DESIGN Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 15. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 17 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Sketching and painting in casein techniques, studies in landscape, still life and portrait. Required of all freshmen art majors. Three 2-hour periods.
- 18 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Tempera, landscape, anatomy, figure studies. Three 2-hour periods.
- 19 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Prerequisite: Art 18 or equivalent. Oil technique, picture composition, modern problems and approaches. Required of all sophomore art majors. Two 3-hour periods.
- 20 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 18 with work in water color. Two 3-hour periods.
- 21 ART APPRECIATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
A sensible approach to art in daily use. Man's images from prehistoric to contemporary man. Not open to art majors.
- 22 ART METHODS FOR CHILDREN Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Problems and methods of teaching art to children. Projects for elementary level classes.

Drama

- 14 INTRODUCTION TO THE THEATRE Fall, 3 Semester Hours
A practical course covering the basic techniques of play production in the following areas: acting, directing, stage scenery, lighting, management. Also, history of the theatre, forms of drama. Two periods and one two-hour workshop.
- 24 DRAMA WORKSHOP Spring, 1 Semester Hour
Prerequisite: English 14. Assignments on work crews for major productions: carpentry, paint, props, lighting, costume, makeup, stage. Two productions.

Music

CLASSROOM COURSES

- 01 MUSIC THEORY Fall, Spring, No Credit
Comprehensive music theory, prerequisite or co-requisite of all music classroom courses. May be waived by departmental action. Three periods.
- 11-12 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Harmonic and melodic fundamentals. Required of majors, open to others by permission. Two periods.
- 21-22 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Continuation of Music 11-12. Two periods.
- 13-14 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Scale and chord structure, common and seventh chords, modulations, non-harmonic tones, cadences and other forms. Keyboard work parallels written and aural experience. Required of majors, open to others by permission.
- 23-24 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Continuation of Music 13-14 with survey of contemporary harmonic techniques.
- 15, 16 INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours Each
An approach to the main historical periods of music through study of and listening to music from these periods. Required of music majors; open to others at the discretion of the department.
- 17-18 KEYBOARD HARMONY I Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.
- 19-20 KEYBOARD HARMONY II Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.

- 25 MUSIC APPRECIATION Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Important periods of music history. Emphasis on listening to music for enjoyment and cultural purposes. Not open to music majors.
- 27, 28 HYMNOLOGY Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours Each
History, analysis and recognition of hymns of the church. Recommended for religion majors.

ENSEMBLE COURSES

- 11V GLEE CLUB Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
SATB sacred and secular music. One or more tours each year. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 12V CHOIR Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
SATB sacred music. Includes singing for college chapel services and two church services each month. Open to all students. 1½ hour rehearsal a week.
- 13V MADRIGAL Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
SATB sacred and secular music primarily from polyphonic period. Performances on campus and tours. Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 11I ORCHESTRA Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Standard arrangements for band. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 12I CONCERT BAND Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Standard arrangements for band. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 13I BRASS ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 14I STRING ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.
- 15I WOODWIND ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Applied Music

Private instruction is offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard band and orchestral instruments, and classical guitar. Regular college credit is offered the music major or any student who elects to take one of the major theory courses in conjunction with his private lessons. This credit is transferable to senior colleges and conservatories. Any college student may elect to take private instruction in any area of music and will receive terminal credit for his work. It will count toward graduation from Brevard College, but will not usually transfer to any senior institution. In addition, the music department offers non-credit instruction as time allows to residents of the immediate area.

The amount of credit received is based upon the number of lessons taken per week. For each $\frac{1}{2}$ hour lesson given, the student receives one semester hour of credit. In addition, the student must practice a minimum of five hours per week for each $\frac{1}{2}$ hour lesson.

01 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.
No college credit.

11a 12a, 21a, 22a PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.
College terminal credit. Open to any college student.

11, 12, 21, 22 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.
College transfer credit. Prerequisites to Private Instruction 11 are as follows:

Piano

Prerequisite: knowledge of major and minor scales, ability to play them four notes to the beat at moderate tempi, ability to play two works such as Bach, Little Preludes, a Two-part Invention, slow movement of an easier sonata by Mozart, Haydn or Beethoven, or comparable work from a later period.

Organ

Prerequisite: same as for Piano 11. Prior study of organ recommended.

Voice

Prerequisite: ability to sing standard song on pitch with correct phrasing, good enunciation and musical intelligence. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Brass

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Percussion

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Strings

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Woodwind

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Classical Guitar

Prerequisite: Some prior experience in playing the guitar will ordinarily be required with a good basic music reading ability expected.

Division of Health, Physical Education and Recreation

L. W. Martin, Chairman
Mrs. Daye, Miss Neal, Mr. Talley

Health

11 HEALTH Fall, 1 Semester Hour
Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health.

Physical Education

The college requires four semesters of physical education. Each semester of physical education is divided into two eight-week courses, with the exception of dancing which lasts the entire semester. The two basic areas of activities are team sports for freshmen that also include fundamental activities, and swimming and individual sports open to sophomores only.

The medical examination, required for all incoming freshmen, should give the college health service an awareness of unusual physical handicaps which students may have. With the recommendation of the family doctor and college health service a physical education program will be provided to meet the individual needs of each student.

An athletic ability test is given during the regular testing program of orientation and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental activities class until improvement indicates that they are ready for transfer to regular physical education class.

Beginning swimming is required of all freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate swimming, senior lifesaving and a water safety instructor's course are offered to students who qualify for these courses.

Students are required to buy a physical education uniform at the college store. Towels are furnished by the physical education department.

11, 12 FRESHMEN

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules and regulations, history and special emphasis on physical fitness.

Fundamental Activities (men and women)—Fall Semester

Restricted Activities (men and women)—Fall and Spring Semesters

Beginning Swimming (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Intermediate Swimming (men or women)—Spring Semester—first eight weeks

Division of Languages

Ena Kate Sigmon, Acting Chairman
Mrs. Beard, Miss Owen, Mrs. Perez, Mr. Roberts, Miss Shipman,
Mrs. Tauscher, Mr. Tauscher, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Varin

English

11 ENGLISH FUNDAMENTALS Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition.

12 ENGLISH COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression.

13 ENGLISH—JOURNALISTIC COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour
English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, the Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor. One period and additional meetings as required.

15 PUBLIC SPEAKING Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials.

16 CREATIVE WRITING Spring, 1 Semester Hour
The personal essay, the short story and contemporary poetry. Prerequisite: English 11.

21 ENGLISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Survey of the literature of England from Anglo-Saxon beginnings through the eighteenth century.

22 ENGLISH LITERATURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A survey of the literature of England of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Foreign Languages

A laboratory period is required of all students of foreign languages.

French

11-12 ELEMENTARY FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of French grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French.

31-32 FRENCH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite: French 21-22.

German

11-12 ELEMENTARY GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of German grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German.

31-32 GERMAN LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of German Literature, including some of the great court epics, plays, readings from Faust, novelettes, poetry, and works of the great philosophers. Prerequisite: German 21-22.

Spanish

11-12 ELEMENTARY SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish.

31-32 SPANISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22.

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences

Ora L. Railsback, Acting Chairman
Mr. Beard, Mrs. Bohan, Mr. Jeffers, Miss Nicholson,
Mrs. Potts, Mr. Rajagopalan, Mr. Shearouse

Mathematics

All students enrolling for courses in mathematics are classified by means of standardized placement tests, and only those making satisfactory scores are admitted to courses for college credit.

01 PREPARATORY ALGEBRA Fall, Non-Credit
Fundamental algebraic operations. Three periods.

10 INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in high school algebra. Required of students who fail to qualify on placement test for Mathematics 11.

11 COLLEGE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Review of operations listed in Mathematics 10, ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, infinite series, theory of equations, binomial theorem, mathematical induction, determinants, permutations, combinations, probability, inequalities, complex numbers, logarithms, partial fractions, exponential and logarithmic curves.

12 TRIGONOMETRY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The trigonometric functions, solution of right and oblique triangles, radian measures, reduction theories and formulas, identities and trigonometric equations, multiple angles, complex numbers, DeMoivre's Theorem, and trigonometric curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 01 and 02. Corequisite: Mathematics 11.

15 ENGINEERING DRAWING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

16 DESCRIPTIVE GEOMETRY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolution, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

20 MODERN ALGEBRA Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Sets relations; functions and numbers; sets and subsets; operations with sets; relations; functions, domain and range of a function; one-to-one correspondence; the inverse of a function; equivalence relations; cardinal numbers; countably infinite sets; non-denumerable sets; unions, intersection, and differences; venn diagrams; solution sets of inequalities. Vector; vector addition; applications of vectors.

24 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS I Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Review of basic terminology, equations, graphing, function, conics, translations, transformations, limit, continuity, average and instantaneous rates of change, derivatives and applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 11 and Mathematics 12 or satisfactory placement scores. Five periods.

25 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS II Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Differentials, parameters, vectors, mean value theorem, integrals and applications, centroid, differential equations, transcendental functions, mechanics of integration, polar graphing, advanced applications of integration, vectors, and direction cosines. Prerequisite: Mathematics 24. Five periods.

26 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS III Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, double integration, moments, infinite series, expansion of functions, envelopes, applications of partial differentiation, hyperbolic functions, and differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 25. Five periods.

27 DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Basic Concepts. Special Types of Differential Equations of the first order. Families of Curves. Equations of Higher Degree. Linear Differential Equations. Use of Series. Numerical Methods. Partial Differential Equations. Limits, Derivatives, Integrals. Applications in Solving Physical Problems.

Natural Sciences

Biology

15 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Incorporates the basic concepts of cell structure and functions, metabolism (autotrophic and heterotrophic), growth, reproduction, genetics, behavior, adaptation and taxonomy, using the simple forms of plants and animals as examples. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

16 ZOOLOGY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of examples of the major phyla of the animal kingdom with emphasis on chordates, specifically mammals. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

17 BOTANY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of the major groups of plants with emphasis on spermatophytes. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

18 MARINE ECOLOGY

Between Semesters and Summer,
Provisional Credit, 2 Semester Hours

A three-week study of marine plants and animals in their natural habitats in the area of the Bahama Islands. Fee approximately $250 for travel and living expenses. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

Chemistry

11-12 GENERAL CHEMISTRY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Fundamental theories and laws, atomic and molecular structure, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, kinetics, thermodynamics, preparation and properties of elements, and an introduction to organic chemistry. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 consists of semimicro-qualitative analysis and quantitative experiments. Prerequisite: eligible to enroll in Math 10 or permission of the instructor. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

13-14 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Atomic and molecular structure and properties, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, thermodynamics, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, and kinetics. The laboratory in Chemistry 14 consists of semimicroqualitative and quantitative analysis. Prerequisites: High School Chemistry and eligible to enroll in Math 24. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or 13-14. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

22 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Chemistry 21. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

Physics

11 GENERAL PHYSICS

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: trigonometry. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

12 GENERAL PHYSICS

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 11. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Fall, 5 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required in the engineering curriculum and open to mathematics and science majors. Pre- or co-requisite: differential and integral calculus. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

22 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Spring, 5 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 21. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

Division of Social Studies and Religion

W. Louis Miles, Chairman
Mr. Fisher, Mrs. Harris, Mr. Holcombe, Miss Jarrell, Mrs. Munro,
Mr. Perez, Miss Rankin, Mr. Roy, Mr. Tawney, Mr. Wilson

Business

Accounting

10 ACCOUNTING FOR SECRETARIES Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The handling of cash and related records with simulated working conditions.

11 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Record of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheet, and preparation of financial statements.

12 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 11.

21 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternative methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue.

22 COST ACCOUNTING Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data.

Business Administration

10 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, and production and distribution.

11 MATHEMATICS OF FINANCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
A study of basic mathematics as applied to business, including interest, discounts, depreciation, annuities, amortization, etc.

21 SALESMANSHIP Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning of sales work, selection of prospects, presentation of product, overcoming objections, and closing techniques, with practice in simulated situations.

22 ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESS Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning and organization of a business, management, finance, risk bearing, and competition, with case studies.

23 BUSINESS LAW Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Business law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships and corporations.

24 BUSINESS LAW Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Business Administration 23.

Secretarial Science

27 SECRETARIAL PRACTICE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, deportment, character and personality traits.

28 OFFICE MACHINES Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours
Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

29 BUSINESS CORRESPONDENCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence.

Shorthand

11 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription. Five periods.

12 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

22 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

Typewriting

11 BEGINNING TYPEWRITING Fall, 2½ Semester Hours
Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulation. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

12 INTERMEDIATE TYPEWRITING Spring, 2½ Semester Hours
Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED TYPEWRITING Fall, 1½ Semester Hours
Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

Economics

11 ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power.

21 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Production, consumption, exchange and distribution.

22 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Economics 21.

Please read carefully:

1. The attached application for admission, a picture, and a $15 application fee (payable by check or money order) should be mailed to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. The $15 fee will not be refunded. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.
2. When we receive your application and fee, we shall mail you one of our transcript forms and three recommendation forms.
3. Your secondary school authorities should complete the transcript form and return it to Brevard as promptly as possible.
4. Write your name on each recommendation form and give to the following persons:
green—one to your junior or senior English teacher.
yellow—another subject-matter teacher.
white—someone with whom you have worked in extra-curricular activities.
Please follow the instructions above without substitutions. After January 1 you should use senior teachers instead of junior teachers.
5. Although it is not at all necessary that we receive additional recommendations, we are glad to receive one or two letters of recommendation if the person writing the letter knows you well and can provide us with additional information, including facts or examples which we have not received from other sources.
6. The CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January. To avoid payment of a late registration fee, the completed registration form and fee must be received by the authorities at Princeton approximately four weeks prior to the date on which the test is to be taken. The Board cannot guarantee to accept applications received later than two weeks prior to the testing date. It is your responsibility to see that the College Board mails an official score report to Brevard.
7. You will be notified about your admission shortly after all necessary forms are received by the Admissions Office.

DETACH AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

1. Print legibly in ink or use typewriter.
2. Enclose check or money order for the fifteen-dollar non-refundable pre-registration fee. Do not send cash.
3. This application implies full acceptance of standards and regulations of the College.
4. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.

Catalog Supplement
1968-69 Academic Year

Brevard College

BREVARD
NORTH CAROLINA

A Methodist Affiliated
Coeducational two-year College

Academic Requirements

Brevard College students are expected to maintain a high level of scholarly performance and intellectual honesty, and to show a willingness to do more than the minimum required in the academic areas. The college reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory or who, for any other reason, fails to uphold the standards and ideals of the college.

Academic Probation

The purpose of academic probation is to warn the student that his academic work is unsatisfactory and to assist him in improving the quality of his work.

Any regular student is placed on academic probation at the end of any grading period (eight weeks) during which he fails to pass at least nine semester hours with a minimum of nine quality points. Unless the minimum standard is reached after one grading period on academic probation the student is subject to academic suspension.

Academic Suspension

A student suspended for academic reasons is required to be absent from the college for at least one semester. At the discretion of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee the absence may be for a longer period of time.

Any regular student is subject to academic suspension when his cumulative quality point average falls below the minimum acceptable standards, which are as follows:

| Semesters in Residence | Minimum Acceptable Cumulative Average |
|-------------------------------|--|
| One | 0.30 |
| two | 0.50 |
| three | 0.70 |
| four or more | Reasonable chance to graduate |

The quality point system is explained in the section below titled "Quality Points."

Auditing Courses

With the approval of the instructor involved and the dean of the college a student may register to audit a course. Class attendance requirements apply but examinations are not required.

Courses audited count as a part of the student's load, but no credit is received.

Regular college fees are charged for auditing.

Change Of Course

With the consent of the instructors involved and the permission of the dean of the college or recorder, course changes may be made as described below.

Courses may be added during the first seven calendar days of the college session.

Courses may be dropped within ten days following registration day with no penalty or up to three weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations with a grade of WP or WF as determined by the instructor. A grade of F or I will be assigned in courses dropped officially in the three-week period before final examinations.

Courses dropped without permission are recorded as F.

Class Attendance

All students are required to be present for all of their classes and laboratories. Any absences must be cleared with the dean of students under the conditions outlined in the Student Handbook.

No credit is allowed in any class in which the student is absent more than twenty percent of the time.

Classification Of Students

A regular student who has passed at least thirty semester hours of work and has a cumulative quality point average of at least 1.0 is classified as a sophomore. All other regular students are classified as freshmen.

Special students are defined in the section on Admission Procedure.

College Level Examinations

All fourth-semester regular students are required to take the five General Examinations of the College Level Examinations on a date announced each semester. A fee of $6.00 is charged to each student taking the tests.

Correspondence Credit

The college will accept up to six semester hours of correspondence credit provided prior arrangements are made with the dean of the college and the appropriate division chairman.

Courses Repeated

If a course is repeated all hours attempted are counted in computing the cumulative quality point average.

Course Load

The normal course load is 17 or 18 semester hours. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The maximum load without special permission is 19 semester hours. A fee is charged for hours in excess of 19 (see Special Charges).

Non-credit and audited courses count as part of the course load.

Degrees Offered

The college awards the degree of Associate in Arts or the Junior College Diploma to those who meet the requirements (see Graduation Requirements).

Examinations

The student must obtain from the bursar a statement that all of his accounts are clear before he is admitted to final examinations each semester. Absences from final examinations are excused only for the most urgent reasons. Make-up examinations (see Special Charges) must be arranged by the student.

Final Work For Graduation

Up to ten semester hours of the final work for graduation may be transferred from another college or university.

Grading System

A grading period consists of half a semester, approximately eight weeks. Instructors report grades to the recorder at the end of each grading period. A report is sent to parents or guardians at the end of each grading period.

|----|-------------------|
| A | Excellent |
| B | Superior |
| C | Average |
| D | Passing |
| F | Failing |
| I | Incomplete |
| W | Withdrawn |
| WP | Withdrawn Passing |
| WF | Withdrawn Failing |

Grades of I are recorded as F unless they are completed by the end of the semester following the receipt of the I.

Graduation in absentia

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation. This requirement may be waived by the dean of the college in cases of extreme hardship, provided application has been made in writing at least three weeks prior to commencement.

Graduation Requirements

To be eligible for graduation from Brevard College, a student must enroll as a regular student (see section on Admissions Procedure) and must meet all of the requirements listed below.

Final responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

1. Residence

A student must be in residence for a least two semesters, and must complete at Brevard College at least twenty-five semester hours with a quality point average of at least 1.0.

2. Quality Point Average

Candidates for graduation must have earned quality points at least equal to the number of semester hours of college work they have attempted.

3. Graduation Attendance

Attendance at commencement exercises is required unless the candidate has been excused as described above.

4. Hours of Credit

Candidates for graduation must have earned credit for at least 66 semester hours of work distributed as follows:

*For exceptions see curricula for Agriculture, Engineering, Mathematics and Secretarial Science.

Honors

Recognition on the Dean's List or Honor Roll is accorded to those students who meet the criteria during a given grading period. To be eligible a student must be enrolled as a full-time regular student and receive no grade below C on any course for the grading period. Quality point averages of at least 2.50 and 2.00 are required, respectively, for the Dean's List and Honor Roll for each grading period. Repeat courses are not included in the computation.

Graduation honors of cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude, are specified on the degree or diploma of any graduate who earns

a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, respectively, with no grades below C on his college record.

Prescribed Courses

All regular students are required to take courses moving toward graduation. Prescribed courses take precedence over electives in arranging an individual schedule.

Quality Point System

Quality points are awarded for credit courses on which the student receives a grade of C or higher. For each semester hour of credit involved the student receives three, two, or one quality point, respectively, for a grade of A, B, or C.

The quality point average is computed by dividing the total number of hours attempted (including repeat courses) into the total number of quality points earned.

Readmission Procedure

Students who have been suspended from the college for academic reasons must be out of the college for at least one semester. Students dropped for emotional reasons should not apply for reinstatement for at least one year.

Application for readmission must be made in writing to the dean of the college by May 1 preceding a fall semester readmission and by December 1 preceding a spring semester readmission. Readmission is by vote of the Academic Standards and Readmission Committee after a careful consideration of all of the factors involved.

Registration

To avoid a late fee and a delay in starting the work of the semester students must be present on the days announced for registration. No student will be registered later than six days following registration day.

Each student should consult his faculty advisor in arranging a course of study each semester, and must have his approval before registering.

Student Handbook

Each year the college publishes the official Student Handbook under the direction of the dean of students. Every student must acquaint himself with the material in this handbook.

Summer Course Elsewhere

Students may attend summer school elsewhere and transfer credits to Brevard College with prior approval of the dean of the college. In general, permission will not be granted for required courses which are available to the student at Brevard.

Grades earned elsewhere in summer school will be recorded at face value but will count no higher than C for quality point purposes.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts must come from the student and should be addressed to the recorder. A fee of one dollar should accompany all requests after the first one.

Withdrawal From College

A minor student must have the written permission of his parents or guardian before he will be allowed to withdraw from the college.

Unofficial withdrawal from the college will result in disciplinary action.

Curricula

Group I — For Students Planning to Complete Four Years of College or University Study

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages have been designed to give the best possible preparation for pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities which offer advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses (exception: Music) leads to the Associate in Arts Degree.

Forestry

The academic-forestry curriculum outlined below is offered in co-operation with the School of Forestry and Trinity College of Duke University at Durham, North Carolina. Admission to this program is selective and admission to Brevard College does not guarantee admission to the academic-forestry curriculum at Duke University.

Students admitted to this program spend two years at Brevard College followed by one year in Trinity College. Trinity College certifies the student to the School of Forestry and awards the Bachelor of Science degree after one summer and one year in the School of Forestry, if requirements are met. Requirements for the Master of Forestry degree may be met after one additional year in the School of Forestry.

During the two-year part of the program at Brevard College the student is offered appropriate forestry experiences through the co-operation of the United States Forestry Service in the Pisgah National Forest, which is located near the campus.

Academic Divisions and Courses of Instruction

Divisions

The courses of instruction in Brevard College are grouped into five divisions which encompass the areas listed below.

Division of Fine Arts—art, drama, music

Division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation—health, physical education

Division of Languages—English, foreign languages (French, German, Spanish)

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences—biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics

Division of Social Studies and Religion—business, economics, government, history, psychology and education, religion, sociology.

Credit Defined

All credit hours are stated in terms of semester hours. Unless otherwise indicated the number of class periods per week is equal to the number of credit hours.

Some of the courses which follow are designated for provisional credit. Such courses are acceptable as credit toward graduation at Brevard College but vary in transferability to senior colleges.

Course Numbers

Course numbers which are separated by a hyphen are year courses and must be completed in full before credit is allowable on either semester.

Course numbers beginning with a zero carry no college credit. Special information concerning transfer credit in music is contained in the section on applied music.

Division of Fine Arts

Nelson Adams, Chairman

Miss Herring, Mr. Miller, Miss Moser, Mr. Murray,
Miss Taylor, Miss Tillotson, Mr. Whatley, Mrs. Whatley

Art

11 ART HISTORY Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Historical survey of representative artists, architecture, sculpture, painting and decorative art from Stone Age through Byzantine art. Required of all art majors.

12 ART HISTORY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Renaissance art to present.

13 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Designing, modeling and glazing ceramic plaques, heads, figures, groups. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.

- 14 CERAMIC SCULPTURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 13. (Offered even years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 15 DESIGN Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Basic elements and principles of design. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 16 DESIGN Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 15. (Offered odd years.) Three 2-hour periods.
- 17 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Sketching and painting in casein techniques, studies in landscape, still life and portrait. Required of all freshmen art majors. Three 2-hour periods.
- 18 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Tempera, landscape, anatomy, figure studies. Three 2-hour periods.
- 19 PAINTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Prerequisite: Art 18 or equivalent. Oil technique, picture composition, modern problems and approaches. Required of all sophomore art majors. Two 3-hour periods.
- 20 PAINTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Art 18 with work in water color. Two 3-hour periods.
- 21 ART APPRECIATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
A sensible approach to art in daily use. Man's images from prehistoric to contemporary man. Not open to art majors.
- 22 ART METHODS FOR CHILDREN Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Problems and methods of teaching art to children. Projects for elementary level classes.

Drama

- 14 INTRODUCTION TO THE THEATRE Fall, 3 Semester Hours
A practical course covering the basic techniques of play production in the following areas: acting, directing, stage scenery, lighting, management. Also, history of the theatre, forms of drama. Two periods and one two-hour workshop.
- 24 DRAMA WORKSHOP Spring, 1 Semester Hour
Prerequisite: English 14. Assignments on work crews for major productions: carpentry, paint, props, lighting, costume, makeup, stage. Two productions.

Music

CLASSROOM COURSES

- 01 MUSIC THEORY Fall, Spring, No Credit
Comprehensive music theory, prerequisite or co-requisite of all music classroom courses. May be waived by departmental action. Three periods.
- 11-12 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Harmonic and melodic fundamentals. Required of majors, open to others by permission. Two periods.
- 21-22 SIGHT-SINGING, MUSIC DICTATION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
Continuation of Music 11-12. Two periods.
- 13-14 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Scale and chord structure, common and seventh chords, modulations, non-harmonic tones, cadences and other forms. Keyboard work parallels written and aural experience. Required of majors, open to others by permission.
- 23-24 HARMONY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Continuation of Music 13-14 with survey of contemporary harmonic techniques.
- 15, 16 INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours Each
An approach to the main historical periods of music through study of and listening to music from these periods. Required of music majors; open to others at the discretion of the department.
- 17-18 KEYBOARD HARMONY I Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.
- 19-20 KEYBOARD HARMONY II Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour Each
One period of 1½ hour private.

25 MUSIC APPRECIATION Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Important periods of music history. Emphasis on listening to music for enjoyment and cultural purposes. Not open to music majors.

27, 28 HYMNOLOGY Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours Each
History, analysis and recognition of hymns of the church. Recommended for religion majors.

ENSEMBLE COURSES

11V GLEE CLUB Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
SATB sacred and secular music. One or more tours each year. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

12V CHOIR Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
SATB sacred music. Includes singing for college chapel services and two church services each month. Open to all students. 1½ hour rehearsal a week.

12I CONCERT BAND Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Standard arrangements for band. Performances on campus and tours. Open to all students. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

13I BRASS ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

14I STRING ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

15I WOODWIND ENSEMBLE Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour
Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week.

Applied Music

Private instruction is offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard band and orchestral instruments, and classical guitar. Regular college credit is offered the music major or any student who elects to take one of the major theory courses in conjunction with his private lessons. This credit is transferable to senior colleges and conservatories. Any college student may elect to take private instruction in any area of music and will receive terminal credit for his work. It will count toward graduation from Brevard College, but will not usually transfer to any senior institution. In addition, the music department offers non-credit instruction as time allows to residents of the immediate area.

The amount of credit received is based upon the number of lessons taken per week. For each $\frac{1}{2}$ hour lesson given, the student receives one semester hour of credit. In addition, the student must practice a minimum of five hours per week for each $\frac{1}{2}$ hour lesson.

01 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

No college credit.

11a 12a, 21a, 22a PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

College terminal credit. Open to any college student.

11, 12, 21, 22 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

College transfer credit. Prerequisites to Private Instruction 11 are as follows:

Piano

Prerequisite: knowledge of major and minor scales, ability to play them four notes to the beat at moderate tempi, ability to play two works such as Bach, Little Preludes, a Two-part Invention, slow movement of an easier sonata by Mozart, Haydn or Beethoven, or comparable work from a later period.

Organ

Prerequisite: same as for Piano 11. Prior study of organ recommended.

Voice

Prerequisite: ability to sing standard song on pitch with correct phrasing, good enunciation and musical intelligence. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Brass

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Percussion

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Strings

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Woodwind

Prerequisite: extensive study and ensemble playing. Piano required as a minor applied music subject unless moderately difficult accompaniments can be played.

Classical Guitar

Prerequisite: Some prior experience in playing the guitar will ordinarily be required with a good basic music reading ability expected.

Division of Health, Physical Education and Recreation

L. W. Martin, Chairman
Mrs. Daye, Miss Neal, Mr. Talley

Health

11 HEALTH

Fall, 1 Semester Hour

Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health.

Physical Education

The college requires four semesters of physical education. Each semester of physical education is divided into two eight-week courses, with the exception of dancing which lasts the entire semester. The two basic areas of activities are team sports for freshmen that also include fundamental activities, and swimming and individual sports open to sophomores only.

The medical examination, required for all incoming freshmen, should give the college health service an awareness of unusual physical handicaps which students may have. With the recommendation of the family doctor and college health service a physical education program will be provided to meet the individual needs of each student.

An athletic ability test is given during the regular testing program of orientation and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental activities class until improvement indicates that they are ready for transfer to regular physical education class.

Beginning swimming is required of all freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate swimming, senior lifesaving and a water safety instructor's course are offered to students who qualify for these courses.

Students are required to buy a physical education uniform at the college store. Towels are furnished by the physical education department.

11, 12 FRESHMEN

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules and regulations, history and special emphasis on physical fitness.

Fundamental Activities (men and women)—Fall Semester

Restricted Activities (men and women)—Fall and Spring Semesters

Beginning Swimming (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Intermediate Swimming (men or women)—Spring Semester—first eight weeks

Basketball (men or women)—Fall Semester—second eight weeks

Mrs. Beard, Miss Owen, Mrs. Perez, Mr. Roberts, Miss Shipman,
Mrs. Tauscher, Mr. Tauscher, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Varin

English

11 ENGLISH FUNDAMENTALS Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition.

12 ENGLISH COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression.

13 ENGLISH—JOURNALISTIC COMPOSITION Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour
English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, the Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor. One period and additional meetings as required.

15 PUBLIC SPEAKING Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials.

16 CREATIVE WRITING Spring, 1 Semester Hour
The personal essay, the short story and contemporary poetry. Prerequisite: English 11.

21 ENGLISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Survey of the literature of England from Anglo-Saxon beginnings through the eighteenth century.

22 ENGLISH LITERATURE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
A survey of the literature of England of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Foreign Languages

A laboratory period is required of all students of foreign languages.

French

11-12 ELEMENTARY FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of French grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French.

31-32 FRENCH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite: French 21-22.

German

11-12 ELEMENTARY GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of German grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German.

31-32 GERMAN LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Survey of German Literature, including some of the great court epics, plays, readings from Faust, novelettes, poetry, and works of the great philosophers. Prerequisite: German 21-22.

Spanish

11-12 ELEMENTARY SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish.

31-32 SPANISH LITERATURE Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each
Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22.

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences

Ora L. Railsback, Acting Chairman
Mr. Beard, Mrs. Bohan, Mr. Jeffers, Miss Nicholson,
Mrs. Potts, Mr. Rajagopalan, Mr. Shearouse

Mathematics

All students enrolling for courses in mathematics are classified by means of standardized placement tests, and only those making satisfactory scores are admitted to courses for college credit.

01 PREPARATORY ALGEBRA Fall, Non-Credit
Fundamental algebraic operations. Three periods.

10 INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Factoring, fractions, linear equations in one, two, and three unknowns, functions and graphs, exponents and radicals, elements of quadratic equations. Prerequisite: one unit in high school algebra. Required of students who fail to qualify on placement test for Mathematics 11.

11 COLLEGE ALGEBRA Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Review of operations listed in Mathematics 10, ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, infinite series, theory of equations, binomial theorem, mathematical induction, determinants, permutations, combinations, probability, inequalities, complex numbers, logarithms, partial fractions, exponential and logarithmic curves.

12 TRIGONOMETRY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The trigonometric functions, solution of right and oblique triangles, radian measures, reduction theories and formulas, identities and trigonometric equations, multiple angles, complex numbers, DeMoivre's Theorem, and trigonometric curves. Prerequisite: Mathematics 01 and 02. Corequisite: Mathematics 11.

15 ENGINEERING DRAWING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

16 DESCRIPTIVE GEOMETRY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolution, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods.

20 MODERN ALGEBRA Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Sets relations; functions and numbers; sets and subsets; operations with sets; relations; functions, domain and range of a function; one-to-one correspondence; the inverse of a function; equivalence relations; cardinal numbers; countably infinite sets; non-denumerable sets; unions, intersection, and differences; venn diagrams; solution sets of inequalities. Vector; vector addition; applications of vectors.

24 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS I Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Review of basic terminology, equations, graphing, function, conics, translations, transformations, limit, continuity, average and instantaneous rates of change, derivatives and applications. Prerequisite: Mathematics 11 and Mathematics 12 or satisfactory placement scores. Five periods.

25 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS II Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Differentials, parameters, vectors, mean value theorem, integrals and applications, centroid, differential equations, transcendental functions, mechanics of integration, polar graphing, advanced applications of integration, vectors, and direction cosines. Prerequisite: Mathematics 24. Five periods.

26 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS III Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours
Solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, double integration, moments, infinite series, expansion of functions, envelopes, applications of partial differentiation, hyperbolic functions, and differential equations. Prerequisite: Mathematics 25. Five periods.

27 DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Basic Concepts. Special Types of Differential Equations of the first order. Families of Curves. Equations of Higher Degree. Linear Differential Equations. Use of Series. Numerical Methods. Partial Differential Equations. Limits, Derivatives, Integrals. Applications in Solving Physical Problems.

Natural Sciences

Biology

15 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Incorporates the basic concepts of cell structure and functions, metabolism (autotrophic and heterotrophic), growth, reproduction, genetics, behavior, adaptation and taxonomy, using the simple forms of plants and animals as examples. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

16 ZOOLOGY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of examples of the major phyla of the animal kingdom with emphasis on chordates, specifically mammals. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

17 BOTANY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours

A taxonomic study of the major groups of plants with emphasis on spermatophytes. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory.

18 MARINE ECOLOGY

Between Semesters and Summer,
Provisional Credit, 2 Semester Hours

A three-week study of marine plants and animals in their natural habitats in the area of the Bahama Islands. Fee approximately $250 for travel and living expenses. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

Chemistry

11-12 GENERAL CHEMISTRY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Fundamental theories and laws, atomic and molecular structure, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, kinetics, thermodynamics, preparation and properties of elements, and an introduction to organic chemistry. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 consists of semimicro-qualitative analysis and quantitative experiments. Prerequisite: eligible to enroll in Math 10 or permission of the instructor. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

13-14 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY

Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each

Atomic and molecular structure and properties, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, thermodynamics, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, and kinetics. The laboratory in Chemistry 14 consists of semimicroqualitative and quantitative analysis. Prerequisites: High School Chemistry and eligible to enroll in Math 24. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or 13-14. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

22 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Chemistry 21. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

Physics

11 GENERAL PHYSICS

Fall, 4 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: trigonometry. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

12 GENERAL PHYSICS

Spring, 4 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 11. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory.

21 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Fall, 5 Semester Hours

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required in the engineering curriculum and open to mathematics and science majors. Pre- or co-requisite: differential and integral calculus. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

22 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Spring, 5 Semester Hours

Continuation of Physics 21. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving.

Business

Accounting

- 10 ACCOUNTING FOR SECRETARIES Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The handling of cash and related records with simulated working conditions.
- 11 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Record of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheet, and preparation of financial statements.
- 12 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 11.
- 21 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternative methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue.
- 22 COST ACCOUNTING Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data.

Business Administration

- 10 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, and production and distribution.
- 11 MATHEMATICS OF FINANCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
A study of basic mathematics as applied to business, including interest, discounts, depreciation, annuities, amortization, etc.
- 21 SALESMANSHIP Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning of sales work, selection of prospects, presentation of product, overcoming objections, and closing techniques, with practice in simulated situations.
- 22 ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT OF SMALL BUSINESS Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Planning and organization of a business, management, finance, risk bearing, and competition, with case studies.
- 23 BUSINESS LAW Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Business law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships and corporations.
- 24 BUSINESS LAW Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Business Administration 23.

Secretarial Science

- 27 SECRETARIAL PRACTICE Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, deportment, character and personality traits.
- 28 OFFICE MACHINES Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours
Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee. Three periods.
- 29 BUSINESS CORRESPONDENCE Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours
Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence.

Shorthand

11 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription. Five periods.

12 BEGINNING SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

22 ADVANCED SHORTHAND Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods.

Typewriting

11 BEGINNING TYPEWRITING Fall, 2½ Semester Hours
Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulation. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

12 INTERMEDIATE TYPEWRITING Spring, 2½ Semester Hours
Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Five periods.

21 ADVANCED TYPEWRITING Fall, 1½ Semester Hours
Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Three periods.

Economics

11 ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power.

21 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Production, consumption, exchange and distribution.

22 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of Economics 21.

Government

21' FEDERAL GOVERNMENT Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The origin, organization, development and functional aspects of the government of the United States.

22 STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The origin, organization and role of state and local political processes with emphasis on governmental problems in metropolitan areas.

23 INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
The objectives and application of American foreign policy to the Middle East, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

History

11 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Political, social and cultural developments in western civilization to 1600 A.D.

12 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 11 to the present.

- 21 AMERICAN HISTORY Fall, 3 Semester Hours
Social, economic and political development of America to 1865.
- 22 AMERICAN HISTORY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Continuation of History 21 to the present.

Psychology and Education

- 11 INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION Fall, 3 Semester Hours
The aims, problems and methods of organized education.
- 12 HISTORY OF EDUCATION Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Sources of modern educational aims, practices, principles and trends.
- 13 EFFECTIVE STUDY Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Improvement of study habits and techniques through diagnostic tests, and mastery of study skills, note taking, review methods.
- 14 READING IMPROVEMENT Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Techniques in reading for speed and comprehension.
- 15 VOCABULARY BUILDING Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour
Pronunciation, spelling, and word derivation, with scaled tests to measure achievement.
- 21 GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Vocabulary, methods and principles of general psychology. Laboratory fees.
- 23 CHILD PSYCHOLOGY Spring, 3 Semester Hours
Development of the child from birth to adolescence. Prerequisite: Psychology and Education 21.

Religion

- 01 ORIENTATION Fall, No Credit
The implications of full-time Christian service in the church, practice in the preparation and presentation of discourses, and the organization and work of The Methodist Church. Required of freshmen who are considering full-time Christian service in the church. One period.

THE COLLEGE

Brevard College is a co-educational two-year liberal arts college which is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The college exists for the purpose of providing an academic program primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors in four-year colleges.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SUMMER SESSION

Within the framework of the purpose of the college as stated in the regular catalog, the summer session seeks to meet our objectives as follows:

1. To provide the opportunity for regularly enrolled students at the college to broaden their studies or to accelerate their programs;
2. To enable fully-qualified new students to begin their work in June rather than September;
3. To make it possible for regularly-enrolled Brevard College students to make up deficiencies at full credit;
4. To offer to transient students in good standing the opportunity to take work creditable toward a degree elsewhere.

ACCREDITATION

Brevard College is fully-accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and by the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities.

ADMISSIONS

Admission to the summer session is on the same basis as admission to any other session of the college. The requirements for admission are stated in the regular catalog.

All persons in attendance at the summer session must complete the appropriate sections of the application form in the back of this bulletin. In addition, all new freshmen who expect to continue their work at Brevard College must apply for admission through the office of the director of admissions.

Transient students are not required to apply for admission to the college. They should complete the bottom portion of the Summer School Application and have the statement of good standing signed by their dean or registrar.

Former students at Brevard College who wish to be reinstated in the summer session must apply in the way outlined in the regular college catalog.

TUITION AND FEES

Tuition and fees for the summer session, payable on registration day for each term, are as follows:

| | Per Term | Both Terms |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| Tuition | $120.00 | $240.00 |
| Registration | 5.00 | 10.00 |
| Health Services | 5.00 | 10.00 |
| Library | 3.00 | 6.00 |
| Activities | 2.00 | 4.00 |
| Total for Day Students | <hr/> $135.00 | <hr/> $270.00 |
| Room | 30.00 | 60.00 |
| Board | 70.00 | 140.00 |
| Total for Resident Students | <hr/> $235.00 | <hr/> $470.00 |

A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is due with the summer school application and is deducted from the fees due at registration.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Regular members of the college faculty and staff make up the faculty and staff of the summer session. Faculty advisors are available and the offices of the college maintain regular hours. Health and recreational services are provided.

CULTURAL RESOURCES

Brevard College is located near a number of cultural resources which operate during the summer. The famed Brevard Music Camp is located less than two miles from the campus. Several summer theaters are within easy driving distance of the college, including the State Theater of North Carolina at Flat Rock. The college will sponsor trips to several events during the summer.

REGULATIONS

Unless otherwise noted in this bulletin or by announcement, the regulations contained in the regular catalog and student handbook apply to the summer session.

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

The maximum load is seven semester hours per term. Classes meet for ninety minutes daily, Monday through Friday, and on two Saturdays each term. Final examinations are given during the last class period.

An Invitation

The best way to determine whether a college meets your needs is to visit the campus, spend the night in one of its dormitories, meet several of its students and faculty members, and talk with its admissions personnel. To make arrangements for a visit, write:

CHARLES C. CORT
Director of Admissions
Brevard College
Brevard, North Carolina 28712

From the President

This may be the first college catalog or it may be one of many you have examined. Do you know what you are looking for? Have you made a list of requirements for the college you would like to attend? If this catalog helps you in making one of the most important decisions of your life, it will have served its purpose.

Take a good look at us.

Brevard, as is the case with any institution, is not the college for all students. But it may be just the right place for you. Check it against your list of requirements. If you decide that you would like to live and study at Brevard College for the next two years, let us hear from you. An application form is attached to the catalog.

We have 650 students from many sections of the country. Ninety-two per cent of the graduates in our university parallel curriculum transfer each year to four-year colleges and universities. Brevard's graduates are, not only accepted by four-year institutions, but actively recruited by them.

Brevard is a church-related college. Its concern for moral and spiritual values makes it a good place to begin an enriching experience in answering the questions: "Who am I?" and "What can I do?"

Emmett K. McLarty, Jr.

The above message was written by President McLarty shortly before his death on May 23, 1968.

A Quality Education...

BREVARD COLLEGE offers a quality education to all its students. A quality education is built on a sound purpose, program and physical facilities. The following pages of this catalog are designed to enable the prospective student and his family to understand the many advantages of two years on the Brevard campus.

Purpose

With first emphasis on intellectual discipline, Brevard College exists for the purpose of providing a two-year academic program, primarily designed and administered for qualified freshmen and sophomores, enabling them to continue more effectively their studies as juniors in four-year colleges.

Committed to Christian concepts, Brevard College is dedicated to a way of life that instills within the student a greater desire to become a more responsible and creative member of society.

Sponsorship

Brevard College is owned by and operated under the auspices of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Location

Situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Brevard College lies in a beautiful valley at the entrance to the Pisgah National Forest, one of the most scenic areas in the eastern United States. Readily accessible from the interstate highway system and two major airports, the College is located 30 miles southwest of Asheville, N. C. and 45 miles north of Greenville, S. C.

History

Brevard College traces its ancestry to 1853 when a young Methodist minister, Robert L. Abernathy, began Rutherford College to serve the needs of the young people of western North Carolina. Rutherford College was merged with two other institutions, Weaver College and Brevard Institute, to form Brevard College.

Weaver College was established in 1872 under the presidency of James A. Regan, and became a Methodist-affiliated institution in 1883. Brevard Institute was founded in 1895 by the Rev. and Mrs. Fitch Taylor as a pioneering venture in education among mountain youth.

Rutherford and Weaver Colleges were merged by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in 1934 on the site of Brevard Institute to form Brevard College.

Proud of her past service, Brevard College is ever mindful of the challenges of education in the twentieth century.

Counseling Services

Brevard College believes the basic concern of education must be with the individual and emphasizes the personal relationship by giving attention to the needs and progress of each student.

Every student has a faculty advisor on whom he may call at any time for advice and information. Most academic problems may be solved in this manner. The Dean of the College and the Associate Registrar are available for consultation when additional help is needed.

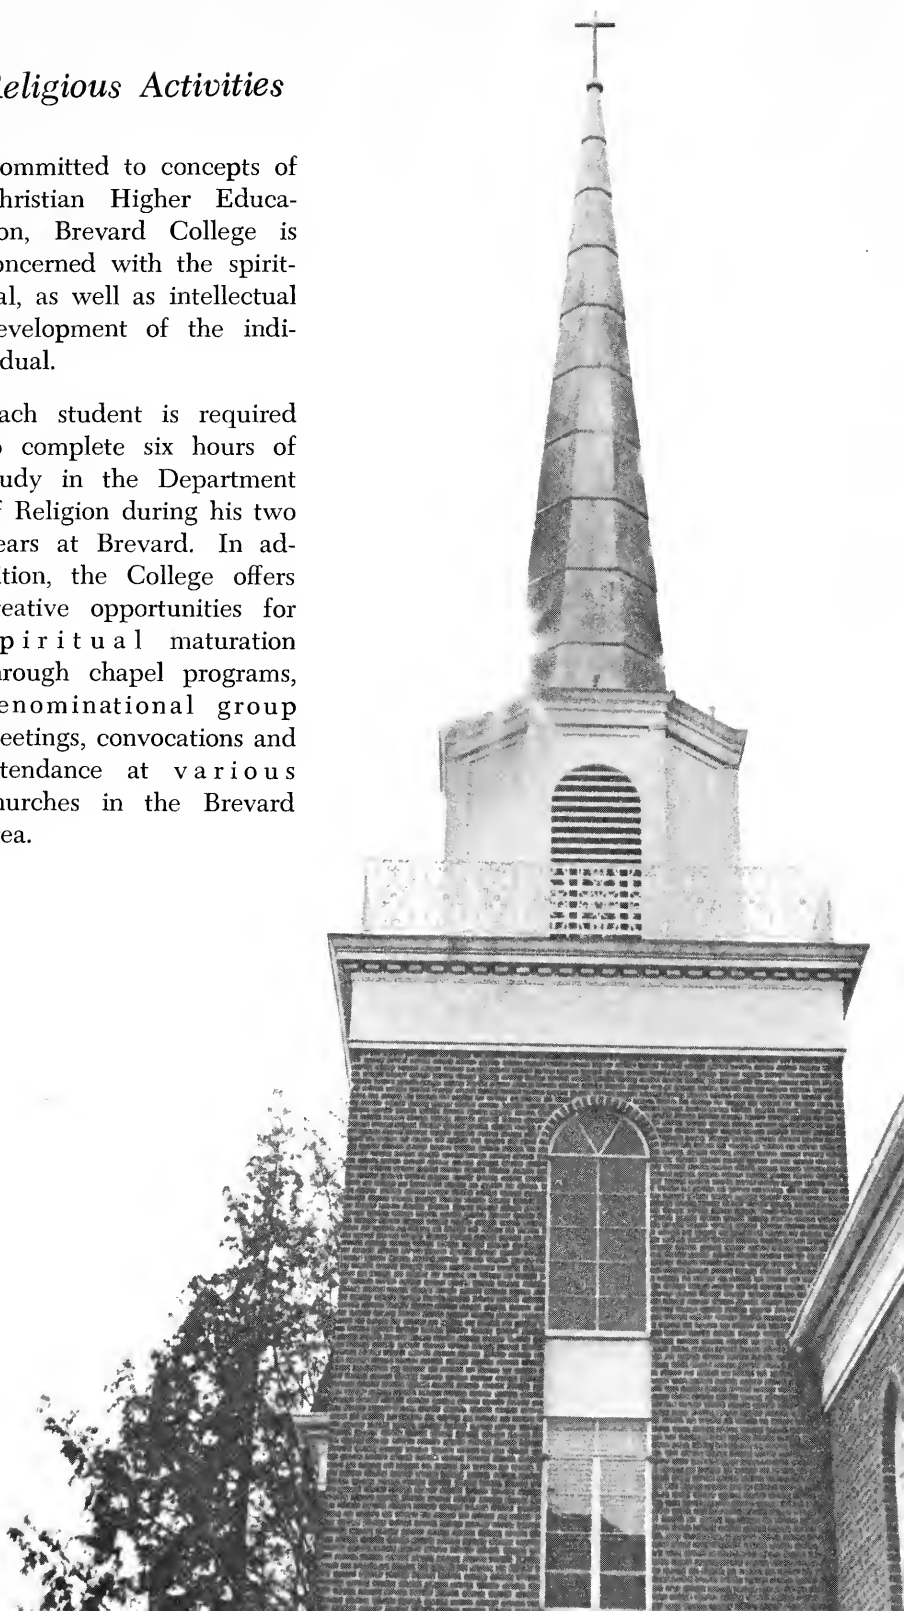

Financial problems and problems of a personal nature are referred to the Dean of Men, Dean of Women, Dean of Students, Student Financial Aid Administrator or the Chaplain.

The College also employs a trained and experienced Guidance Counselor to help the student solve personal, academic and vocational problems through a sound program of testing and guidance.

Religious Activities

Committed to concepts of Christian Higher Education, Brevard College is concerned with the spiritual, as well as intellectual development of the individual.

Each student is required to complete six hours of study in the Department of Religion during his two years at Brevard. In addition, the College offers creative opportunities for spiritual maturation through chapel programs, denominational group meetings, convocations and attendance at various churches in the Brevard area.

Physical Facilities

Proper physical facilities are most important to any college. An instructional program cannot achieve the desired level of quality unless the physical plant is adequate to meet its demands.

Brevard College embarked in 1960 on an ambitious building program which has succeeded in providing the necessary facilities to conduct a program of quality education.

Campus buildings are of neo-Georgian architecture, and the development of an overall campus plan ensures the proper blending of functional and beautiful buildings.

Beam Administration Building

The administration building contains the offices of the President, Dean of the College, Business Manager, Student Personnel Deans, Associate Registrar, Director of Admissions and the Director of Public Relations.

Dunham Fine Arts Center

Housing the music and art departments of the College, the Dunham Fine Arts Center contains classrooms, studios, faculty offices and an auditorium.

Boshamer Gymnasium

Erected in 1962, the gymnasium is the center for the College's program of health and physical education. With a seating capacity of 1200 spectators for basketball, the building also features an Olympic-size swimming pool. The Flake Sherrill Athletic Fields contain space for intramurals, an all-weather track, tennis courts, plus baseball, archery and soccer fields.

Bryan Moore Science Building

The first building to be completed in the College's present expansion program, the science building houses the biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics departments of the College. Laboratories feature the latest in modern equipment.

James Addison Jones Library

The air-conditioned library facility was occupied in September, 1967. It features a seating capacity of 200 and contains shelving for 35,000 volumes, a seminar room, reading rooms, individual study carrels and a music listening table.

Lena Sue Beam Hall

A coeducational dormitory, Beam Hall contains two wings separated by common rooms and a beautiful lobby. The rooms contain studio lounges, built-in dressers, study desks and chairs. Each two-room suite is provided with a connecting bath.

Taylor Hall

A campus landmark, this residence hall for men houses 107 students. Located on the north end of the campus, Taylor Hall is one of the College's most photogenic buildings.

Annabel Jones Hall

A residence hall for women, Jones Hall houses 180 students. Dormitory rooms are furnished with twin beds, two dressers, study desks and chairs. A spacious parlor is provided for young ladies to entertain their guests.

Stamey Memorial Infirmary

Located in the center of the campus, the infirmary is staffed with a registered nurse at all times. Space is provided for fourteen beds with isolation wards for both men and women. College nurses work closely with local doctors in cases requiring more extensive medical attention.

Campus Development

A. G. Myers Dining Hall

Slated for occupancy in the fall of 1968, the new dining hall will feature the latest in modern food-service planning. In addition to student and faculty dining halls, there will be several smaller dining rooms for group meetings.

Goodson Educational Building

This classroom facility will complete the educational-administrative quadrangle. It will border the Beam Administration Building and face the Bryan Moore Science Building. It is expected to be completed in 1969 and will replace the present classroom building.

Sims Student Union

With the completion of the new library, the existing library building will be renovated and doubled in size to form a student union. The union will contain a lounge, student store and post office, a stereo room, pocket billiards equipment, student government offices, television viewing room, grill and a parlor for the use of parents and alumni.

The College Community

Student Government

By enrolling in the College, each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association, entitled to the privileges and bound by the responsibilities of its constitution, by-laws and stated standards. The Student Handbook, official publication of the Association, is sent to each student prior to the beginning of the academic year.

The Student Council, consisting of ten students and three faculty members, represents the Student Government Association and has full judicial power to enforce its constitution and by-laws. All student organizations are responsible to the Student Council.

Student Health

Brevard College requires that entering students present a physician's report certifying freedom from communicable diseases and noting any necessary restrictions to be placed upon physical activity. Failure by a student to note a history of serious illness, accidents, or chronic disorders will result in disciplinary action. Students receive the form for making this report during the summer. The College expects entering students to have, in addition to the usual vaccinations given during public school years, immunization against poliomyelitis and influenza. Brevard College observes precautions regarding health and physical welfare in all areas of College life, and provides infirmary services for casual illness or for convalescence.

Health and accident insurance is made available by the College at a reasonable cost and is required of all students. A booklet describing cost and details of coverage is furnished each student accepted for admission.

In emergency cases requiring special medical attention or surgery, the Dean of Students serves in loco parentis.

Cultural Life

Throughout the academic year a number of programs and special events offer opportunities for all members of the College community to broaden their interest and appreciation in art, drama, music and other areas of the fine arts.

Friday at Four

One of the most stimulating intellectual and cultural experiences of the campus is offered to all members of the College community in a series of programs known as Friday at Four. Sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa society, the series presents guest lecturers and faculty members who speak or lead discussions on subjects in the humanities and related fields. Attendance is voluntary.

Lyceum and Film Series

Four lyceum programs are scheduled each year. These include lectures, dramatic productions and musical presentations. Each year a minimum of eight films is presented. The films are of consistent high quality and are open to the college community without charge.

General Regulations

Standards of Conduct

Brevard College expects all students to assume personal responsibility in the maintenance of standards of behavior and in all areas of college life. Students are expected to display by their attitude and conduct the willingness to accept and cooperate with the College in observing its policies.

Drinking, gambling, cheating and immoral conduct are forbidden. Honesty in academic matters and each student's personal life must prevail. Any deviation is subject to action by the Student Council and officers of the College.

Student protests and demonstrations are condoned only if their causes are worthy, if they are conducted in an orderly manner, and provided they do not interfere with the normal academic function and religious nature of the College.

Use of Automobiles

Possession and operation of an automobile are subject to College regulation. No freshman boarding student will be given a permit to keep an automobile during his first semester. Details regarding automobile regulations may be found in the Student Handbook.

Chapel, Assembly and Lyceum Programs

Attendance is required of all students, as the College believes these programs make an important contribution to the educational experience.

Student Responsibility

Each student is responsible for the care of his room. Loss or damage to rooms, furniture, or College property will be charged to the student or students responsible. Any student who changes rooms, moves or exchanges furniture without the permission of dormitory supervisors will be subject to a fee of $5.00 and disciplinary action.

Student Organizations

Dramatics

THE MASQUERS, a dramatics club, and members of the play production class assume responsibility for dramatic presentations. Major productions include one full-length play and a program of one-act plays each year.

Religious Organizations

THE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL comprises the officers of the religious organizations on campus, and coordinates the efforts of these groups to problems pertaining to the religious life of the student. The Council works to develop a pervasive Christian spirit on the campus.

KAPPA CHI is a religious group composed of young men and women who plan to enter Christian service on a professional basis. Kappa Chi encourages students to enter Christian service by informing them about the challenges and opportunities for such service and guiding them in training and preparation for their task.

DENOMINATIONAL GROUPS seek to develop comradeship among students of the several denominations through an emphasis upon their character and meaning, and to interpret their denomination for the understanding and appreciation of others. These groups offer assistance in the development of lay and professional leadership for their respective denominations. The major active denominational groups on campus are Methodist Student Fellowship, Baptist Student Union, Canterbury Club, Westminster Fellowship and Newman Club.

Honor Societies

PHI THETA KAPPA is a national honor fraternity whose purpose is to promote scholarship, develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among students of both sexes in junior colleges. In order to become a member, a student must maintain at least a B average; carry at least 15 hours, 12 of which must be in the arts and sciences; be of high moral character; and rank scholastically in the top 10 per cent of the student body.

ALPHA BETA GAMMA is a national honorary science fraternity for junior colleges. Admission is based on character, citizenship, interest in the sciences and a B average.

Special Interest Groups

THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB develops an interest in world affairs with an emphasis on discussions and debates.

THE DAY STUDENTS' CLUB arranges for day student sharing in the privileges and responsibilities of College life. Through social programs, such as the informal Christmas dance, bonds are formed between commuting and resident students. While membership in the club is voluntary, local students contribute significantly to life on the Brevard College campus. The administration of the College reserves the right to require special organizational assemblies for all non-resident students when the need arises.

THE MOUNTAINEERS explore the scenic beauty surrounding Brevard College by arranging hikes and trips during the fall and spring season.

THE EUTERPEAN, CLIOSOPHIC, MNEMOSYNEAN AND DELPHIAN societies are in their respective pairings brother and sister social organizations. These social clubs were originally literary, dramatic and debating clubs. As earlier functions were taken over by other organizations, the societies evolved into social organizations which sponsor various activities on the campus.

BIG SISTERS is an organization of sophomore women students selected by the faculty each spring to welcome the incoming freshmen women. In addition, they help new students adjust to the campus routine and are available for consultation in an advisory capacity.

THE BUSINESS CLUB is composed of students planning a career in business. The club discusses subjects of mutual interest, engages speakers and explores challenges in the various areas of commerce.

THE SPANISH-AMERICAN CLUB helps to promote understanding of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking nations.

THE FOLKLORE CLUB is organized to promote interest in collecting, preserving and performing traditional folklore. Meetings include performances and discussions of the several areas of folklore as well as visits to folk festivals and singing conventions in the vicinity of the College. Periodic guest speakers are brought to the campus.

THE GUN CLUB is made up of those men and women students professing an interest in the proper use of firearms. Students are instructed in the use of firearms, the observation of all safety precautions and, from time to time, the club advisor will conduct members to one of the local firing ranges and on other appropriate outings.

THE MONOGRAM CLUB is a campus organization which honors those men who have lettered in varsity sports.

Musical Organizations

INSTRUMENTAL ENSEMBLES include the Wind Ensemble, Brass Quintet and Woodwind Octet composed of students and selected faculty members. Opportunity for participation is made available to all students.

THE GLEE CLUB, composed of fifty students, has established itself as a major public relations enterprise for the College, touring from New York to Florida.

THE CHAPEL CHOIR furnishes music for weekly chapel services at the College and, upon occasion, for churches in the area.

THE MADRIGAL SINGERS is a select group of sixteen vocalists which tours throughout the area, giving concerts to church, school and civic groups.

Students may share in these organizations on a voluntary basis or for College credit.

Student Publications

THE PERTELOTE is the College yearbook. The editorial staff, headed by appointed students, raises funds, takes and edits pictures and checks details to produce an artistic record of the College year.

THE CLARION is the student newspaper. Published weekly, it carries College news and student and faculty opinion on various issues.

CONFETTI is a literary publication of poems, essays and short stories written by Brevard College students.

Recreation and Sports

Health and Physical Education

Brevard College offers theoretical and practical courses in health and physical education and arranges a comprehensive program of varsity and intramural sports.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The quality of the intercollegiate sports program at Brevard College has received national recognition. The College is a member of the Western Carolinas Junior College Athletic Conference and participates in basketball, baseball, track, cross country, golf, tennis and soccer. Boshamer Gymnasium will seat 1200 for basketball and contains an indoor swimming pool for the benefit of the student body.

Brevard's Tornado basketball squads have won three WCJCAC basketball championships since 1960 and twice have represented the region in the national junior college basketball championships. Its track and cross country squads have been among the top five in the nation for several years and in 1967 produced the national cross country champion.

Intramural Activities

Intramural sports and physical education classes include among their offerings basketball, touch football, softball, archery, bowling, swimming, field hockey, ping pong, volleyball, badminton and a variety of other activities.

Admission Procedures...

General Requirements

Admission to Brevard College is dependent upon the ability, preparation, character and purpose of the student applicant. Prospective students must show evidence that they can acclimate themselves to the rigorous academic work at the College.

Student applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school with an average of at least C in their college preparatory courses. The student's rank in class and scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board are given equal consideration with high school grades. Assessment is made of each application to determine the academic maturity of the student applicant. The student's past academic record of achievement is considered in conjunction with his indicated ability as measured by the SAT and other recognized aptitude tests.

Specific Requirements

Regular Students

FORMAL APPLICATION — An official application form must be completed. It is to the student's benefit that this be done in the fall or winter of his senior year. Qualified students are accepted as soon as they complete their application. Vacancies are filled accordingly.

APPLICATION FEE — An application fee of $15.00 must be submitted with each application. It is not refundable.

CHARACTER REFERENCES — Three character references are required with each application. Preferably these references should come from an English teacher, another instructor and any other reputable person who can write reliably in behalf of the applicant.

OFFICIAL HIGH SCHOOL TRANSCRIPT — Candidates for admission are required to have a transcript forwarded directly from their high school containing records of all attempted academic work. A rank in class is required for all student applicants. If this is not available, a reasonable estimate of a candidate's class rank will suffice.

ADMISSION DEPOSIT — A room reservation fee of $60.00 is due immediately upon notification of acceptance as a resident student. This fee assures the applicant's enrollment and placement for registration. It is not refundable.

Special Students

Students who are twenty-one years of age or older and who are residents of the immediate area may be considered for a part-time academic work load. These students will receive credit for courses taken and passed.

Residents of the immediate area who wish to take courses without transferring them to another institution may enroll in courses with all credits earned being recorded, but not transferred.

Students may be admitted without college credit to courses in applied music, art and vocational subjects upon recommendation of the Dean of the College.

Transfer Students

Students who have completed more than forty semester hours of work at an accredited college are ineligible for transfer to Brevard College.

Students transferring to Brevard from other colleges must meet the following requirements:

1. The cumulative grade point average must be at or above the average required for retention at Brevard College.
2. The student must be able to return to the college from which he is transferring.
3. The transfer student's high school qualifications must be acceptable according to the policies used in normal admission procedures.

Credits earned at accredited colleges will be evaluated and recorded on transfer students' records. Credit toward graduation from Brevard College will be allowed for work done in courses similar to those offered at Brevard College provided the grade received is at least a C where the passing grade is D. (See section on Academic Requirements for a statement on residence requirements for graduation from Brevard College.)

Admission to Summer Session

In order to be considered as a candidate for the summer session, a new student must have applied and have been accepted for the following fall semester.

Financial Information...

Student Expenses

No Brevard College student pays the entire cost of his education. However, student fees are the most important part of the College's financial structure. While it is not planned to increase or decrease the fees listed in this catalog, the Board of Trustees reserves the right to make necessary adjustments in fees at any time.

Financial Regulations

No deduction is made in any department for late entrance to classes except private music lessons. Every student, by act of registration, creates a liability for that payment period. A parent or guardian, by entering a student, accepts the terms and regulations outlined in the catalog as final and binding upon him.

No student will be allowed to register or attend classes or to begin private music lessons until all financial affairs have been arranged with the business office.

When a student has been granted financial assistance, that sum is not normally applicable to the payment at registration, but is credited at the time of the second payment. This also applies to students receiving aid through work scholarships since credit is earned as the student performs his work scholarship duties.

Brevard's operation is based upon payment of fees at the time stated. Persons desiring to spread the payment of fees on a more equal basis might consider financing the year's expenses through The Tuition Plan, Inc. or other similar plans. Material on The Tuition Plan, Inc. will be sent in advance of the date of the first payment.

Should a student find it necessary to leave the College before the end of a semester, he must notify the Dean of the College, the Business Manager and the Librarian before an honorable dismissal is granted, or transcripts of his records will not be furnished.

If a student withdraws, he is responsible for payment of fees up to, but not beyond, the given payment period.

Financial Aid

Brevard College will do all within its resources to encourage able students to obtain an education. Since the student is the one who gains the many benefits of higher education, he should assume at least part of the responsibility for paying his college expenses.

All financial assistance is under the control of the Student Aid Committee. Students desiring financial assistance are required to submit a Parent's Confidential Statement. The form may be secured from high school guidance directors or principals, or may be ordered directly from The College Scholarship Service, Box 176, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

The Student Aid Committee follows clearly defined rules in its awards. These rules have been established by the College or by donors to the College.

1. Financial aid is made available on the basis of need, ability and character.
2. Applicants must be admitted in regular standing.
3. Assistance may be withdrawn at any time should the student fail to maintain a good scholastic record, show satisfactory cooperation with the best interests of the College community, or be placed under College discipline.
4. Renewal of all scholarship aid is subject to review by the committee and is dependent on continued need, good conduct, satisfactory grades and availability of funds.

Scholarship Funds

The scholarship program at Brevard College is maintained through the contributions of many friends of the College. Among these sources of aid are the following endowment funds and annual contributors:

E. K. McLARTY, JR. MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. Established in 1968 to honor the memory of Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, Jr., beloved President of Brevard College from 1957 until his death on May 23, 1968.

Academic Requirements...

GOVERNMENT BY THE PEOPLE

Brevard College students are expected to maintain a high level of scholarly performance and intellectual honesty, and to show a willingness to do more than the minimum required in each academic area. The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose scholarship is unsatisfactory or who, for any other reason, fails to uphold the standards and ideals of the College.

Academic Probation

The purpose of academic probation is to warn the student that his academic performance is unsatisfactory and to assist him in improving the quality of his work.

Any regular student is placed on academic probation at the end of any eight-week grading period during which he fails to pass at least nine semester hours with a minimum of eighteen quality points. Unless the minimum standard is reached after one grading period on academic probation, the student is subject to academic suspension.

Academic Suspension

A student suspended for academic reasons is required to be absent from the College for at least one semester. At the discretion of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee, the absence may be for a longer period of time.

Any regular student is subject to academic suspension when his cumulative quality point average* falls below the minimum acceptable standards listed below.

| Semesters Enrolled | Minimum Average |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------|
| One | 1.20 |
| Two | 1.50 |
| Three | 1.75 |
| Four or more | Reasonable chance to graduate |

*The quality point system is explained in the section below titled Quality Points.

Auditing Courses

With the approval of the instructor involved and the Dean of the College, a student may register to audit a course. Class attendance requirements apply, but examinations are not required.

Courses audited count as a part of the student's load, but no credit is received.

Regular College fees are charged for auditing.

Change of Course

With the consent of the instructors involved and the permission of the Dean of the College or the Associate Registrar, course changes may be made as described below:

1. Courses may be added during the first seven calendar days of the College session.
2. Courses may be dropped within ten days following registration day with no penalty or up to three weeks prior to the beginning of final examinations with a grade of WP or WF as determined by the instructor. A grade of F or I will be assigned in courses dropped officially in the three-week period prior to final examinations.
3. Courses dropped without permission are recorded as F.

Class Attendance

All students are expected to be regular in attendance at all of their classes and laboratories. Any absences must be cleared with the Dean of Students under the conditions outlined in the Student Handbook.

No credit is allowed in any class in which the student is absent more than twenty per cent of the class meetings.

Classification of Students

A regular student who has passed at least thirty semester hours of work and has a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.0

is classified as a sophomore. All other regular students are classified as freshmen.

Special students are defined in the section on Admission Procedures.

College Level Examinations

All fourth-semester regular students are required to take the five General Examinations of the College Level Examinations on a date announced.

Correspondence Credit

The College will accept up to six semester hours of correspondence credit provided prior arrangements are made with the Dean of the College and the appropriate Division Chairman.

Courses Repeated

If a course is repeated, all hours attempted are counted in computing the cumulative quality point average.

Course Load

The normal course load is 17 or 18 semester hours. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The maximum load without special permission is 19 semester hours. A fee is charged for hours in excess of 19*.

Non-credit and audited courses count as part of the course load.

*See section on Financial Information.

Degrees Offered

The College awards the degrees of Associate in Arts and the Junior College Diploma to those who fulfill the requirements. (See Graduation Requirements.)

Examinations

Each student must obtain a statement from the Bursar that all of his accounts are clear before he is admitted to final examinations each semester. Absences from final examinations are excused only for the most urgent reasons. Make-up examinations (see Special Charges) must be arranged by the student.

Final Work for Graduation

Up to ten semester hours of the final work for graduation may be transferred from another college or university.

Grading System

A grading period consists of half a semester, approximately eight weeks. Instructors report grades to the Associate Registrar at the end of each of these periods. A report is sent to parents or guardians at the end of all grading periods.

An explanation of the grading system at Brevard College appears below:

| | | | |
|---|-----------|----|-------------------|
| A | Excellent | I | Incomplete |
| B | Superior | W | Withdrawn |
| C | Average | WP | Withdrawn Passing |
| D | Passing | WF | Withdrawn Failing |
| F | Failing | | |

Grades of I are recorded as F unless they are completed by the end of the semester following the receipt of the I.

Graduation in absentia

Participation in the commencement exercises is required for graduation. This requirement may be waived by the Dean of the College in cases of extreme hardship, provided application has been made in writing at least three weeks prior to commencement.

Graduation Requirements

To be eligible for graduation from Brevard College, a student must enroll as a regular student (see Admission Procedures) and must meet all of the requirements listed below.

Final responsibility for meeting graduation requirements rests with the student.

1. RESIDENCE — A student must be in residence for at least two semesters, and must complete at Brevard College at least twenty-five semester hours with a C average on all college work attempted.
2. QUALITY POINT AVERAGE — Candidates for graduation must have earned quality points at least equal to the number of all semester hours of college work they have attempted.
3. GRADUATION ATTENDANCE — Attendance at commencement exercises is required unless the candidate has been excused as described above.
4. HOURS OF CREDIT — Candidates for graduation must have earned credit for at least 66 semester hours of work distributed as follows:

| For Associate of Arts Degree | For Junior College Diploma |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| English 11, 12, 21, 22.....12° | English 11, 12, 21, 22.....12° |

| Total66 | |

*For exceptions see curricula for Agriculture, Engineering, Mathematics and Secretarial Science.

Honors

Recognition on the Dean's List or Honor Roll is accorded to those students who meet the criteria during a given grading period. To be eligible a student must be enrolled as a full-time regular student and receive no grade below C on any course for the grading period.

A quality point average of at least 3.50 is required for eligibility on the Dean's List and at least 3.00 for eligibility on the Honor Roll for each grading period. Repeat courses are not included in the computation.

Graduation honors of cum laude, magna cum laude or summa cum laude are specified on the degree or diploma of any graduate who earns a cumulative quality point average of at least 3.00, 3.50 or 4.00 respectively, with no grades below C on his College record.

Prescribed Courses

All regular students are required to take courses moving toward graduation. Prescribed courses take precedence over electives in arranging each student's schedule.

Quality Point System

Quality points are awarded for credit courses on which the student receives a grade of D or higher. For each semester hour of credit involved, the student receives quality points as follows:

| Grade | Quality Points |
|--------------|-----------------------|
| A | 4 |
| B | 3 |
| C | 2 |
| D | 1 |
| F | 0 |

Readmission Procedure

Students who have been suspended from the College for academic reasons must remain out of the College for at least one semester.

Students dropped for emotional reasons should not apply for re-instatement for at least one year.

Application for readmission must be made in writing to the Dean of the College by May 1 preceding a fall semester readmission and by December 1 preceding a spring semester readmission. Readmission is by vote of the Academic Standards and Readmissions Committee after a careful consideration of all factors involved.

Registration

To avoid a late fee and delay in starting the work of the semester, students must be present on the day announced for registration. No student will be registered later than six days following registration day.

Each student should consult his faculty advisor in arranging a course of study each semester and must have his approval before registering.

Student Handbook

Each year the College publishes the official Student Handbook under the direction of the Dean of Students. Every student must acquaint himself with the material contained in the handbook.

Summer Course Elsewhere

Students may attend summer school elsewhere and transfer credits to Brevard College with prior approval of the Dean of the College. In general, permission will not be granted for required courses which are available to the student at Brevard.

Grades earned elsewhere in summer school will be recorded at their face value, but will count no higher than C in computing the cumulative quality point average.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts must come from the student and should be addressed to the Associate Registrar. The first transcript is issued without charge. All remaining requests for transcripts require a fee of one dollar.

Withdrawal from College

A minor student must have the written permission of his parents or guardian before he will be allowed to withdraw from the College.

Unofficial withdrawal from the College will result in disciplinary action.

Courses of Instruction...

Curricula — Group I

The curriculum patterns outlined on the following pages are designed for students planning to complete four years of college or university study.

The patterns of curricula that follow have been devised to offer the best possible preparation for the pre-professional areas listed at the heading of each group of courses. The courses listed are those which are most readily acceptable for transfer to colleges and universities offering advanced work in the areas listed.

Students planning to transfer to a specific college should consult the catalog of that institution. Within the framework of graduation requirements established by Brevard College, adjustments will be made to meet the demands of colleges to which students plan to transfer.

Each group of courses, with the exception of the music curriculum, leads to the Associate in Arts degree.

Agriculture

The curriculum outlined below applies to studies in the field of agriculture and related areas.

Forestry

The academic-forestry curriculum outlined below is offered in co-operation with the School of Forestry and Trinity College of Duke University at Durham, North Carolina. Admission to this program is selective and admission to Brevard College does not guarantee admission to the academic-forestry curriculum at Duke University.

Students admitted to this program spend two years at Brevard College followed by one year in Trinity College. Trinity College certifies the student to the School of Forestry and awards the Bachelor of Science degree after one summer and one year in the School of Forestry, if requirements are met. Requirements for the Master of Forestry degree may be met after one additional year in the School of Forestry.

During the two-year part of the program at Brevard College the student is offered appropriate forestry experiences through the cooperation of the United States Forest Service in the Pisgah National Forest, located near the campus. Students admitted to this program receive top priority in summer employment opportunities with the Forest Service.

Academic Divisions and Courses of Instruction

Divisions

The courses of instruction in Brevard College are grouped into five divisions which encompass the areas listed below:

DIVISION OF FINE ARTS — Art, Drama, Music

DIVISION OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION —
Health, Physical Education

DIVISION OF LANGUAGES — English, French, German, Spanish

DIVISION OF MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL SCIENCES — Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics

DIVISION OF SOCIAL STUDIES AND RELIGION — Business, Economics, Government, History, Psychology and Education, Religion, Sociology

Credit Defined

All credit hours are stated in terms of semester hours. Unless otherwise indicated, the number of class periods per week is equal to the number of credit hours.

Some of the course offerings which follow are designated as awarding provisional credit. Such courses are acceptable as credit toward graduation at Brevard College, but vary in their transfer acceptance at senior colleges and universities.

Course Numbers

Course numbers which are separated by a hyphen are year courses and must be completed in full before credit is allowable on either semester.

Course numbers beginning with a zero carry no college credit. Special information concerning transfer credit in music is contained in the section on applied music.

Art

11 ART HISTORY

Historical survey of representative artists, architecture, sculpture, painting and decorative art from Stone Age through Byzantine art. Required of all art majors. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 ART HISTORY

Renaissance art to present. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

13 CERAMIC SCULPTURE

Designing, modeling and glazing ceramic plaques, heads, figures, groups. Three 2-hour periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

14 CERAMIC SCULPTURE

Continuation of Art 13. Three 2-hour periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

15 DESIGN

Basic elements and principles of design. Three 2-hour periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

16 DESIGN

Continuation of Art 15. Three 2-hour periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

17 PAINTING

Sketching and painting in casein techniques, studies in landscape, still life and portrait. Required of all freshmen art majors. Three 2-hour periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

18 PAINTING

19 PAINTING

Prerequisite: Art 18 or equivalent. Oil technique, picture composition, modern problems and approaches. Required of all sophomore art majors. Two 3-hour periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

20 PAINTING

Continuation of Art 19 with work in water color. Two 3-hour periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

21 ART APPRECIATION

A sensible approach to art in daily use. Man's images from prehistoric to contemporary man. Not open to art majors. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

22 ART METHODS FOR CHILDREN

Problems and methods of teaching art to children. Projects for elementary level classes. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Drama

14I STRING ENSEMBLE

Membership through competitive tryouts. Two 1-hour rehearsals a week. Fall, Spring, ½ Semester Hour.

15I WOODWIND ENSEMBLE

year are based upon individual qualifications of the music faculty for that year. The anticipated faculty for 1968-69 will offer major or minor applied music credit leading toward a performance degree program in piano, organ, voice, trumpet, clarinet, flute, oboe and bassoon. For degree programs not demanding a performance degree (e. g. A. B., B.M.Ed., etc.) major or minor applied credit will be offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard brass and woodwind instruments and classical guitar. Minor applied credit for a non-performance degree program will also be offered in stringed instruments.

Regular college credit is offered the music major or any student who elects to take one of the major theory courses in conjunction with his private lessons. This credit is transferable to senior colleges and conservatories. Any college student may elect to take private instruction in any area of music and will receive terminal credit for his work. It will count toward graduation from Brevard College, but will not usually transfer to any senior institution. In addition, the music department offers non-credit instruction as time allows to residents of the immediate area.

The amount of credit received is based upon the number of lessons taken per week. For each one-half hour lesson given, the student receives one semester hour of credit. In addition, the student must practice a minimum of five hours per week for each one-half hour lesson.

01 PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

No college credit.

11a 12a, 21a, 22a PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

College terminal credit. Open to any college student.

Applied Music

Private instruction is offered in piano, organ, voice, all standard band and orchestral instruments and classical guitar. Major applied music areas offered in any particular academic

Mr. Burch, Miss Neal, Mr. Talley

Health

17 HEALTH

Required of all freshmen men and women. The elements of personal hygiene and public health. Fall,
Spring, 2 Semester Hours.

Physical Education

The College requires four semesters of physical education. Each semester of physical education is divided into two eight-week courses, with the exception of dancing, which lasts the entire semester. The two basic areas of activities are team sports for freshmen that also include fundamental activities, and swimming and individual sports open to sophomores only.

The medical examination, required for all incoming freshmen, should give the College Health Service an awareness of unusual physical handicaps which students may have. With the recommendation of the family doctor and College Health Service, a physical education program will be provided to meet the individual needs of each student.

An athletic ability test is given during the regular testing program of orientation and all students who do not make a satisfactory score are enrolled in the fundamental activities class until improvement indicates that they are ready for transfer to regular physical education class.

Beginning swimming is required of all freshmen who fail to pass a swimming test. Intermediate swimming, senior lifesaving and a water safety instructor's course are offered to students who qualify for these courses. Students are required to buy a physical education uniform at the College Store. Towels are furnished by the physical education department.

11, 12 FRESHMEN

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules and regulations, history and special emphasis on physical fitness.

Fundamental Activities (men and women) — Fall Semester

Restricted Activities (men and women) — Fall and Spring Semesters

Beginning Swimming (men or women) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks

Intermediate Swimming (men or women) — Spring Semester — first eight weeks

Basketball (men or women) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks

Field Hockey (women) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks

Soccer (men) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks

Softball (women) — Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Speed ball (women) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks; Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Touch Football (men) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks

Track and Field (men) — Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Volleyball (men or women) — Spring Semester — first eight weeks

21, 22 SOPHOMORES

Course Content: Fundamental skills, strategy, proper playing techniques, rules, regulations, and history.

Archery (men and women) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks; Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Badminton (men and women) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks; Spring Semester — first eight weeks

Bowling (men and women) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks; Spring Semester — first eight weeks

Golf (men and women) — Fall Semester — first eight weeks; Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Modern Dance (women) — Fall and Spring Semesters

Social Dance (men and women) — Fall and Spring Semesters

Swimming (Senior Life Saving) (men and women) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks; Spring Semester — first eight weeks

Tennis (men and women) — Fall Semester — First eight weeks; Spring Semester — second eight weeks

Tumbling, Elementary (men) — Fall

Semester — second eight weeks; Spring Semester — first eight weeks

Weight Lifting (men) — Fall Semester — second eight weeks; Spring Semester — first eight weeks

English

11 ENGLISH FUNDAMENTALS

Grammar, sentence structure, punctuation, and prose style, with guidance in types of reading and skill in exposition. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

12 ENGLISH COMPOSITION

Continuation of English 11 with emphasis upon research techniques and imaginative expression. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

13 ENGLISH—JOURNALISTIC COMPOSITION

English composition and journalistic writing offered in conjunction with publication of the school paper, The Clarion. Prerequisite: English 11 and approval of instructor. One period and additional meetings as required. Fall, Spring, 1 Semester Hour.

15 PUBLIC SPEAKING

Designed to develop the student's ability to deal effectively with speaking situations. Practice in choosing subjects, gathering and organizing materials. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

16 CREATIVE WRITING

The personal essay, the short story and contemporary poetry. Prerequisite: English 11. Spring, 1 Semester Hour.

21 ENGLISH LITERATURE

Survey of the literature of England from Anglo-Saxon beginnings through the eighteenth century. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

22 ENGLISH LITERATURE

A survey of the literature of England of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

26 AMERICAN LITERATURE

American literature with emphasis on major writers and trends from 1865 to the present. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Foreign Languages

A laboratory period is required of all students of foreign languages.

French

11-12 ELEMENTARY FRENCH

Fundamentals of French grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE FRENCH

Review of French grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: French 11-12 or two units of high school French. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

31-32 FRENCH LITERATURE

Survey of French literature from the Middle Ages to the present. Prerequisite: French 21-22. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

German

11-12 ELEMENTARY GERMAN

Fundamentals of German grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE GERMAN

Review of German grammar with increasing amount of reading and composition of original materials. Prerequisite: German 11-12 or two units of high school German. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

31-32 GERMAN LITERATURE

Survey of German Literature, including some of the great court epics, plays, readings from Faust, novelettes, poetry, and works of the great philosophers. Prerequisite German 21-22. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

Spanish

11-12 ELEMENTARY SPANISH

Fundamentals of Spanish grammar. Three periods with additional meetings as required. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

21-22 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH

Review of Spanish grammar with increasing amount of reading. Prerequisite: Spanish 11-12 or two units of high school Spanish. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

31-32 SPANISH LITERATURE

Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and civilization of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: Spanish 21-22. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours Each.

Division of Mathematics and Natural Sciences

Dr. Robert L. Jeffers, Acting Chairman
Mr. Beard, Mr. Brewton, Dr. German, Mr. McDonald, Mrs. Potts,
Dr. Railsback, Mr. Shearouse, Miss Ting, Mr. Woodyard

Mathematics

Placement tests are given to all students intending to take math courses beyond Mathematics 13. Students who have an insufficient foundation in mathematics may have to enroll in Math 13, Math 14 or Math 17, depending on their test scores and academic requirements. Students transferring to four-year institutions from Brevard and who plan to major in areas requiring calculus may not receive credit from that institution for Math 13 or Math 14.

13 CONCEPTS OF MATHEMATICS I

Set theory, logic, real number system, elementary topics from arithmetic, geometry and algebra. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

14 CONCEPTS OF MATHEMATICS II

Continuation of Math 13. Further topics from algebra, introduction to trigonometry. Prerequisite: C or better in Math 13, or a satisfactory score on qualifying test, or permission of the instructor. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

15 ENGINEERING DRAWING

The use of drafting instruments, geometrical construction, freehand sketching orthographic projection, sectional drawing, isometric projection, shop procedure, dimensioning of shop drawings, and ink tracing. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

16 DESCRIPTIVE GEOMETRY

Drawing and dimensioning of fastenings, gears and cams, blueprinting, auxiliary projections, revolutions, true shapes and sizes of objects, development of surface, and graphical solutions of problems. Laboratory fee. Two 3-hour laboratory periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

17 INTRODUCTION TO MATHEMATICAL ANALYSIS

(Serves as preparation for Math 24.) Number systems, inequalities, equations and graphs, partial fractions, trigonometric functions, inverse trigonometric functions, trigonometric identities and equations, linear functions, elementary analytic geometry, mathematical induction, logarithmic and exponential functions, complex numbers. Prerequisite: C or above in Math 14 or a satisfactory score on qualifying test or permission of the instructor. Fall, 4 Hours.

24 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS I

Plane analytic geometry and conics, limits, continuity, derivatives, differentiation of algebraic functions and applications, applications of derivatives. Prerequisite: C or above in Math 17 or a satisfactory score on qualifying test or permission of the instructor. Fall, Spring, 4 Hours.

25 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS II

Antiderivatives, definite integral and applications, differentiation of transcendental functions, technique of integration, polar coordinates, parametric equations and vectors in the plane, improper integrals. Prerequisite: C or above in Math 24 or permission of the instructor. Fall, Spring, 4 Hours.

26 ANALYTIC GEOMETRY AND CALCULUS III

Analytic geometry in space, vectors in space, partial differential equations, multiple integrals, infinite series, differential equations. Prerequisite: C or above in Math 25 or permission of the instructor. Fall, Spring, 4 Hours.

27 ORDINARY DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS

Differential equations of first order and first degree and applications, linear differential equations of higher order and applications, special differential equations of the second order, differential equations of the first order and not of the first degree, solutions in series. Prerequisite: Math 26 or permission of the instructor. Spring, 3 Hours.

Biology

15 GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Incorporates the basic concepts of cell structure and functions, metabolism (autotrophic and heterotrophic), growth, reproduction, genetics, behavior, adaptation and taxonomy, using the simple forms of plants and animals as examples. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory. Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

16 ZOOLOGY

A taxonomic study of examples of the major phyla of the animal kingdom with emphasis on chordates, specifically mammals. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory. Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

17 BOTANY

A taxonomic study of the major groups of plants with emphasis on spermatophytes. Prerequisite: Biology 15. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory. Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

18 MARINE ECOLOGY

A three-week study of marine plants and animals in their natural habitats in the area of the Bahama Islands. Fee approximately $350 plus travel to and from West Palm Beach, Florida. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. Between Semesters and Summer, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

19 MICROBIOLOGY

A study of micro-organisms, particularly those that cause disease in man; standard laboratory procedures for study; types of bacteria, yeasts, molds, protozoa, and viruses; animal parasites which cause disease in man. Prerequisites: Biology 15 and Chemistry 11 or 13 and consent of the instructor. Offered upon demand. Three periods and one 3-hour laboratory. Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

Chemistry

11-12 GENERAL CHEMISTRY

Fundamental theories and laws, atomic and molecular structure, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, kinetics, thermodynamics, preparation and properties of elements and an introduction to organic chemistry. The laboratory in Chemistry 12 consists of semimicro - qualitative analysis and quantitative experiments. Prerequisite: eligible to enroll in Math 14 or permission of the instructor. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each.

13-14 PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY

Atomic and molecular structure and properties, physical states of matter, solutions, equilibria, thermodynamics, oxidation-reduction, electrochemistry, and kinetics. The laboratory in Chemistry 14 consists of semimicroqualitative and quantitative analysis. Prerequisites: High School Chemistry and eligible to enroll in Math 24. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Fall, Spring, 4 Semester Hours Each.

21 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Naming, preparation, reactions and uses of aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Prerequisite: Chemistry 11-12 or 13-14. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Fall, 4 Semester Hours.

22 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

Continuation of Chemistry 21. Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

Physics

11 GENERAL PHYSICS

Mechanics, heat and sound. Prerequisite: trigonometry. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Fall, 4 Semester Hours.

12 GENERAL PHYSICS

Continuation of Physics 11. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. One 3-hour laboratory. Spring, 4 Semester Hours.

21 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Mechanics, heat and sound. Required in the engineering curriculum and open to mathematics and science majors. Pre- or co-requisite: differential and integral calculus. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving. Fall, 5 Semester Hours.

22 ENGINEERING PHYSICS

Continuation of Physics 21. Electricity, magnetism, light and modern physics. Three periods. Two 2-hour periods for laboratory and problem solving. Spring, 5 Semester Hours.

Business Accounting

10 ACCOUNTING FOR SECRETARIES

The handling of cash and related records with simulated working conditions. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

11 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING

Record of single proprietorship, partnerships, and corporations, year-end adjustments, work sheet, and preparation of financial statements. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING

Continuation of Accounting 11. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

21 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING

Continuation of Accounting 12 with study of alternate methods and procedures, analysis of the balance sheet and matching expenses with revenue. Offered only upon demand. Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

22 COST ACCOUNTING

Methods of collection, classification and interpretation of cost data. Offered only upon demand. Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

Business Administration

10 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS

Economics of business, business management and control, personnel and labor relationships, finance and business risk, government and business, production and distribution. Fall, Spring, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

11 MATHEMATICS OF FINANCE

A study of basic mathematics as applied to business, including interest, discounts, depreciation, annuities, amortization, etc. Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

23 BUSINESS LAW

Business law and its administration, propriety, torts, contracts, agencies, employer and employee, negotiable instruments, insurance, carriers, partnerships and corporations. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

24 BUSINESS LAW

Continuation of Business Administration 23. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Secretarial Science

27 SECRETARIAL PRACTICE

Filing, communications, negotiable instruments, office dress, deportment, character and personality traits. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

28 OFFICE MACHINES

Operation of calculators, adding machines, bankposting machines, dictating and transcribing machines, and duplicators. Laboratory fee. Three periods. Fall, Spring, 2 Semester Hours.

29 BUSINESS CORRESPONDENCE

Business vocabulary and the essentials of business correspondence. Fall, Provisional Credit, 3 Semester Hours.

Shorthand

11 BEGINNING SHORTHAND

Shorthand theory, dictation and transcription. Five periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 BEGINNING SHORTHAND

Continuation of Shorthand 11. Eighty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

21 ADVANCED SHORTHAND

Increased dictation and transcription rate. One hundred words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

22 ADVANCED SHORTHAND

Sustained and rapid dictation. One hundred and twenty words a minute in dictation and the production of mailable transcripts required. Five periods. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Typewriting

11 BEGINNING TYPEWRITING

Mastery of the keyboard and fundamental techniques in manipulation of the typewriter. Preparation of articles, business letters, and simple tabulation. Laboratory fee. Five periods. Fall, 2½ Semester Hours.

12 INTERMEDIATE TYPEWRITING

Tabulation problems and business letters, speed and accuracy. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Five periods. Spring, 2½ Semester Hours.

21 ADVANCED TYPEWRITING

Speed and accuracy and review of typing problems. Forty-five words a minute required. Laboratory fee. Three periods. Fall, 1½ Semester Hours.

Economics

11 ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY

Soil, climate, raw materials, manufacturing and trade, and the position of the United States as a world power. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

21 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS

Production, consumption, exchange and distribution. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

22 PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS

Continuation of Economics 21. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Government

21 FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The origin, organization, development and functional aspects of the government of the United States. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

22 STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

The origin, organization and role of state and local political processes with emphasis on governmental problems in metropolitan areas. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

23 INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY

The objectives and application of American foreign policy to the Middle East, Africa, Asia and Latin America. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

History

11 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION

Political, social and cultural developments in western civilization to 1600 A.D. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION

Continuation of History 11 to the present. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

21 AMERICAN HISTORY

Social, economic and political development of America to 1865. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

22 AMERICAN HISTORY

Continuation of History 21 to the present. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Psychology and Education

11 INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATION

The aims, problems and methods of organized education. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 HISTORY OF EDUCATION

Sources of modern educational aims, practices, principles and trends. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

13 EFFECTIVE STUDY

Improvement of study habits and techniques through diagnostic tests, and mastery of study skills, note taking, review methods. Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour.

14 READING IMPROVEMENT

Techniques in reading for speed and comprehension. Fall, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour.

15 VOCABULARY BUILDING

Pronunciation, spelling, and word derivation, with scaled tests to measure achievement. Spring, Provisional Credit, 1 Semester Hour.

21 GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY

Vocabulary, methods and principles of general psychology. Laboratory fees. Fall, Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

23 CHILD PSYCHOLOGY

Development of the child from birth to adolescence. Prerequisite: Psychology and Education 21. Spring, 3 Semester Hours.

Religion

01 ORIENTATION

The implications of full-time Christian service in the church, practice in the preparation and presentation of discourses, and the organization and work of The United Methodist Church. Required of freshmen who are considering full-time Christian service in the church. One period. Fall, No Credit.

02 STUDIES FOR LICENSE TO PREACH

A study of books required for license to preach in The United Methodist Church. One period. Spring, No Credit.

11 THE OLD TESTAMENT

The development of Hebrew history, literature, and social and religious thought. Fall, 3 Semester Hours.

12 THE NEW TESTAMENT

The seal of Brevard College is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a cross inside. The words "Brevard College" are written in a circular path around the shield, and the year "1853" is at the bottom.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

ADMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully:

1. The attached application for admission, a picture, and a $15 application fee (payable by check or money order) should be mailed to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. The $15 fee will not be refunded. The manner in which you follow directions and complete this application will be an important part of the evaluation of you as an applicant.
2. When we receive your application and fee, we shall mail you one of our transcript forms and three recommendation forms.
3. Your secondary school authorities should complete the transcript form and return it to Brevard as promptly as possible.
4. Write your name on each recommendation form and give to the following persons:
 green—one to your junior or senior English teacher.
 yellow—another subject-matter teacher.
 white—someone with whom you have worked in extra-curricular activities.

Please follow the instructions above without substitutions. After January 1 you should use senior teachers instead of junior teachers.

5. Although it is not at all necessary that we receive additional recommendations, we are glad to receive one or two letters of recommendation if the person writing the letter knows you well and can provide us with additional information, including facts or examples which we have not received from other sources.
6. The CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test should be taken in December or January. To avoid payment of a late registration fee, the completed registration form and fee must be received by the authorities at Princeton approximately four weeks prior to the date on which the test is to be taken. The Board cannot guarantee to accept applications received later than two weeks prior to the testing date. It is your responsibility to see that the College Board mails an official score report to Brevard.
7. You will be notified about your admission shortly after all necessary forms are received by the Admissions Office.
